Street Improvement

[(c)] (a) Grading Curbing Paving or Macadamizing Streets and Collection of Cost by Foot-Front Rule

Section 1712 Proceedings With or Without Petition Boroughs with petition or without petition may grade curb gutter pave macadamize or otherwise improve streets [lanes and alleys] or parts or a particular width or additional widths thereof with or without the assistance or contribution of the State county or a corporation occupying the thoroughfare and where the petition for the improvement is signed by petitioners representing a majority in the number of feet of assessable properties abutting on the proposed improvement may assess and collect the whole cost thereof or the whole cost not thus aided or contributed or any part thereof from the owners of real estate abutting on the improvement by an equal assessment on the foot-front including the expenses of the necessary drainage but in all other cases not more than two-thirds of the whole cost thereof or two-thirds of the whole cost not thus aided or contributed may be assessed and collected from the abutting owners on the foot-front rule the remainder to be paid by the borough. The council may make equitable adjustments for corner lots or lots of irregular shape where an assessment for full frontage would be unjust. Property not otherwise assessable shall become assessable by the petition of the owner or the owner's representative. In all cases where the whole width of the highway is being paved without State or county aid and more than two-thirds of the total cost is proposed to be assessed on abutters the borough shall for this purpose be considered as owner of non-assessable property of street [and alley] intersections and of the deducted frontage on equitable adjustments. On petition of owners representing two-thirds of the number of feet of assessable properties abutting on the proposed improvement the total cost of the improvement or a lesser amount if the borough desires may be assessed on the assessable properties abutting without any deduction for non-assessable property or street and alley intersections or for the equitable adjustments aforesaid [Provided That] if the petition states that the total cost may be assessed on the abutters. Provided however that if in connection with such proceedings any street or sidewalk is so graded or changed in grade that private property is damaged thereby and the damages have not been released or agreed upon then the damages shall be awarded and benefits costs and expenses in connection with the improvement shall be assessed as provided in Article fourteen in the case of property taken injured or destroyed.

Section 1713 Notices of Assessments. The secretary of the borough shall cause thirty days' notice of the assessment to be given to each party assessed either by service on the owner or his agent or left on the assessed premises.

Section 1714 Collection of Assessments. If any assessment shall remain unpaid at the expiration of the notice it shall be the duty of the borough solicitor to collect the same with interest from the time of completion of the improvement by action of assumpsit or by a lien to be filed and collected in the same manner as municipal claims. When an owner has two or more lots against which there is an assessment for the same improvement all of such lots may be embraced in one claim.

[d] (b) Grading Curbing Paving
Macadamizing Boundary Streets and Streets Outside Limits

(1) By Agreement with Municipalities and Townships

Section 1725 Agreements to improve boundary Streets. Boroughs may enter into agreements with adjoining municipalities and townships for the grading curbing paving or macadamizing of streets [and alleys] which may be boundaries between such boroughs and municipalities or townships and may provide in such contract that the damages costs and expenses of such improvement shall be divided between such boroughs municipalities or townships in the proportion agreed upon.

(1) General Powers to Supply Water

Section 2401 Power to Supply Water Boroughs may provide a supply of water for the use of the public within such borough by erecting and operating water-works by purchasing and operating water-works by entering into contract with persons or corporations authorized to supply water within the limits of such borough or partly by the erection or purchase and operation of water-works and partly by entering into a contract

Section 2402 Contracts Not to Abridge Powers No contract for the supply of water hereafter entered into by any borough with any person or corporation shall in any wise abridge the power of the borough to construct and operate water-works as provided in the preceding section of this article but such power shall remain in force as though such contract had not been made

Section 2403 Issue of Bonds Where Water-Works Acquired Where the price and terms are agreed upon a borough may become the owner of and operate any water system owned and operated by a corporation furnishing water within the acquiring borough and in [adjacent] nearby townships or [nearby] boroughs and may pay therefor [by obligations secured by liens on the property acquired and which shall be secured solely by such water works systems and property and the revenues thereof and without any other liability on the part of such borough which obligations shall be exempt from taxation for any purpose] from the revenues derived from general obligation bonds or utility bonds or non-debt revenue bonds issued in the manner provided by the Municipal Borrowing Law Provided That this section shall not apply where a duly organized water company is authorized to furnish and is furnishing service in the [adjacent] nearby townships or [nearby] boroughs where the water company whose system is purchased under the provisions of this act had been furnishing service

Section 2404 [Vote of Electors in Special Cases In all boroughs where authority is given to construct water-works and where the qualified voters are given the right to determine by vote the expediency of constructing such water-works and whenever the question of expediency has been submitted to a vote and has been determined in favor of such expediency and the construction of such works has not been commenced within four years after such election it shall be unlawful thereafter to proceed with such construction until the expediency thereof has been determined by another election] Refunding Bonds Where any borough has heretofore acquired or shall hereafter acquire any water-works and the appurtenances thereto subject to any existing lien or liens and at the time of such acquisition issues utility bonds secured solely by liens on the property of such water-works and imposing no municipal liability then the borough may at the time such utility bonds mature or at any time prior thereto issue and sell utility bonds for the purpose of refunding such outstanding bonds which refunding bonds shall be issued as utility bonds in the manner provided by the Municipal Borrowing Law Such bonds so issued shall not be deemed to be the creation of new obligations but be deemed a continuation of the bonds existing or created at the time of the original acquisition of said water-works and the appurtenances thereto

Such bonds shall not be refunded for a longer period than twenty years and the refunding lien bonds issued shall not bear interest at a rate exceeding six per centum and the amount of the refunding lien bonds so issued shall not exceed in the aggregate the amount of the bonds to be refunded Provided however That any moneys placed in any fund by the borough or by any commission of water-works for the purpose of redeeming or paying such bonds at maturity shall be first applied to the payment as far as applicable of the principal of such bonds to be refunded and the balance of such bonds only shall be refunded by the issue of new bonds

Section 2405 Rates in Particular Boroughs Whenever the schedule of water-rates in any borough owning or controlling water-works shall have been fixed or limited by [general or] special act of Assembly the borough may change the rates or schedule of rates from time to time [so that the same shall not at any time exceed the rates now limited]

Section 2406 Contracts to Supply Water for [Fire Protection] Municipal Purposes Boroughs may receive bids from incorporated water companies authorized to do business within such borough for the supply of water for fire protection and for other municipal purposes and may contract therefor with such company

Section 2407 Power to Supply Water Beyond Limits of Borough Whenever any borough is maintaining water-works it shall be lawful for such borough to supply water for ordinary and domestic uses to persons and corporations outside the limits of such borough [at rates not less than those required to be paid by persons and corporations within the limits of such borough] but no such privilege shall conflict with the corporate rights of any water company or the rights of any other borough

Section 2408 Assessment for Water Mains [That boroughs in this Commonwealth] Boroughs shall have power to assess the whole cost or any part of the cost of construction of new water mains built in connection with the establishment or extension of a municipally owned water supply system and serving the properties abutting thereon against the properties abutting along the line thereof by the front-foot rule and to collect such assessments as other municipal claims are now by law collectible. Provided That the assessment shall be abated to the owner of the property assessed out of rates charged for water consumed in serving the property so assessed. And provided further That the borough may issue negotiable credit memorandum to the amount of the assessment which may be used for the payment of any water service to the extent of the said assessment.

(2) Acquisition by Eminent Domain

Section 2410 Appropriation of Lands and Waters Any borough desiring to erect water-works or to improve its water supply may appropriate springs streams rivers or creeks and lands easements and rights of way within or without its limits and for the purpose of conducting water obtained outside the limits of the borough may lay pipes under and over any lands rivers streams bridges highways and [across] under railroads. No water appropriated under the provisions of [the preceding] this section shall be used in such manner as to deprive the owner thereof of the free use and enjoyment of the same for domestic or farm purposes.

Section 2411 Agreements as to Damages Bonds Prior to any such appropriation the borough shall attempt to agree with the owner as to the damage done or likely to be done and if the parties cannot agree [or the owner cannot be found or is under legal incapacity] the borough shall file its bond in the court of common pleas conditioned for the payment to the owner of the property of the damages for the taking thereof when the same shall have been ascertained. Upon the approval of the bond and filing thereof the borough may enter upon such property.

Section 2412 Appointment of Viewers Proceedings Upon petition of either the property owner or borough at any time thereafter the court shall appoint three viewers from the county board of viewers who shall assess the damages for the property or rights appropriated and shall fix a time for their meeting of which notice shall be given to all parties interested. The proceedings for the assessment of damages shall be as provided in article fourteen of this act.

(3) Acquisition by Purchase after Appraisalment

Section 2415 Petition to Court Expressing Desire to Acquire Water-Works Whenever any person firm or any corporation shall own any water-works or system and a borough is desirous of owning and operating such water-works or system such borough may present its petition to the court of common pleas of the county setting forth that the borough is desirous of owning such water-works or system and that it will be necessary to issue bonds [to be secured by such water-works or system] and that a value should be placed upon such water-works or system including all property real and personal used in connection therewith.

Section 2416 Appointment of Engineers as Appraisers to Make Valuation The court shall thereupon appoint three civil engineers as appraisers to value and appraise such water-works or system and the property used in connection therewith and the contracts or agreements with municipalities or townships who shall file their report in the court within three months after their appointment unless such time be extended by the court.

Section 2417 Powers of Appraisers The appraisers shall have access to the books and records of the person firm or corporation owning such water-works or system to inform themselves as to the income and value thereof. They shall have power to administer oaths and are authorized to take the testimony of witnesses. Their report shall be final if not appealed from.

Section 2418 Appeal from Appraisalment Within ten days after notice of filing of any report in court either party may appeal from such appraisalment alleging an undervaluation or overvaluation of the property and praying for a hearing before the court. The court shall thereupon fix a time when such appeal may be heard of which time at least ten days' notice shall be given to the parties and upon such hearing the court shall have power to affirm or modify such report [and either] as to it appears just and proper. Either party may appeal from the final confirmation of such report to the Superior or Supreme Court.

Section 2419 Effect of Failure of Owner of Works to Accept Price Fixed After the value is finally determined the borough is authorized to buy such water-works or system at the valuation so fixed and the person firm or corporation owning the same shall within ten days after notice file in court its consent to sell and convey its water-works or system and property to the borough at the valuation fixed and in default thereof such person firm or corporation shall cease to have any exclusive privilege of supplying the borough or the citizens thereof with water and the borough may install such water-works or system as may be necessary for the accommodation of the public.

Section 2420 Issue of Bonds For the purpose of such purchase the borough may issue [bonds which shall be secured solely by such waterworks systems and property and the revenues thereof and without any other liability on the part of such borough] utility or non-debt revenue bonds in the manner provided by the Municipal Borrowing Law.

Section 2421 Limit of Bond Issue Such bonds shall not exceed in amount the value fixed by the appraisers or the court. The proceeds of the sale of such bonds shall be used exclusively for the purpose of paying for the property acquired.

Section 68 Sections 2422 2423 and 2424 of said act of May 4 1927 (P. L. 519) be and the same are hereby repealed.

Such regulations shall be made with reasonable consideration among other things to the character of the district and its peculiar suitability or particular uses and with a view to conserving the value of buildings and encouraging the most appropriate use of land throughout the borough.

Section 3304 The council shall exercise the powers granted in Section 3301 hereby by ordinance which shall provide for effecting of its purposes and for the enforcement of the regulations and restrictions established therein by reasonable fines and by the instituting appropriate actions or proceedings at law or in equity. At least one week and not more than three weeks prior to the presentation of the proposed ordinance an information notice of intention to consider such proposed ordinance and a brief summary setting forth the principal provisions of the proposed ordinance in such reasonable detail as will give adequate notice of its contents pursuant to a uniform form which shall be prepared or approved by the Department of Internal Affairs and a reference to the place or places within the borough where copies of the proposed ordinance may be examined shall be published in the manner provided by law for the publication of ordinances.

The provisions of the ordinance need not be advertised or recorded as in other cases. Provisions respecting the construction alteration extension repair care and maintenance of buildings and structures may be supplied by reference to a standing building code approved by the Department of Internal Affairs or to parts thereof determined by the council or such provisions of the ordinance may be supplied by reference to a typed or printed building code prepared under the direction of or accepted by the council or such provisions may consist of a standard code approved as aforesaid or parts thereof and also further provisions typed or printed as aforesaid. Copies of the provisions of the ordinance thus adopted by reference shall be made to any interested party at the cost thereof or may be furnished or loaned without charge and a copy of such provisions of the ordinance whether by reference to a standard building code or a combination of them shall be attached to the ordinance book with the same force and effect as if duly recorded therein.

The procedure set forth relating to the adoption of the ordinance may likewise be adopted in amending supplementing or repealing any of the provisions of the ordinance.

Section 3305 Changes Such regulations restrictions and boundaries may from time to time be amended supplemented changed modified or repealed. In case however of a protest against such change signed by the owners of twenty per cent or more either of the area of the lots included in such proposed change or of those immediately adjacent in the rear thereof extending one hundred feet therefrom or of those directly opposite thereto extending one hundred feet from the street frontage of such opposite lots such amendment shall not become effective except by the favorable vote of three-fourths of all the members of council.

Section 3306 Zoning Commission In order to avail itself of the powers conferred by this act the council shall appoint a commission of five citizens known as the Zoning Commission to recommend the boundaries of the various original districts and appropriate regulations to be enforced therein. Such commission shall make a preliminary report and hold public hearings thereon before submitting its final report and such council shall not hold its public hearings or take action until it has received the final report of such commission. Where a borough Planning Commission already exists it may be appointed as the Zoning Commission.

Section 3307 Board of Adjustment The council may appoint a board of adjustment and in the regulations and restrictions adopted pursuant to the authority of this article may provide that said board of adjustment may in appropriate cases and subject to appropriate conditions and safeguards make special exceptions to the terms of the ordinance in harmony with its general purpose and intent and in accordance with general or specific rules therein contained.

The board of adjustment shall consist of three members one of whom shall be designated to serve until the first day of January following the adoption of the zoning ordinance one until the first day of the second January thereafter and one until the first day of the third January thereafter. Their successors shall be appointed on the expiration of their respective terms to serve three years. The members of the board shall be removable for cause by the appointing authority upon written charges and after public hearing. Vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired term of any member whose term becomes vacant.

The board of adjustment shall adopt rules in accordance with the provisions of any ordinance adopted pursuant to this article. Meetings of the board shall be held at the call of the chairman and at such other times as the board may determine. Such chairman or in his absence the acting chairman may administer oaths and compel the attendance of witnesses. All meetings of the board shall be open to the public. The board shall keep minutes of its proceedings showing the vote of each member upon each question or if absent or failing to vote indicating such fact and shall keep records of its examinations and other official action all of which shall be immediately filed in the office of the board and shall be a public record.

Appeals to the board of adjustment may be taken by any person aggrieved or by any officer of the borough affected by any decision of the administrative officer. Such appeal shall be taken within a reasonable time as provided by the rules of the board by filing with the officer from whom the appeal is taken and with the board of adjustment a notice of appeal specifying the grounds thereof. The officer from whom the appeal is taken shall forthwith transmit to the board all papers constituting the record upon which the action appealed from was taken.

An appeal shall stay all proceedings in furtherance of the action appealed from unless the officer from whom the appeal is taken certifies to the board of adjustment after the notice of appeal shall have been filed with him that by reason of facts stated in the certificate a stay would in his opinion cause imminent peril to life and property. In such case proceedings shall not be stayed otherwise than by a restraining order which may be granted by the board of adjustment or by a court of record on application on notice to the officer from whom the appeal is taken and due cause shown.

The board of adjustment shall fix a reasonable time for the hearing of the appeal give public notice thereof as well as due notice to the parties in interest and decide the same within a reasonable time. Upon the hearing any party may appear in person or by agent or by attorney.

The board of adjustment shall have the following powers:

(1) To hear and decide appeals where it is alleged there is error in any order requirement decision or determination made by an administrative official in the enforcement of this article or of any ordinance adopted pursuant thereto.

(2) To hear and decide special exceptions to the terms of the ordinance upon which such board is required to pass under such ordinance.

(3) To authorize upon appeal in specific cases such variance from the terms of the ordinance as will not be contrary to the public interest where owing to special conditions a literal enforcement of the provisions of the ordinance will result in unnecessary hardship and so that the spirit of the ordinance shall be observed and substantial justice done.

In exercising the above mentioned powers such board may in conformity with the provisions of this article reverse or affirm wholly or partly or may modify the order requirement decision or determination appealed from and may make such order requirement decision or determination as in its opinion ought to be made. Notice of such decision shall forthwith be given to all parties in interest.

Any person aggrieved by any decision of the board of adjustment or any taxpayer or any officer of the borough may within thirty days after such decision of the board appeal to the court of common pleas of the county by petition duly verified setting forth that such decision is arbitrary capricious an abuse of discretion or otherwise not in accordance with law and specifying the grounds upon which he relies.

Upon presentation of the petition in proper form the court shall forthwith issue a writ of certiorari directed to the board of adjustment commanding it within twenty (20) days after the service thereof to certify to the court under the certificate of its chairman its entire record in the matter in which the appeal has been taken. The prothonotary shall serve the board of adjustment by registered mail with a copy of the writ and a copy of the appeal petition. On or before the return day of the writ the board of adjustment shall file the entire record with the writ in the office of the prothonotary.

Any time during the pendency of an appeal upon application of the appellant and upon due notice to the board of adjustment the court or a judge thereof may after hearing grant an order of supersedeas upon such terms and conditions including the filing of security as the court or the judge thereof may prescribe.

If upon the hearing of the appeal it shall appear to the court that testimony is necessary for the proper disposition of the appeal it may take evidence or appoint a referee to take such evidence as it may direct and report the same to the court with his findings of facts and conclusions of law. The court may reverse or affirm in whole or in part or may modify the decision appealed from as to it may appear just and proper.

Costs shall not be allowed against the board unless it shall appear to the court that it acted with gross negligence or in bad faith or with malice in making the decision appealed from

Section 3308 Remedies In case any building or structure is erected constructed reconstructed altered repaired converted or maintained or any building structure or land is used in violation of this article or of any ordinance or other regulation made under authority conferred hereby the proper local authorities of the borough in addition to other remedies may institute any appropriate action or proceedings to prevent such unlawful erection construction reconstruction alteration repair conversion maintenance or use to restrain correct or abate such violation to prevent the occupancy of said building structure or land or to prevent any illegal act conduct business or use in or about such premises

Section 3309 Certain Buildings of Public Utility Corporations Exempted This article shall not apply to any existing or proposed building or extension thereof used or to be used by public utility corporations if upon petition of the corporation the Public Utility Commission shall after a public hearing decide that the present or proposed situation of the building in question is reasonably necessary for the convenience or welfare of the public

Section 3310 Finances The council is empowered to appropriate out of the general borough fund such moneys otherwise unappropriated as it may deem fit to finance the work of the borough zoning commission and the board of adjustment and to enforce the zoning regulations and restrictions which are adopted and to accept grants of money and service for these purposes from either private or public sources State or Federal

And said bill having been read at length the third time,
And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. KLEIN. Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, House Bill 1216 represents a re-enactment and revision of the Borough Code of 1927. It was prepared under the supervision of the Local Government Commission, pursuant to legislative direction.

I have studied House Bill 1216 with a great deal of interest and I have followed that bill as it went through its various stages in the House of Representatives, and as referred to the Committee on Local Government in the Senate.

Generally speaking, Mr. President, I can say that House Bill 1216 is a very good bill and, if enacted into legislation will be one of the best pieces of legislation adopted by this session of the General Assembly.

However, Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, I call your attention to Section 1301, Page 232, and call your attention to the fact that in this so-called new borough code no provision has been made for any increase in taxation under the direction of the borough councils. The last limitation on the tax millage in the boroughs in this Commonwealth was set in 1927. We are all familiar with the fact that boroughs, like other municipalities, are experiencing a great deal of difficulty with their financial structure; costs of materials and wages have increased to tremendous proportions, and boroughs now find themselves in the position where they must curtail serious and important services, services that people should rightfully have, and unless these councils are given the right to provide for some increase in their tax structure these most essential services will have to be curtailed and in some cases cut out entirely.

I was opposed to this section when the Committee on Local Government met, and so indicated. I want to call your attention to the fact that the House of Representatives some time ago passed unanimously a bill which would give to borough councils the right to increase their millage from their present fifteen mill rate to a twenty mill rate.

I say this, Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, that I can see no more logic for requesting the Courts of Quarter Sessions to permit borough councils to increase their millage, than I can see in this General Assembly, or any other General Assembly, asking the Supreme Court of this Commonwealth to tell us what we should tax and what we should not tax and what our tax structure should be.

I think, once the citizens of any borough have elected to office councilmen, those councilmen ought to have the right to determine within reasonable limitations what their tax structure should be, because they certainly are more familiar with their local problems than are the courts, and I think throwing into the courts the question of an increase in millage makes a political football of the financial structure of all boroughs.

So, Mr. President, in all earnestness and in all sincerity, I have some minor amendments to offer. My amendments are in no way political and I know that these amendments, if adopted, will make a better bill, a bill that is now good. So, Mr. President, with the sole purpose of improving a good bill, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments to House Bill 1216.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. KLEIN. Mr. President, with the sole purpose of improving a good bill, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments to House Bill No. 1216.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend Sec. 41 (Sec. 1301), page 232, line 5, by striking out all of said line and inserting in lieu thereof: "[for general boroughs purposes any tax not exceeding fifteen (15)] any tax not exceeding seventeen"; amend Sec. 41 (Sec. 1301), page 232, line 12, by striking out the word "five" and inserting in lieu thereof: "three"

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. TALLMAN and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—15

Barr,	Jaspan,	Margie,	Stiefel,
Dent,	Klein,	Rahausen,	Tarr,
Haluska,	Lane,	Rosenfeld,	Woodring,
Holland,	Leader,	Ruth,

So the question was determined in the negative.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—49

Barr,	Geltz,	Mallery,	Tyler,

Section 6. Payment. At the time of filing the return, the person making the same shall pay the amount of tax shown as due thereon to the collector.

Section 7. Powers and Duties of Collector. (a) It shall be the duty of the collector to collect and receive the taxes fines and penalties imposed by this act for payment over to the school treasurer where such school treasurer is not the collector as in the case of other school taxes collected. It shall also be his duty to keep a record showing the amount received by him from each person paying the tax and the date of such receipt.

(b) The collector is hereby charged with the enforcement of the provisions of this act and is hereby empowered to prescribe, adopt, promulgate and enforce rules and regulations relating to any matter pertaining to the administration and enforcement of this act including provision for the re-examination and correction of returns and payments alleged or found to be incorrect or as to which an overpayment is claimed or found to have occurred. Any person aggrieved by any decision of the collector shall have the right of appeal to the court of common pleas as in other cases provided.

(c) The collector is hereby authorized to examine the books, papers and records of any taxpayer or supposed taxpayer in order to verify the accuracy of any return made, or if no return was made, to ascertain the tax imposed. Every such taxpayer or supposed taxpayer is hereby directed and required to give to the collector the means facilities and opportunity for such examinations and investigations as are hereby authorized. The collector is hereby authorized to examine any person connected with any business concerning any gross receipts which was or should have been returned for taxation and to this end may compel the production of books, papers and records and the attendance of all persons before him, whether as parties or witnesses whom he believes to have knowledge of such gross receipts.

Section 8. Suit on Collection; Penalty. (a) It shall be the duty of the collector to sue for the recovery of all taxes due him not paid when due. Such suits shall be begun within sixty (60) days after such taxes become due.

(b) If for any reason the tax is not paid when due in each year, interest at the rate of six per centum (6%) per annum on the amount of said tax and an additional penalty of one per centum (1%) of the amount of the unpaid tax for each month or fraction thereof during which the tax remains unpaid shall be added and collected by the collector. Where suit is brought for the recovery of any such tax the person shall be liable for and it shall be the duty of the collector to collect in addition to the tax assessed against such person the costs of such collection and the interest and penalties herein imposed.

Section 9. Penalties. (a) Whoever wilfully makes any false or untrue statement on his return shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than two thousand dollars ($2,000) or to undergo imprisonment for not more than two (2) years or both.

(b) Whoever wilfully fails or refuses to appear before the collector in person with his books, records or accounts for examination when required under the provisions of this act to do so, or who wilfully refuses to permit inspection of the books, records or accounts of any business, in his custody or control, when the right to make such inspection by the collector is requested, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500) or to undergo imprisonment for not more than six (6) months or both.

(c) Whoever wilfully fails or refuses to file a return required by this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or to undergo imprisonment for not more than one (1) year or both.

Section 10. Employees; Compensation. Upon the recommendation of the collector, the board of public education shall appoint and fix the salaries of such assistants and employes as may be necessary to aid such collector in the proper administration of this act.

Section 11. Saving Clause. (a) Nothing contained in this act shall be construed to empower any school district of the first class to levy and collect the taxes hereby imposed on any person or on any business or any portion of any business not within the taxing power of this Commonwealth under the Constitution of the United States.

(b) If the tax or any portion of the tax imposed upon any person or business or upon any portion of a business under the provisions of this act shall be held by any court of competent jurisdiction to be in violation of the Constitution of the United States or of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the decision of the court shall not affect or impair the right to impose such taxes or the validity of taxes so imposed upon other persons or businesses or portions thereof as herein provided. It is the intent of the General Assembly that the taxes so held to be unconstitutional were not to be imposed but that the remainder of said taxes imposed hereunder were to be imposed and collected.

Section 12. Repeal. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

Section 13. Effective Date. The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment and shall remain in effect until and including the thirty-first day of December, one thousand nine hundred forty-nine.

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Messrs. ROYER and ANDREWS.

(Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 62.

In the House of Representatives, June 5, 1947

Whereas, The several counties of the Commonwealth, in recognition of the service and devotion of the men and women of the county, who served the Nation in the armed forces during the first and second World Wars, propose to establish permanent records and mementos to them; and

Whereas, Rosters by counties are available in the Department of Military Affairs for the service personnel of World War II, but are obtainable only for the Commonwealth at large for the first World War; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concurs), That the Department of Military Affairs is hereby directed to prepare and compile a separate roster for each county of the Commonwealth of the residents of the county who served during World War I, and to make the same available to the proper authorities of the county as early as the same can be accomplished.

Referred to Committee on Military Affairs.

By Messrs. STIMMEL and FLEMING.

RESOLUTION No. 63.

In the House of Representatives, June 5, 1947.

Whereas, There exists a practice by which purchasers of automobiles and other personal property are denied the right to select and obtain insurance coverage of their own choice; and

Whereas, Certain vendors of automobiles and other personal property demand as a condition precedent to the selling of an automobile and other personal property that the purchaser finance and insure that property in companies represented or selected by the vendor; and

Whereas, This practice is monopolistic and detrimental to the rights and welfare of the public since the insurance coverage forced upon the buyers of personal property is in many cases either inadequate or excessive and is permitted to expire upon completion of the deferred payments without the knowledge of the purchaser who is then left unprotected; and

Whereas, The public are the victims of these abuses, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission is hereby requested to make a thorough and comprehensive investigation and study of the abuses existing in the practice of certain vendors of personal property of writing or causing to be written insurance covering the goods they sell, and to study the advisability of prohibiting vendors of personal property to write or otherwise share in the money received from insurance on the property they sell, whether or not abuses are found to exist, and to make a report on their findings together with recommendations of remedial legislation to the next regular session of the General Assembly.

Referred to Committee on Rules.

RESOLUTION CONCURRED IN BY SENATE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has concurred in the resolution from the House of Representatives, as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 4, 1947.

Next year the City of Reading, Pennsylvania, will celebrate its bicentenary as the said city was founded in 1748 by Thomas and Richard Penn, sons of William Penn. The City of Reading and the County of Berks were named respectively for the native English city and shire of the Penns.

In connection with its history it is interesting to note that during the French and Indian War the colonial frontiers passed through Berks County. Massacres and Indian alarms were frequent. The provincial government failed to establish an organized resistance and that task fell to one of the greatest men of the Colonial era—Conrad Weiser of Heidelberg. Next to William Penn, he was the pioneer who by his honesty, understanding and fair dealing had won the respect and confidence of the Indians. He was the Province's chief Indian interpreter and represented not only his own Province but also Maryland and Virginia.

Contemporaneous with Weiser, there lived in a neighboring township to Reading two families connected with each other by marriage who have contributed two of America's greatest men. The Boones gave us Daniel Boone, the pioneer of Kentucky, who was born here in 1734; the Lincolns gave us Abraham Lincoln, born here in 1738, the grandfather of the martyred President.

The early industries of Reading had their inception in the manufacture of iron and its products. Reading was the center of a region that was among the very first to produce iron, and for nearly a century this region maintained its supremacy in that line. It was one of the earliest producers of stoves and castings; in fact, the first cook stove in America was made here in 1767 by Thomas Maybury.

In 1716, Thomas Rutter erected upon a branch of the Manatawny Creek the first forge ever built in Pennsylvania. Several years later he built the first furnace. Charcoal forges and furnaces arose in such numbers throughout our hills that by the time of the Revolution, Berks County had become the center of the colonial iron industry.

Reading and Berks are proud of the men they have given to the service of the State and the Nation. Besides Conrad Weiser, there were such men as Joseph Heister, Governor of Pennsylvania, 1820-1823; John Andrew Schulze, Governor, 1823-1829; a father of our common school system; Joseph Ritner, Governor, 1835-1839; Spencer Fullerton Baird, scientist, long head of the Smithsonian Institute; David M. Gregg, Brigadier General, who won fame upon the battlefield of Gettysburg; Henry A. Muhlenberg and J. Glancy Jones, Ministers to Austria; Frederick Smith and Warren J. Woodward, Justices of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania; William Strong, associate justice of the Supreme Court of the United States; George F. Baer, railroad President, Nathan C. Schaeffer, Superintendent of Public Instruction of Pennsylvania under seven successive governors, and Hunter Liggett, Lieutenant General of the U. S. Army and second in command in the American Expeditionary Forces.

Today the City of Reading has a population of 110,568, which makes it fifth in population and third in industry among the cities of Pennsylvania, a city whose metropolitan area embraces a population of 266,855.

In Metropolitan Reading is located 13 of the largest plants of their kind in the United States producing full-fashioned hosiery, full-fashioned hosiery machinery, narrow fabrics, single thread lace machinery, high grade alloy steel, small steel castings, glove silk underwear, menthol cough drops, heat treated automobile frames, glass door knobs, goggles, optical goods and children's shoes.

Here also are the two largest single unit foundries in the world and the largest brick-burning kiln in the world; also the great locomotive and car shops of the Reading Company, one of the largest and best equipped in America. Reading is the nation's secondlargest center for the manufacture of builders' hardware and hosiery and knit goods.

Reading is also recognized as the home of the pretzel industry of America, a commodity that is exported to 20 foreign countries, in Europe, South America, South Africa, India and Arabia. The high quality of the Reading-made pretzel is due in large measure to the pure mountain spring water, found in Reading, which is used in the making of this delicacy.

Reading claims the distinction of a symphony Orchestra of 60 pieces; two Choral Societies, a Chamber Music Ensemble, a Civic Opera Company and many other excellent music groups which have contributed to the city's fame as a center of art and culture, therefore be it

Resolved (If the Senate concur) That the General Assembly of this Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby congratulates the said city upon its bicentenary and wishes it continued success in the years to come, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit to the Mayor of the City of Reading, a copy of this resolution.

RESOLUTION CONCURRED IN BY SENATE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has concurred in the resolution from the House of Representatives, as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 4, 1947.

The sudden death of Judge Fred S. Reese at his residence in Carlisle, Pennsylvania, on May 30, 1947, was a profound shock to his many friends and admirers throughout the Commonwealth.

Gifted with an innate sense of fairness and an unusual perspicuity his career as President Judge of the Cumberland County Courts was truly one of justice for all.

Born at Illion, New York, December 12, 1896, he received his early education in the public schools of that community and upon his graduation from Cornell in 1919 with an L.L.D. degree Judge Reese joined the faculty of the Dickinson Law School and was soon regarded as an unusually capable and popular teacher.

He first held public office upon his election as district attorney of Cumberland County in 1927 and demonstrated his capabilities so well in that position that he was elected to the bench in 1931, becoming the youngest jurist to ever sit upon the Cumberland County bench. In 1941 Judge Reese was reelected without opposition.

A man vitally interested in his community and the Nation Judge Reese, upon his establishing residence in Carlisle, soon became identified with many charitable and other worthwhile projects. As a Boy Scout leader, a churchman, and officer of many fraternal organizations and local community projects his boundless energy and ability to direct the achievement of desired goals made him an invaluable asset to his community. In 1946 Judge Reese spent the summer in Germany as legal adviser to the Public Health, Welfare Religious and Education Branch of the United States Military Government.

In his passing, Judge Reese leaves a vacancy in his community and the judicial system of the Commonwealth that will be difficult if not impossible to fill, and his family and friends will sorely miss his devotion and friendship; therefore, be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That in the passing of Judge Fred S. Reese the Commonwealth and Carlisle have lost a distinguished citizen whose record of service will long be remembered; and be it further Resolved, That as a sincere but inadequate expression of the deep sympathy of the General Assembly the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to his widow, Mrs. Edith R. Reese, residing at Carlisle, Pennsylvania.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. REAGAN asked and obtained permission for the Committee on Agriculture and Dairy Industry to meet during the session of the House.

SENATE MESSAGE

HOUSE BILLS CONCURRED IN BY SENATE

HOUSE BILL No. 1243.

An Act making an appropriation to the Cresson Volunteer Fire Company for the protection of State Property.

With the information that the Senate has passed the same without amendment.

COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE GOVERNOR

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 263

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,

Governor's Office, Harrisburg, June 5, 1947.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 263, Printer's No. 57, entitled "An act relating to firemen's pension funds in cities of the Second Class (A) and directing such cities to appropriate certain moneys thereto."

This bill is a new measure and would direct the city treasurer to pay over to the organization or association constituting and having in charge the distribution of firemen's pension funds, one and one-half per cent of all city taxes collected by the city other than taxes levied to pay interest on or to extinguish the debt of the city, or any part thereof. Section 2 of the bill provides, "The organizations herein mentioned shall consist only of such as are by city ordinance designated as the official and authorized organization to hold, receive and distribute the funds or moneys for the purpose of pensioning the firemen of said cities."

This bill of course applies to only the City of Scranton, Lackawanna County, and I am uninformed as to whether the government of the City of Scranton maintains an active firemen's retirement fund or pension fund, or employes' retirement system. This bill is silent as to the nature of the organization or association making distribution of firemen's pensions. Primarily, I wish to point out, however, that one and one-half per cent of all city taxes, with the exceptions of debt and sinking fund service, will vary considerable in amount over a period of years. Especially is this true inasmuch as the Legislature is now authorizing municipalities to tax anything not now taxed by the Commonwealth.

The taxing powers of the city emanate from authorization given by State statutes to collect taxes for various certain purposes. These purposes are earmarked, and the collection for that purpose cannot legally be used for another purpose. The main objection to the bill lays in the provision that the amount collected by taxation would be transferred to another organization. There is no control of such tax retained by the city council. When council provides taxes for certain expenditures, it is the duty of that body to make such expenditures themselves, or under their direction. They cannot give that power to another person or organization.

The Constitution of 1874 enunciated this principle in Article 3, Section 20, wherein it is stated:

"The General Assembly shall not delegate to any special commission, private corporation or association, any power to make, supervise or interfere with any municipal improvement, money, property or effects, whether held in trust or otherwise, or to levy taxes or perform any municipal function whatever."

In this bill, the Legislature expressly authorized revenue derived from taxes to be paid to another organization. Under the terms of the bill, all control over this money is lost by the city government, and I therefore believe that this bill is in plain violation of this section of the Constitution.

Section 2 of the bill provides that the organizations mentioned shall consist only of such as are by city ordinance designated as the official and authorized organization to receive and distribute the funds. I am at loss to know whether such an ordinance is already in existence, or whether one will be passed in the future. This of course is not material in construing the present bill, but I can find no authority for the council of cities of Second Class (A) to pass such an ordinance.

It is obvious that the provisions of this Bill are in direct contravention of the provisions of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, and for that reason I am obliged to veto it.

JAMES H. DUFF.

On the question,

Shall the bill become a law, the veto of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. CORDIER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the communication, together with the bill be laid upon the table.

The motion was agreed to.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 80, entitled:

An Act declaring and adopting the song "Pennsylvania" by a Pennsylvanian, Gertrude Martin Rohrer, as the State song of the Commonwealth.

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. DIX. Mr. Speaker, we have here on page 5, Senate Bill 80, a bill declaring and adopting the song "Pennsylvania" by a Pennsylvanian, Gertrude Martin Rohrer as the State song of Pennsylvania. It seems to me that this is rather a late hour to adopt a song for the great state of Pennsylvania. I am sure that the Members of the House do not wish to adopt a third class song for a first class state. Now, I do not mean to infer by that that this is a third class song, but you will recall that about four years ago the Members of the House passed a bill which would make the State song out of one called "The Rolling Hills of Pennsylvania." We gave that due consideration and we passed it over to the Senate, and the Senate was not satisfied with it, they did not consider it and we did not get a State song for the great state of Pennsylvania.

Now, Mr. Speaker, the Senate has picked up a song, sent it over to the House, and I believe that we should pass on it at this late date in the same manner in which the Senate acted upon our song several years ago.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to have this bill recommitted to the Committee on State Government.

The SPEAKER. Does the Chair understand that the gentleman from Wayne is out of tune with the Senate?

Mr. DIX. Mr. Speaker, I believe that four years ago the song "The Rolling Hills of Pennsylvania" was sung in the hall of this House. I don't know if any individuals sang it or not but I would suggest that the sponsor of this bill, Mr. Snowden, be requested to come over to the House and sing this song for us.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. DIX. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on State Government.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mrs. DYE. Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, I disagree with my friend from Wayne, Mr. Dix, in regard to this bill creating a State song for Pennsylvania. This song is sung by the Federation of Womens' Clubs all over Pennsylvania and we believe it is a very beautiful and proper song for our fine State.

Mr. DIX. Mr. Speaker, this may be a very beautiful song, but I feel it is a very serious matter. In America we have some very remarkable songs. We have "America," "America the Beautiful," "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean," and other songs that fittingly describe America.

Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, we have not heard this song, we do not even know the music of the song, and I therefore, in view of the late hour that this song is brought into the House, I still insist upon my motion to have this bill recommitted to the Committee on State Government.

The SPEAKER. I notice the gentleman has used the term "late hour" many times. Does the gentleman recall the time that the Members of the House joined in the singing of a previous song?

Mr. ERB. Mr. Speaker, my colleague from Wayne, Mr. Dix, might be a poet laureate but he is no singer. So I suggest to you and to the Members of the House that this bill be read and passed on and that we ask Mrs. Dye to sing it when it is up for consideration on third reading. I thank you.

The SPEAKER. Does the bass singer from Union desire to be recognized at this time?

Mr. REAGAN. Mr. Speaker, I hate to take sides against my friend, the gentleman from Wayne, Mr. Dix, or against my friend, the lady from Mercer, Mrs. Dye, but I do know that Mr. Dix sings because I have heard something that sounded like singing directly in the seat behind me, and I am sure that Mrs. Dye has a very melodious voice that can easily be distinguished because of its resonance, and since there is such a dispute, why not have them sing it as a duet and let the House judge for itself.

Mr. GOFF. Mr. Speaker, I haven't had an opportunity to hear this masterpiece, and although I agree with Mrs. Dye, the lady from Mercer, that the Federated Club Women are in favor of this song, I think that Pennsylvania has waited so long to get a State song that we should consider this a little seriously. I suggest that we take it back to Committee and perhaps get some action on it from Mr. Dix, and pass it over to a musical committee, because if we are going to give this song to the people of Pennsylvania, it is hard to rime words with "Pennsylvania." I know that Fred Waring hesitated to write a song for this State because he couldn't get anything to rime with the word "Pennsylvania". So I will have to go along with my friend from Wayne, Mr. Dix, in asking that this be returned back to Committee.

The SPEAKER. The Chair might suggest that if there is going to be any music the House should have the benefit rather than the State Government Committee. The Chair might also state that the only musical committee in the Hall of the House is the Committee on Rules.

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, this bill was released from the Committee on State Government by unanimous action. I do not see the Chairman of that Committee here at the present time but I am sure it is not the wish of the Committee that this bill be recommitted to it. I am sure it is our desire to have it remain on the calendar and let become of it what may.

The SPEAKER. The Chair might state that he has heard a record played of this particular song, and if the House desires we might have the record played before the bill is passed on final passage in the hall of the House so that everyone might hear the song. If the House so desires the Chair will try to make such arrangements.

Mr. WORLEY. Mr. Speaker, the State Government Committee was informed that we would have a band to hear this music before this bill passed.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman sing alto? The Chair might state to the gentleman that you can play music with a trombone but you cannot play words with an instrument.

Mrs. DYE. Mr. Speaker, I would like seriously to say that this is really a very beautiful song; the Federated Club Women of Pennsylvania, which number several hundred thousand, want this son, and also the American Legion Auxiliary and the Pennsylvania Federation of Music Clubs used this song. We have the unanimous support of all those groups for this song to become our Pennsylvania State Song.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will make arrangements to have a record played before the Members of the House are requested to vote on the bill on third reading.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

L. 1278) entitled "An act relating to counties of the second third fourth fifth sixth seventh and eighth classes and revising amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto" authorizing appropriations for support of tuberculosis sanatoria.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on second reading?

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, I want to find out if this bill will have anything to do, and perhaps the sponsor can tell me whether it would aid in opening the beds in the respective institutions to allow more patients to be admitted to the respective institutions?

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the question of the gentleman from Allegheny, it is my understanding that this will open up beds all over the State for any institution, not only state institutions.

May I explain to the gentleman that Senate Bills 596 and 597 are substantially the same as those sponsored by me at other sessions. The law now says that the county cannot pay more than ten dollars a week for the support and maintenance of indigent tubercular patients, and of course, that amount is far too little compared to your present costs, so it was thought best to amend it by knocking out the limitation and allowing the counties to take care of these people at the prevailing rate, at whatever institution they were placed. But this does not limit it solely to state institutions. I know of a sanitarium close to my home where our county, for instance, intends to maintain patients and maintain them there should this become law.

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, I think the gentleman from Montgomery. I think at this time it is proper to bring out the fact that these institutions should be aided and this is now the proper time to let the House know and let the Members of the Appropriations Committee know that beds throughout the State are being kept without patients in them as a result of the inability to have doctors, assistants, working around the place, and technicians.

With respect to the housing facilities in Pittsburgh alone, we have seventy-five to be admitted. In less than six weeks that number was reduced to forty, and at least sixteen died waiting to be admitted. This is a vital problem and I think this is an opportune time to discuss the matter. I am sorry to take up the time of the House because this does not directly bear on this bill before us, but I think it is an opportune time to bring out the fact that our tuberculosis hospitals have beds in the state without any patients and nobody to help them, the help is not paid, and there are no facilities.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on second reading?

It was agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

It is not intended by this act that a sewer sewerage or sewage treatment rental or charge may be imposed by a municipality only in cases where there shall exist or be in contemplation (a) an indebtedness of the municipality incurred in connection with the sewer sewerage system or sewage treatment works or (b) non-debt revenue bonds issued therefor or (c) a contract with any authority or private corporation furnishing or undertaking to construct facilities with which to furnish sewer sewerage or sewage treatment services sewer rentals rates or charges may be imposed and collected for any or all of the purposes enumerated in clauses (a) and (c) of this section and may or may not include the purpose provided for by clause (d) without making any provision for any of the purposes enumerated in clause (b) of this section

Section 2 Said act is hereby further amended by adding after section two thereof twelve new sections to read as follows

Section 3 Whenever any authority established in accordance with law has wholly or partially constructed or completed or shall hereafter wholly or partially construct or complete any sewer sewerage system or sewage treatment works or shall have acquired or shall hereafter acquire the same such authority may provide by resolution adopted either before or after the acquisition or construction thereof for the imposition and collection of an annual rental rate or charge for the use of such sewer sewerage system or sewage treatment works from the owners of and the users of water in the property served or to be served by it such rental rate or charge may be imposed and collected in any of the above enumerated cases irrespective of the existence or nonexistence of any indebtedness incurred or any revenue bonds issued in connection with such sewer sewerage system or sewage treatment works or whether or not any such indebtedness or revenue bonds are contemplated

The annual rental rate or charge so imposed shall be a lien on the properties served and such liens may be filed in the office of the prothonotary and collected in the manner provided by law for the filing and collection of municipal claims

Section 4 Any such annual rental rate or charge imposed by any authority shall be determined exclusively by it and may be such sum as may be sufficient to meet any or all of the following classes of expense (a) the total annual organization and administrative expenses of the authority of whatever nature and kind (ab) the amount expended annually by the authority in the construction improvement repair maintenance and operation of its facilities and properties including the treatment and disposal of industrial wastes and the disposal of any storm water or surface drainage and including sums expended for minor extensions and additions (c) such annual amount as may be necessary for the payment of the principal of and interest on its obligations and to fulfill the terms and provisions of any agreements made with the purchasers or holders of any such obligations (d) such annual amount as may be necessary to fulfill the terms and provisions of any other agreements (e) the amount expended annually for designing new or additional sewers sewerage systems and sewage treatment works and for paying during the period of design and construction thereof of the interest debt service and other requirements of any notes bonds or other evidence of indebtedness issued or incurred to finance such design and construction and (f) sufficient to establish a margin of safety of ten per centum of the total annual estimated expenditures for such purposes any unused surplus from any preceding year shall be paid into the fund accruing from said rentals rates or charges and whenever any amount in said fund exceeds the said margin of ten per centum the excess shall be paid into the debt service fund if any otherwise the same shall accumulate and be available for any of the purposes enumerated in clauses (a) (b) (d) and (e) of this section The amount required for the interest debt service fund and other requirements of all outstanding notes bonds or other evidences of indebtedness shall be paid in to the debt service fund and the amount so paid including any excess as above provided shall not be used for any other purpose unless consent to do so be given by the holders of such notes bonds or other evidence of indebtedness

It is not intended by this act that a sewer sewerage or sewage treatment rental rate or charge may be imposed by an authority only in cases where there shall exist or be in contemplation an indebtedness of the authority incurred in connection with the sewer sewerage system or sewage treatment works or revenue bonds issued therefor sewer sewerage and sewage treatment rentals or charges may be imposed and collected for any or all of the purposes enumerated in clauses (a) (b) (d) and (e) of this section and may or may not include the purpose provided for by clause (f) without making any provision for any of the purposes enumerated in clause (c) of this section

Section 5 It shall be lawful for any municipality to execute such agreements and contracts with an authority undertaking to provide sewer sewerage or sewage treatment service to such municipality and its inhabitants as may be deemed necessary or advisable to grant convey lease or transfer to such authority its water supply system sewers sewerage system sewage treatment works and appurtenant facilities and any improvements extensions and additions thereto and to assign to such authority its power to impose rentals rates and charges for the use thereof

It shall also be lawful for any municipality or authority which shall impose any rentals rates or charges for water or water service or for the use of any sewer sewerage system or sewage treatment works to use the proceeds thereof to pay currently during the period of design and construction of new or additional sewers sewerage systems or sewage treatment works all expenses incident to such design including in the case of an authority all of its organization administrative and other expenses of whatever nature and the interest sinking fund or debt service fund and other requirements of any notes bonds or other evidences of indebtedness issued or incurred or to be issued or incurred by the municipality or authority for financing the construction thereof

Section 6 Any municipality and if consent to do so has first been obtained from the municipality involved any authority undertaking to abate stream pollution may impose and collect during the period of design and construction of new or additional sewers sewerage systems or sewage treatment works special assessments to be used for paying currently all expenses incident to the design of such new or additional sewers sewerage systems and sewage treatment works including in the case of an authority all of its organization administrative and other expenses of whatever nature and the interest sinking fund or debt service fund and other requirements of any outstanding notes bonds or other evidences of indebtedness issued or incurred or to be issued or incurred by the municipality or authority for financing the construction thereof such special assessments may be imposed and collected in accordance with the provisions of this act and shall be a lien on the properties affected such liens may be filed in the office of the prothonotary and collected in the manner provided by law for the filing and collection of municipal claims

Section 7 (a) Water utilities are hereby authorized as to their water customers to act as the billing and collecting agents of any municipality or authority imposing upon such customers any rentals rates or charges for the use of any sewer sewerage system or sewage treatment works or assessments for the design and construction of any sewer sewerage system or sewage treatment works for the future use of such customers as authorized by this act or by any other law upon request of any such municipality or authority and in accordance with its instructions the water utility may include with its own bills for water or water service rentals rates and charges for sewer sewerage and sewage treatment service and special assessments for the design and construction of any projected sewers sewerage systems and sewage treatment works such added rentals rates charges and assessments shall be set forth separately from the charge for water or water service but both shall be payable to and collected by such water utility which shall at least quarter-annually turn over the moneys it has collected to the municipality or authority which shall have imposed such rentals rates charges or assessments

(b) If any customer of a water utility shall neglect or fail to pay any rental rate charge or assessment for sewer sewerage or sewage treatment service or for the design and construction of any sewer sewerage system or sewage treatment works for a period of thirty days from the due date thereof such water utility is hereby authorized at the request and direction of the municipality or authority imposing such rental rate charge or assessment to shut off the supply of water to such customer until all such due rentals rates charges and assessments together with any penalties and interest thereon shall be paid if such municipality or authority shall also furnish water or water service to any person such municipality or authority is hereby authorized to shut off the supply of water to such person as herein set forth

(c) Such municipality or authority shall pay to every such water utility the reasonable clerical and other expenses incurred by it in providing such billing collecting and shut off services and the estimated loss of revenues resulting from such shut-off if a dispute shall arise between any such water utility and a municipality or authority regarding the cost of such services or the amount of such revenues lost such dispute may be submitted by either party to the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission whose decision unless reversed on appeal by the Superior Court shall be final but this act shall not be construed to grant to the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission any other regulatory power or jurisdiction whatsoever over municipalities or authorities

Section 8 As the proper treatment and disposal of sewage and industrial wastes are vital to the health and well-being of the inhabitants of the Commonwealth and to the purity of its waters it is the declared policy of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that the proper treatment and disposal of sewage and industrial wastes are complementary to the supply of water and that the use of water by any person entails the obligation to provide industrial wastes resulting therefrom in such manner as for or pay the cost of disposing of the sewage and may be required by law including payment of rentals rates charges and assessments imposed by the municipality or an authority for the use of or for designing and financing the construction of sewers sewerage systems and sewage treatment works for the abatement of pollution all rentals rates and charges for the use of sewers sewerage systems and sewage treatment works and all special assessments for the cost of designing and financing the construction of projected sewers sewerage systems and sewage treatment works authorized by this act or by any other law may therefore be imposed upon and if so imposed shall be payable by the person using water in or responsible under any law for payment of the water bills for water supplied to property which is or will be connected to any sewer sewerage system or sewage treatment works for the use of which or for the design and financing of construction of which such rentals rates charges and assessments are imposed where such person is not the owner of such property the owner shall also be liable for the payment of such rentals rates charges and assessments

Such rentals rates charges and assessments the amount of which may be fixed or altered exclusively by the municipality or authority shall be reasonable and uniform throughout the area served or to be served and may be supplied to all properties which are or will be served based upon the volume of water currently used in or by the sewers sewerage systems or sewage treatment works or upon the estimated volume of water in or the flat rate charges for water supplies to such properties or may be any fixture or other method of flat rate assessment such rentals rates charges and assessments may as to commercial and industrial properties be based also upon the nature and character of the sewage or industrial wastes discharged therefrom in fixing such rentals rates charges or assessments classification of users may be made with graduated rentals rates charges or assessments determined by the character of the user and the quantity kind and nature of the use

Any person questioning the reasonableness of any such rental rate charge or assessment or questioning his liability for the payment thereof may within sixty days after the imposition thereof upon him bring suit against the municipality or authority in the court of common pleas which shall have exclusive jurisdiction to determine the controversy appeals may be taken to the Superior Court within thirty days after the court of common pleas has rendered a final decision

Section 9 The rights powers and privileges granted to authorities by this act shall be in addition to and not in limitation of those granted by any other law and shall be construed to enlarge and not to reduce or limit the rights powers and privileges of authorities

Section 10 The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania does hereby pledge to and agree with any person firm or corporation or Federal agency subscribing to or acquiring the notes bonds or other evidences of indebtedness to be issued by any municipality or authority for the design construction extension improvement or enlargement of any sewer sewerage system or sewage treatment works or part thereof that the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the municipality or authority until all notes bonds or other evidences of indebtedness at any time issued together with the interest thereon are fully met and discharged the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania does further pledge to and agree with the United States and any other Federal agency that in the event that any Federal agency shall construct or contribute any funds for the design construction extension improvement or enlargement of any such project or any portion thereof the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania will not alter or limit the rights and powers of the municipality or authority in any manner which would be inconsistent with the continued maintenance and operation of the project or the improvement thereof or which would be inconsistent with the due performance of any agreements between the municipality or authority and any such Federal agency and the municipality or authority shall continue to have and may exercise all powers herein granted so long as the same shall be necessary to desirable for the carrying out of the purposes of this act and the purposes of the United States in the design or construction or improvement or enlargement of the project or such portion thereof

Section 11 It is an intent and purpose of this act that municipalities and authorities undertaking to abate stream pollution be enabled to obtain sufficient revenues or income during the period of design and construction of any new or additional sewer sewerage system or sewage treatment works to pay currently all organization administrative engineering legal financing and other expenses incurred in connection therewith until such time as rentals rates and charges may be imposed and collected for sewer sewerage or sewage treatment service after such sewer sewerage system or sewage treatment works shall have been completed and put in operation

Section 12 In order to protect its investment and safeguard the income-producing ability of its facilities any municipality or authority is hereby authorized to determine which industrial wastes will or may damage the structures of its sewers sewerage systems or sewage treatment works or interfere with the proper functioning of its sewage treatment works such municipality or authority system of industrial wastes which it deems harmful and is hereby authorized to notify any person to discontinue the discharge into any municipal sewer or sewerage is hereby empowered to disconnect the waste outlet of the offending person from such municipal sewer or sewerage system the discharge by any person of such industrial wastes into such municipal sewer or sewerage system after receiving notice to discontinue such discharge is hereby declared to be a nuisance and shall be punishable and abatable as provided by law

Section 13 As used in this act the following words and phrases shall have the meanings ascribed to them in this section unless the context clearly requires otherwise

(a) "Municipality" shall mean any county city borough town or township

(b) "Person" shall mean any natural person copartnership association private corporation municipality as herein defined or other public corporation authority and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the Federal Government or any agency thereof

(c) "Sewage Treatment Works" shall be synonymous with "Sewage Treatment Plant" as used in other legislation and shall mean and include a plant or plants for treating and disposing of sewage and industrial wastes and the intercepting and transporting sewers pumping stations and other portions of the sewerage system appurtenant to such plant or plants but shall not be construed to include the lateral main or trunk sewers or other structures appurtenant to the sewage collecting system

(d) "Water Utility" shall be construed to include all municipalities authorities and public utility companies engaged in the business of supplying water or water service

Section 14 The provisions of this act shall be severable and if any of the provisions thereof shall be held to be unconstitutional such decision shall not affect the validity of any of the remaining provisions of this act it is hereby declared as the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provisions not been included therein

Section 3 Sections three and four of said act are hereby amended to read as follows

Section [3] 15 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed

Section [4] 16 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment

Section 4 The provisions of these amendments shall not apply to cities of the first class or to any authorities operating in cities of the first class

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, because of the great importance of the measure that is before the House, and because there has been a great amount of misunderstanding on the part of many Members of the House as to the provisions of this measure, I feel it is my duty to say a few words in reference to it.

In the first place it amends the sewer rental act passed in 1935 and amended, I think, twice since that date. It is in the interests of the clear streams legislation program first instituted in 1937 and vigorously pursued by the Martin administration, and I believe will be by this administration as soon as there is an opportunity to put into effect legislation that has been passed in this House.

We have heard very little in this House with reference to clear streams or stream pollution contrary to what happened in 1945 when the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Brunner, had some very important legislation to that effect.

I might say that sewer rental provisions are in all of the codes including the third class city code, the first class township code, the second class township code and the borough code, and are in the provisions of the bills passed by you in this session of the Legislature, the borough code and the second class township code. Therefore, the idea of a sewer rental is not a new idea. It is a very common idea in the United States, existing in most of our states and widely used by a great many of the municipalities in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. In fact in the pamphlet published by the Department of Internal Affairs you will find an extensive discussion of the financing of sewers by sewer rentals. If our smaller municipalities and many of our larger ones are to be able to carry out the program for cleaning up our streams,—and remember that since the municipalities of Pennsylvania are under orders now from the Sanitary Water Board to construct sewers, sewage systems and sewage treatment works, they must have legislation such as this which will enable them to use sewer rentals in most instances.

I would sum up by saying that in at least 75 percent or more of the communities in the State this will be necessary in order to finance their sewerage program. Therefore in this legislation we have an opportunity to clarify the provisions of the sewer rental law and in addition to that there have been given certain opportunities to municipalities and to authorities, to municipalities, to levy rentals under certain conditions where there is a necessity to plan and to design and to construct sewage systems in advance of the actual service being rendered to the municipality.

There are many lawyers who have looked askance at this problem because they have doubted the legality of the provision that would permit the charging of a sewer rental in advance of the design and construction, but this provision is in the interest of the consumer. Let me explain that in this way. If you are to construct a sewerage system, and this again is a collection system and sewerage disposal plant, you have to have designs or engineering, and it is the first problem of a municipality to find money for that purpose.

In the second place, you have to have money for construction. If a municipality does not have borrowing capacity, it must then go into the market for a loan, and if it is an authority it must go into the market for a loan, and the only way you can support that loan is as a se-liquidating proposition. Therefore if you borrow on a construction loan in advance of the actual uses you will find that you have to pay not only higher rates in interest but you will have to pay out of the principal of the money which you borrow—you will have to pay the interest and the amortization on the loan during the time that you are constructing before you can actually rent the service. That means that in the end it will cost the consumer a greater amount of money.

Mr. Speaker, I could go on for a long time with this discussion but I have before me a statement sent to me by Mr. Harrington Adams, Deputy Attorney General of Pennsylvania, who did a large part of the drafting work on House Bill 551.

Mr. Adams says:

"This bill amends the Act of July 18, 1935, P. L. 1286, generally known as the 'Sewer Rental Law.' The amendments have two objectives: (1) To clarify certain provisions as to which legal questions have been raised by recent court decisions. (2) To enable a political subdivision or a number of political subdivisions acting jointly or a municipal authority to more readily abate stream pollution caused by sewers. This legislation is permissive and enables municipalities and authorities to finance, design and construct sewer systems and facilities to meet their obligations under the Stream Clearance Legislation in an economical and efficient manner.

"More specifically these amendments authorize municipalities and authorities to impose rates and charges for the use of existing sewers and for the purpose of designing and financing construction of sewage systems, sewage treatment plants and other related facilities.

"These amendments authorize authorities to act for municipalities in abating pollution. In furtherance of this, municipalities are authorized to convey to such authority their water supply systems, sewers, water systems and sewage treatment works.

"In order to reduce cost of operation any municipality or authority is authorized to arrange with water utilities for the billing and collecting of rentals, rates or charges. These charges may be added to the water bills. The water utilities are authorized to shut off the water supply for failure to pay these charges and are reimbursed for any clerical and other services performed for the authority or municipality. The Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission is given authority to settle disputes between the municipality or authority and the water utility.

"The rentals, rates, charges and assessments are required to be reasonable and uniform and may be based upon the volume of water used, flat rate charges or by fixture. Classification of users may be made with graduated rentals, rates, charges of assessments determined by the character of the user and the quantity, kind and nature of the uses. These rents may be challenged as to reasonableness in the Court of Common Pleas with an appeal to the Superior Court.

"Authority is given to municipalities or authorities to prohibit the discharge of industrial waste into sewage systems which might damage the structures of the sewers or sewage treatment works.

"These amendments to the Sewer Rental Law do not apply to cities of the first class or to any authorities operating in cities of the first class. The Law as to these cities is now fairly well settled and it is felt that nothing should be done that might disturb the law or the court decisions which have been made thereunder. Very truly yours, Harrington Adams, Deputy Attorney General."

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TURNER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. Speaker, I have always gone along with an Authority bill. In fact our township is a member of an Authority of which Mr. Turner is the solicitor.

On page 12, beginning with line 6, may I ask the gentleman if it is not possible for a sewer rental to be charged for a number of years before an indebtedness may be incurred for the construction of the sewer, thereby having possibly the rentals paying for part of the construction on that sewer during any number of years, say five or ten years?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Sproul, I would say what I tried to say earlier over the noise in the House, and what Mr. Adams says in his communication which I read during the noise of the House—

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. Speaker, I tried to get it all.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I said that it was possible that this law provided that a sewer rental could be levied in advance of the design and construction of a sewer for that purpose.

Mr. SPROUL. I understand that part, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, and that that was in the interests of the consumer, in that it reduced the cost, the ultimate cost, to the consumer.

I am told by the representative of the Allegheny County Sanitary Authority that that means in their construction program twenty-five million dollars of savings to the consumers. I would say to you that in our own county of Delaware that provision has no effect because the sewer authority—the gentleman referred only to authorities,—and of course this bill applies to both municipalities and authorities, and that the municipalities that have sewage disposal plants to construct except in the southwest corner, have already paid for their planning, and so their lines and system are so well advanced that that is not a problem so far as we are concerned in Delaware County.

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. Speaker, I only feel this, and say again that you can continue to levy sewer rentals and that rental may show up at a later time as a lien after a number of years before the indebtedness is incurred under this bill. There is no limit.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is a township commissioner and a commissioner of a township of the first class and I think he has been a member of a township commission for a good many years. I would like to ask the gentleman whether he thinks he would last very long with the township if sewer rentals were charged for a great many years and nothing was constructed by his body.

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. Speaker, I do not, but I believe some limit should be imposed in legislation so that it would be impossible to do that. That is the only point I am trying to make. I am not trying to be facetious. That will be all.

Mr. TURNER. Any further questioning?

Mr. SPROUL. No, that was the only point I desired to make. My question was that you could continue to levy sewer rentals.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, that question was paying sewerage rental if it is not constructed.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I do not believe the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, answered directly the question of the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Sproul, which is a very serious question in this bill, and I would like to ask the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, if he believes that a lien could be filed against a property owner and his property sold for a sewer rental lien, the benefits of which he never received. The fact that commissioners may not do it because it is not politically expedient is not the question. The question is can a lien be filed against the owner of the property for sewer rentals from which he never received any service.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown, I would say I thought I had primarily made the statement, and I certainly would be glad to answer it if he thinks it is necessary now by again saying that this bill provides that a sewer rental can be charged in advance of service for the purpose of design and construction, and that in accordance with the sewer rental law of 1935, and in accordance with the provisions in all of the codes a lien could be filed for the non-payment of a sewer rental bill. I think no one who reads this bill can deny that that is the fact and that that is true. My only answer to Mr. Brown further than that is the same answer which I gave to Mr. Sproul, which I think is the answer that should be given, and that is, first, that this provision is in the interests of economy and, secondly, I do not believe that any lien would be filed for a sewer rental where the municipality levied it and then failed to build the sewer.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TURNER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, supposing a man owns a property in a municipality and you charge him with a sewer rental for a period of three or four years, and did not produce any sewer, and then sold the property, would he be allowed to add that to the price of the property?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, that would be a matter of agreement between the man who buys and the man who sells.

Mr. LOVETT. That will be all, Mr. Speaker. It seems to me as though we have got the horse ahead of the cart or the cart ahead of the horse, I don't know which, but I do not think this is good legislation.

The SPEAKER. Did the Chair understand that the gentleman is confused?

Mr. LOVETT. A little, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Where a credit or a deduction is allowable in any of the several cases hereinabove provided it shall be allowed in proportion to the concurrent periods for which the taxes are imposed by the respective political subdivisions but not in excess of the amount previously paid for a concurrent period

Section 5 Any tax imposed under this act shall not be subject to any limitations under existing laws as to rate or amount

Section 6 Any such political subdivision shall have power to prescribe and enforce penalties for the nonpayment within the time fixed for their payment of taxes imposed under authority of this act and for the violations of the provisions of ordinances or resolutions passed under authority of this act

Section 5 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I do not feel that we should pass this bill over lightly. In my memory as a Democrat my party has always been opposed to a wage tax, and as I understand this bill it will allow a wage tax. In fact I think that the greatest revenue would come from a wage tax.

If I may have your indulgence for a few moments, I will read a little item from the Wilkes-Barre Times Leader, which is an independent paper:

"A vote on the floor of the State House of Representatives on the proposal to permit municipalities and school districts to levy a wage tax is due on Monday. Any member of the General Assembly, who votes for that measure, brands himself as an enemy of labor and should be marked for defeat at the next election. Not only that, but the majority party should be held accountable.

"The facts should be made clear now, so no alibis will be attempted after the damage is done.

"This is the most vicious legislation that has ever been proposed in Harrisburg, so far as the toiler is concerned. It means that the clerk in the store, the office worker, the miner, the mill employee—all will be required to pay tribute from their pay envelopes at the very moment the Federal government, through Congress, is trying to provide relief from the heavy burdens.

"A wage tax, unlike the income tax, penalizes the individual in the lowest brackets as well as the highest. It can make no exceptions.

"This outrageous law cannot be justified under any circumstances. If that is the only way municipalities and school districts can keep going, then they should be required to curtail services, no matter how vital they may appear to be. Absolutely no public service is worth this price the public is asked to pay in the form of a wage tax.

"In Luzerne County, working men and women and their families constitute the vast majority of voters. They sent both their Representatives and Senators to Harrisburg to promote the interests of constituents. Should any Representative or any Senator betray the people by voting for this wage tax program, he should be dealt with in no uncertain terms as befits a traitor or double-crosser.

"Let us repeat for emphasis:

"A wage tax should not be permitted for any reason."

Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman desire to interrogate the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Brunner, or the gentleman from Lackawanna?

Mr. LOVETT. The gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Montgomery permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BRUNNER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, may I ask my colleague under this particular act which allows a wage tax, prior to social security companies gave voluntary pensions to their employees. These pensions are very small, ranging anywhere from $15 to $75. Under a wage tax which would be enacted under this bill, would that be taxable, would that money that they received from their companies be taxable?

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, in my opinion, in answer to the gentleman, I do not think it would be taxed.

Mr. LOVETT. Does the gentleman know that that money is now taxable under the income tax act?

Mr. BRUNNER. I do not, but if that is the case, then there is a probability that it would be taxed under a wage tax.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, may I inform the gentleman that that money is taxable under the income tax act and would in my opinion be taxable under this bill.

Mr. BRUNNER. I agree with the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. That will be all.

Mr. Speaker, we now have in Pennsylvania many men who are receiving very small pensions that have been granted to them prior to the time of the social security act. These men are finding it almost impossible today to keep body and soul together to meet their taxes on their property and the other taxation that comes before them. We are now in Harrisburg allowing legislation like this, that would put a greater burden on those people. I say to you, Members of this House, I do not think that you members on the other side of this House want to support this kind of legislation.

I have another little item that I cut from a newspaper in Philadelphia. Mr. Speaker, I want to show you the trend of House Bill 800 and what we are trying to maneuver into. This little item says:

"Tax Shift Urged by '70' Committee

"Walter P. Miller, Jr., chairman of the Committee of Seventy, yesterday called upon David W. Harris, Republican City Committee chairman, to abandon his advocacy of tax measures now before the State Senate, providing for reinstatement of the mercantile tax which was abolished in 1943 and the increase of personal property taxes from four to eight mills."

"Miller argued that such taxes are difficult and costly to collect, and that it is extremely doubtful if they will raise sufficient revenue to meet the financial problems confronting the Board of Education. As substitutes, he suggested increasing city payroll taxes one-fourth of one per cent, applicable only to residents of Philadelphia, and the levying of a per capita tax ranging from $1 to 5. He said either one of these taxes would raise approximately $6,000,000 a year."

My friends, that is exactly where we are going; we are going into a wage tax, not only in Philadelphia but throughout the state of Pennsylvania. While Congress is hollering about income taxes and a reduction of income taxes, we in Pennsylvania are in reverse and even doing worse than income taxes. We are now laying the ground work for a wage tax in Pennsylvania for every municipality.

My friends, I certainly think, while I know that a lot of you men are pledged to vote for this legislation, I feel you should give it a second thought and not allow such a tax in the state of Pennsylvania.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, last week during the closing days of the session this House passed House Bill 417 with which you are all familiar. Suffice it to say it deals with State subsidies for teachers. House Bill 800 in my opinion can be classified as a companion measure because it permits your local levels of government to supplement those basic salaries by whatever means they see fit to tax.

The gentleman overlooks several facts when he criticizes House Bill 800. It is true that a wage tax can be levied under the provisions of this bill, should it become enacted into law. There are other taxes which this measure authorizes should the local representatives of the people see fit to levy them but I would like to call the gentleman's attention to a provision in this bill that requires the councilmanic body or whatever the governmental body may be of a local subdivision, to advertise publicly in the press of the county once a week for four weeks, the particular nature of any tax measure which they seek to adopt, under the provisions of this bill should it become law. I think perhaps it might be advantageous for a similar provision to be attached to other legislation at this time, but under this bill, should it become a law, the people will be made fully aware of the nature of the tax to be imposed upon them, and they certainly will hear from the people whom they represent, and I am certain that no confiscatory and no unfair tax will result. I ask the Membership to support this bill.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, this bill is sired by desperation, and its dam is general confusion. It was spawned by muddled men.

It is very interesting to hear the gentleman from Montgomery say they are going to advertise in the newspapers. They tell the condemned man that he is going to be hanged, and he is hanged, and the notice did not help him any. I am very interested in hearing the gentleman from Montgomery admit that House Bill 800 in its present form is the apology which he presents on the part of the majority of this House for the mutilation of House Bill 417, because if House Bill 417 had not been mutilated this bill would not have had to take its present form.

Now, Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Montgomery comes from a little burg, Coatesville, and it is interesting to note that once again the city slickers have put it over on the guy from the sticks. Under this bill, in Philadelphia,—they are a wise lot down there, and the House has to grow up and learn a lot if you are going to cope with that bunch—under this bill Philadelphia is the only city in the State that has a preferred position as far as a wage tax is concerned, because under this bill Philadelphia's prior rights to levy upon the wages drawn by non-residents are confirmed. If anybody in Coatesville works in Philadelphia the wages are taxed, and the only way that Coatesville could get anything from that resident who is taxed in Philadelphia would be to boost the ante and charge a higher wage tax in Coatesville than they charge in Philadelphia. That situation does not apply in any other city in the state. The poor unfortunate situation in Pittsburgh—it did not get in the running soon enough, and so all the enterprising boroughs, if they want to, will tax wages, and the only way that Pittsburgh can get anything out of the wages earned by many, many thousands that come and use the facilities of that city is to penalize their own taxpayers by a boost of the wage tax above the level of any wage tax imposed by the boroughs.

This House bill, I say, is born in confusion. It started out as a proposition for Pittsburgh to broaden the tax base of Pittsburgh—a reasonable proposition. Then some one got the idea and said, "Me too, I am going to have my tax base broadened." Then came the third class cities and they got into this. Then somebody sold the idea of putting in boroughs and school districts, and it is the putting of the school districts into this bill and conferring upon the school boards and the authorities of our cities coordinating powers as far as taxation is concerned that raises the confusion.

You will note, Members of the House, that as far as Pittsburgh is concerned the field is divided. The city cannot tax things that the school board taxes, and the school board cannot tax things that the city taxes. The same situation prevails in Philadelphia, but in the rest of the state you hand a tax program to the school board and you hand a tax program to the council of the city and you levy a tax or a series of possible taxes, where only the courts are a refuge in the event that the actual taxation reaches the point of confiscation.

As I say, Mr. Speaker, in the matter of real estate, there are limits that you place upon the ability of the school boards to tax real estate. On these other taxables that are possible under this bill, there is no limit, and you give to a borough council, you give to a school board in boroughs unlimited taxing powers—unlimited powers. In boroughs, smaller boroughs, that power can be used for reprisals. It can be used for purposes of personal revenge. You could not do that in the case of some municipalities probably, but you would create by not defining the things the school board can tax, and not defining the things that the city council can tax. You create a situation in your body politic where each one is continually striving through the township or the school board to pass taxes to some other constituency in the community. You create situations that are so unstable and so unscientific, usually without a precedent in this Commonwealth, that I venture to prophesy that before this biennium finishes you will be called back here for a special session to repeal such iniquitous, foolish, absurd statutes and to define specifically the things that a city council can tax over and above real estate, and define specifically the things the school board can tax.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, may I state briefly first of all that I had hoped that after having served here a fifth term and the leader of the minority party having seen the returns from Montgomery County during those ten years on a State-wide basis, that the gentleman might awaken to the fact that I come from the town of Norristown in Montgomery County, although Coatesville in Chester County is a very fine place.

The gentleman argues against this bill, basing his argument upon the fact, one might say, that the people at home do not elect responsible and reliable representatives. They have the same opportunity at home with regard to them that they have with regard to us. Should we vote up here in a manner different from that in which our constituents believe to be proper we of course can be defeated and kept at home. Likewise the local representatives have to appear before their constituents to be returned to their respective offices.

After all, I feel that the borough council of Norristown, where I do come from, knows infinitely more about the details of the needs of the people of Norristown than I do sitting up here at Harrisburg. I think they are more capable to rule in such matters. Likewise the borough council of the borough of Conshohocken and the township commissioners of Plymouth Township, I say, know more about their local affairs than I, and that is more important at home than the levying of a tax or the raising of money. I have confidence in the local communities and their local representatives to do a good job. I believe House Bill 800 to be a good bill.

Mr. HOFFMAN. Mr. Speaker, addressing myself to the House on House Bill No. 800, I would like to be permitted to make a few comments.

In the first place, I am a strong believer in local home rule. I think it is the base upon which the superstructure of our government must rest. If we are not strong there we are not strong at the top, because a pinnacle can never rise higher than the measure of its breadth, and that same thing applies to government. If you don't have strong local government, if you don't have men and citizens elected by the people to represent your local interests in whom you have confidence you can hardly expect that duty to be performed with satisfaction.

The gentleman from Montgomery expressed my mind very fully and definitely. I am in favor of House Bill 800 because it sets up a base upon which the people of the municipalities, those elected by the people, can operate on the basis of sound economy, and can perform in the interests of the people, because they are closer to them in their ideals and ambitions for good government.

Now, we cannot have any government without taxation—that is apparent, and if we expect to have our government expand and progress with the times, why, we have to have courage to face those conditions and meet them in the spirit in which good government lives and thrives.

The strongest tie that connects us with our people is confidence, and I do not believe the people down in my section are going to take any advantage of House Bill 800 if it becomes an act, and perpetrate an infliction upon the people in the way of taxes that is a reflection upon their own character and their own integrity and their own usefulness to serve the public.

I think we are in a time where we have to meet the situation in a way different from what we have done in the past. We cannot go back, we cannot stand still, we simply have to move on, and if it creates a fear in our hearts that we are going to do something that might be injurious to our personal comfort, or to our political ambition, that is one way of facing the problem, but in the larger measure in which all of us are responsible to serve the people, I believe we can take their confidence, that they will support us in that we will give them liberty and freedom and authority under the law to set up a good strong local government by which they can operate within the sphere of sound economy and move on and expand government and make it not only good but strong.

For that reason I am in favor of House Bill No. 800, because I think it is a move in the right direction, and it is the base on which local government can find security.

Mr. BANE. Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, as a new Member of this body I have listened with great interest to the arguments that have been advanced for and against House Bill 800.

The most interesting thing I have heard today is the admission on the part of the sponsor of the bill, the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Brunner, that it constitutes a companion measure to House Bill 417. From the debates which have occurred on the floor of this House you have already gathered the impression that I am very much interested in the welfare of our Commonwealth. I have felt for a long time that the original design, from the first time I became familiar with House Bill 800, that the sole purpose was to aid in paying the salary bills for teachers. As Mr. Andrews has pointed out, when House Bill 417 in its original phase passed this House rather than the one which it finally did take, this State has the responsibility of meeting the sum due under the provisions of that bill as originally designed.

I find that House Bill 417 has been cut to pieces, and now this House is seeking, and I charge this Assembly with seeking to pass the buck back to the local districts, which we as Members of this Assembly should have the intestinal fortitude to stand and meet, namely, that we should pass such legislation as is necessary to permit the money to be raised by the State for the meeting of those problems that confront our educational system in Pennsylvania today. Unless we pass some measure justified in form to meet the obligations of the local districts then we have failed in our duty, and I submit to you as Members of this House that House Bill 800 falls far short of meeting that obligation.

Mr. Brunner has indicated to you that he has a great deal of faith in human nature. As a lawyer and member of the bar in Fayette County for eleven years except for the time when I was in active service, I must say that my faith in human nature is not so great. In my span of life I have hardly had the time to appreciate the fact that here in this Assembly we find the justification of our majority leader's faith in human nature falling almost before its disclosure.

I refer you to the tax on cigarettes. We passed that tax, and in the debate in behalf of that tax he eulogized the people of Pennsylvania, stating that they would buy their cigarettes in Pennsylvania. We found after the levying of the tax that human nature failed to live up to his eulogy of it and people went out of Pennsylvania to buy cigarettes. I understand there is now in the Senate a very punitive measure to prevent the people of Pennsylvania from buying out-of-state cigarettes, and that I or you or any other person who happens to have a pack of cigarettes in his possession not bearing the state stamp tax, is liable to criminal prosecution.

I submit to you, gentlemen, that that is justification for human nature. Now we have this measure, House Bill 800. It has been pointed out to you that each particular district is going to have unlimited power to tax. If certain districts are going to fall short in the revenue which they seek to derive from the privileges given them under this act, and they are permitted to find themselves in the situation of having to offset the taxes levied in other municipalities or districts, do you think for a moment, or do you have sufficient justification in human nature to believe that the district that is going to suffer is not going to raise its levy or its tax to an amount sufficient to derive the revenues necessary for its own district? I submit to you that this bill creates more confusion than any other act that has passed in this House at any time in its history.

I submit to you further that the cost of the collecting of the tax, and let me say, to be used for worthwhile purposes for which it is intended, will be far greater than any possible tax measure which this body could pass and use for the benefit of the school teachers of Pennsylvania.

House Bill 800 is a bad bill from a legal standpoint and should not be passed, and I ask the Members of the House to vote it down.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Cambria, the distinguished leader of the minority has frozen, and he sits there now waiting to heap vindictiveness upon me for what I am going to say. I am telling him now that I am not going to answer.

The gentleman has frozen this bill with his scathing denunciation that it seems to me no lawyer in this House can vote for this bill. But just like those, you know, who tread out on dangerous waters, he left himself open to attack, and David with his little stone can slay the dread Goliath in his den.

The gentleman says that it is reasonable for the city of Pittsburgh—after all the scathing denunciation and everything else that was heaped upon it, he said it was fine for the city of Pittsburgh, a reasonable proposition. Now, is the gentleman sincere when he says this is a reasonable proposition for the City of Pittsburgh and is unreasonable for the other people in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania? While he is unfreezing—I would like if he could do it without being so bitter; if he is going to be bitter I ask him to tell me privately, if he can answer without being so bitter—why do we have to have a preference in the city of Pittsburgh? Then I might freeze up with him, but until that time I am for the bill.

And may I remind my distinguished colleague that we have voted now on numerous bills to raise salaries to send people in governmental authority to conventions, and I believe if I remember correctly, that my frozen friend from Cambria voted for one of those bills. I wonder if he cannot thaw a little bit, thaw sufficiently to let us see the light of day, and let us pay for those bills that we passed or voted upon to increase salaries and to send certain people to conventions.

Mr. Speaker, I did not intend for my distinguished colleague to hear those remarks, and if there is any way that I can move the previous question I would like to do it, because I know I am going to be hurt. Can I move the previous question?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman moves the previous question he will read the rest of the bills.

The SPEAKER. Did I understand the gentleman from Allegheny to move the previous question?

Mr. BROWN. No, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Allegheny is afraid without cause. His remarks are like the ingratitude of a dearly loved son. I have nurtured him and nursed him; I have used him as my lawyer; he is my authority on constitutional law, and I voted for some of these Pittsburgh tax raises at his earnest solicitation.

Now, I will explain to the gentleman very simply what I said was all right for Pittsburgh. He missed my point. I say in Pittsburgh you have divided the field between the school board and the Pittsburgh City Council. I say that in this bill, you are dividing the field between the school boards and the borough councils and the city councils so that there will not be a helter skelter rush for the easiest source of revenue, and that this bill will have some limitation and some reason.

The remarks of my friend from Montgomery remind me of the grave digger who was digging a grave. He was so enthusiastic in his digging of the grave that he dug it so deep that he couldn't climb out of it. There he was on a cold winter day. As he shivered in the cold along came the village drunk, and he heard this fellow holler. He went to the edge of the grave and said "What's the matter?" The man said "I'm down here; help me to get out; I am nearly frozen to death," and the drunk said "Froze to death? I know what's the matter with you; there ain't no dirt on you; you just lay down and I'll cover you up and you'll be warm."

So I say to the gentleman from Allegheny, if he will just lie down I will cover him up and he will be warm.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, it is nice to have a lot of fun and it's nice to do a lot of kidding and get the thing into this stage, but there was one thing said here that I feel I should answer and that is the question of home rule. I am for home rule. I think all of you men are for home rule, but I don't think we are giving home rule here. We in the Department of Education tell the school boards exactly what they can do back home. They can hardly make a move in the school board unless they comply with the Department of Education in Harrisburg, and we men pass the laws and make those restrictions.

Now, why do we talk about home rule? If you want to have home rule let us have home rule; let us not say that just when it is the right to tax people back home that we are going to have home rule. If I could only interrogate the engineers that are sitting around on the sidelines of this Legislature maybe we could get someplace. I receive telegrams from my boroughs, some of my boroughs in my district, and they say "Support House Bill 800." Where do they get their instructions? They get them from the engineers, and the sad part of it is that the poor fellows back home sitting on the councils and the school boards don't know what they are getting their fingers into.

Some of these engineers will possibly hear about it after they get their fingers into some of this stuff. These poor councilmen possibly don't know that they have to advertise in the newspapers. All they know is that the engineers send word back home "We of the State organization are for House Bill 800." Now, that is the maneuvering, and that's the way the thing works, and I say honestly to you that if we had the sentiment of the men on the councils and on the school boards that we could possibly have a different picture here today, if we could send for those men and tell them exactly what we have in House Bill 800. I ask you again to be safe and vote against this piece of legislation.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Lovett.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Westmoreland permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LOVETT. I will, Mr. Speaker,—no lawyer's tricks.

Mr. SORG. Is the gentleman in favor of a State-wide wage tax?

Mr. LOVETT. A State-wide wage tax, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. SORG. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. I am opposed to all wage taxes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SORG. Is the gentleman in favor of a State-wide sales tax?

Mr. LOVETT. Possibly under certain circumstances, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SORG. I wonder where the gentleman studied his law, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. LOVETT. I never studied law, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SORG. The gentleman gave a pretty good lawyer's answer to that one, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. I thank the gentleman, I have had a lot of teaching from my colleagues.

Mr. SORG. Will the gentleman name any State-wide tax that he would be in favor of, at the present time?

Mr. LOVETT. I would be in favor of a graduated income tax in Pennsylvania, but we cannot have it; it wouldn't work.

Mr. SORG. That is all.

Mr. Speaker, I am going to vote for House Bill 800, and I am aware of the objections that might be raised to such a measure, but I realize also that we have got to face and meet our problem from the over-all angle. I realize that sooner or later we have got to have the nerve to tackle it, and one of the ways we have got to do it is that we stand here and insist that there shall always be a Pennsylvania and a strong Pennsylvania, not just one nation, not just one single government that is going to levy all the taxes and then dole them out to us. We have got to have strong local government, we have got to take this government back to the people where it belongs.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

ANNOUNCEMENT

The SPEAKER. The Chair would like to inform the Members if they will be patient a little while longer we are going to try to clear some of the bills on third reading from the desk. We are trying to get through in thirty minutes rather than come back for a later session. We hope that that meets with the approval of the Membership—remain about thirty minutes longer rather than have you come back later.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEES TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. WATKINS asked and obtained permission for the Committee on State Government to meet during the session of the House.

Mr. FLEMING asked and obtained permission for the Committee on Cities and County—Second Class to meet during the session of the House.

Mr. McKINNEY asked and obtained permission for the Committee on Judiciary to meet during the session of the House.

BILL INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Messrs. FLACK and ROBBINS.

HOUSE BILL No. 1353.

An Act providing for the regulation of mining or anthracite coal by the open pit or strip mining method and for the conversation and improvement of lands affected directly or indirectly by such mining; requiring operators to register, pay a license fee and secure a permit to engage in strip mining and file a bond conditioned for compliance with this act; requiring backfilling of strip-ping pits and leveling and planting lands affected; to prevent erosion and the pollution of waters and to protect public health, safety and welfare; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Mines and the Department of Forests and Waters; providing for appeals and imposing penalties, and making appropriations.

Referred to the Committee on Mines and Mining.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 73, as follows:

An Act to further amend section two hundred twenty-two of the act approved the ninth day of April one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 177) entitled "An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments boards commissions and officers thereof including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools or Teacher Colleges abolishing creating reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments boards and commissions defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers and of the several administrative departments boards commissions and officers fixing the salaries of the Governor Lieutenant overnor and certain other executive and administrative officers providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain departments boards and commissions and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employes of certain departments boards and commissions shall be determined" by further regulating the vacation leave and sick leave to which State employees are entitled with pay

Section 1 Section two hundred twenty-two of the act approved the ninth day of April one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection

House Bill No. 1023, Printer's No. 820 was passed over at the request of the SPEAKER.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1090, as follows:

An Act to further amend the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 309) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" providing for medical examiners in lieu of medical inspectors and prescribing their duties making mandatory the employment of a school nurse providing reimbursement by the Commonwealth therefor and repealing provisions relating to medical inspections and reports of medical inspectors

Section 1 The act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 309) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" as amended by the act approved the twenty-ninth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 1112) is hereby amended by adding after section one thousand two hundred forty-two thereof a new section to read as follows

Section 1242.1 Every school district and every vocational school district shall be paid by the Commonwealth for the school year 1947-1948 and for every school year thereafter on account of the employment of properly certificated school nurses an amount equal to one reimbursement unit for each nurse having the care of fifteen hundred or more pupils in average daily membership in the districts public schools and for each nurse having the care of less than fifteen hundred such pupils the fractional part of one reimbursement unit equal to the number of such pupils under her care divided by fifteen hundred

Section 2 Section one thousand five hundred one of said act as last amended by the act approved the fifth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 429) and the act approved the first day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 1226) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 1501 Every school district of the first second or third class in this Commonwealth shall [annually provide medical inspection of all the pupils of its public schools by proper medical inspectors to be appointed by the board of school directors of the district in sufficient number to conduct the required inspection in conformity with the standard requirements prescribed by the Secretary of Health for the medical inspection of schools in such district] provide medical and dental examinations in accordance with the provisions of the School Health Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder as prescribed by the Secretary of Health. Every school district of the first second and third class shall also annually appoint medical examiners whose duties shall include the vaccination of children of indigent parents official re-vaccination of children having temporary vaccination certificates physical examination of children incident to the issuance of employment certificates as required by the provisions of the Child Labor Act conducting routine classroom inspections incident to the control of contagious diseases approve the return of pupils who have been absent due to a contagious disease or suspected contagious disease and such other duties as may be required by the Board of School Directors or the Secretary of Health. They shall annually make a sanitary survey of the building and grounds. Such medical [inspection] examination shall be made in the presence of the parent or guardian of the pupil when so requested by parent or guardian. All such medical [inspectors] examiners shall be physicians legally qualified to practice medicine in this Commonwealth [who have had at least two years' experience in the practice of their profession] and where additional [inspection] examination of the eyes is recommended by the medical [inspectors] examiners and desired by the school boards such additional [inspection] examination may be made by ophthalmologists or optometrists as shall be determined by the medical [inspector] examiner. The physicians ophthalmologists and optometrists making such [inspections] examinations shall be paid such amounts as the boards of school directors may determine. Provided That nothing in this act shall preclude the appointment of medical health officers of municipalities as medical [inspectors] examiners in the school districts of this Commonwealth

Section 3 Sections one thousand five hundred three and one thousand five hundred eight of said act as last amended by the act approved the first day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 1226) are hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 1503 In every school district of the fourth class in this Commonwealth the State Department of Health shall provide in such manner as it may determine medical [inspection] examination for all the pupils in the public schools by proper medical [inspectors] examiners to be appointed by the Secretary of Health at the expense of said department. In the event that such department because of lack of funds is unable to provide adequate medical [inspection] examination at its expense the school district may at its own expense provide such medical [inspection] examination or additional medical [inspection] examination. All such medical [inspectors] examiners shall be legally qualified physicians [who have had not less than two years' experience in the practice of their profession]. Such medical [inspection] examinations shall be made in the presence of the parent or guardian of the pupil when so requested by parent or guardian

Section 1508 Each board of school directors or boards of school directors jointly [may] shall employ one or more school nurses who shall be graduates of accredited training schools for nurses certificated by the Department of Public Instruction as school nurses and who shall be registered in this Commonwealth with the State Board of Examiners for the Registration of Nurses and shall define their duties and any two or more school districts may jointly employ school nurses. Any school district may in any health work in which it is authorized to engage cooperate with any county city borough town or township engaged in health work

Section 4 Section one thousand five hundred fifteen of said act as added by the act approved the first day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 1226) is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 1515 [In] District Superintendents in school districts of the first second and third class [having a district superintendent and schools under the supervision of the county superintendent of schools] and County Superintendents in districts under their supervision shall set up an advisory health council to study the health needs and to assist in organizing a follow-up program. Those making the medical and dental examinations shall make a report on the remedial work which has been accomplished during the school year. This advisory council shall be composed of representatives of the medical and dental associations social organizations veterans organizations parent-teacher associations service clubs and other organizations in the area served

Section 5 Said act is hereby amended by adding after section one thousand five hundred fifteen thereof a new section to read as follows

Section 1515.1 If the record of the medical or dental examination of any child examined under the school health act discloses a condition which requires medical dental or surgical treatment and the parent or guardian states to the school authorities that he is financially unable to have a physician or dentist of his choice render such care he shall be advised that the cost of such care will be provided if application is made to the appropriate county board of public assistance which shall authorize payment for necessary medical dental or surgical care as assistance as defined in the standards rules and regulations to be established by the Secretary of Public Assistance in consultation with the Secretary of Health and the Superintendent of Public Instruction and with the approval of the State Board of Public Assistance

In instances where it appears that the parent or guardian was financially able to pay for the medical dental or surgical care for which payment was made on the authorization of a county board of assistance the department of public assistance shall have full recourse to recover the amounts thus expended from the parent or guardian liable for the support of such child as provided in the support law

Section 6 Section one thousand five hundred five of said act as last amended by the act approved the first day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 1226) is hereby repealed

Trout,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House of Representatives has passed the same without amendment.

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection

Senate Bill No. 783, Printer's No. 433
was passed over at the request of the SPEAKER.

RESOLUTION No. 56

Mr. LAYER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up Resolution No. 56, Printer's No. 832, on page No. 36 of today's calendar.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 28, 1947.

Whereas The United States Marine Corps has been a shining example of faithful and efficient service to our Nation for more than 172 years and

Whereas The United States Marine Corps has been a source of strength whenever our Nation has been threatened and

Whereas The United States Marine Corps alone of all the elements of our armed services possessed the vision to develop the science of waging amphibious warfare which knowledge permitted our Nation's offensive might to be carried to enemy shores and which proved to be the key to victory in a global war and

Whereas 50872 of the young men of this Commonwealth of Pennsylvania have served our Nation during World War II in the United States Marine Corps and

Whereas The United States Marine Corps is threatened with extinction if the merger bill now pending in the Congress of the United States is passed in its present form and

Whereas The abolition of the United States Marine Corps would be a disastrous loss to our Nation therefore be it

Resolved (If the Senate concurs) That the existence of the United States Marine Corps be assured by amendment to any merger bill such amendment specifically providing that the United States Marine Corps shall continue to serve as our Nation's amphibious troops and as a force in instant readiness to protect our Nation and be it further

Resolved That the Secretary of the Commonwealth is hereby directed to forward certified copies of this resolution to the President of the United States the President pro tempore of the United States Senate the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States the Secretary of the Navy the Commandant of the United States Marine Corps and members of the Congressional delegation from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

The SPEAKER. The Chair might state that there was an error made in the printing of the resolution. As printed it appears that the resolution was reported from the Committee on Military Affairs. It was considered and reported out by the Committee on Rules. When the resolution is reprinted this correction will be made.

Mr. LAYER. Mr. Speaker, I offer the following amendment:

Amend Preamble, page 1, 3rd paragraph of Preamble, first and second lines of paragraph, by striking out the words "alone of all the elements of our armed services".

Amend Preamble, page 1, 3rd paragraph of Preamble, last line of paragraph, by striking out the word "the" and inserting in lieu thereof "a".

Amend resolved clause, page 2, line 6, by striking out after the word the "Secretary of the Commonwealth" and inserting in lieu thereof "Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution as amended?

Mr. NEFF. Mr. Speaker, I offer the following amendment:

Amend Resolution, page 1, 3rd paragraph of Preamble, by striking out the entire paragraph.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. LAYER. Mr. Speaker, the amendments offered by Mr. Neff have already been taken care of by the amendments which we have offered and adopted in the House. All those features that the gentleman objected to—I went over to them and they said it would take the objectionable part out of the resolution. I ask that this amendment be voted down.

Mr. NEFF. Mr. Speaker, it is true that the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Layer, has submitted amendments which have removed part of the phraseology which was objectionable to some of the Members. However, we are not satisfied with that, and we ask for a vote on the amendment which deletes the third paragraph. This paragraph begins: "Whereas the Marine Corps alone—". That paragraph we believe is not essential to the resolution, and we ask for the adoption of this amendment.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER declared the nays appear to have it.

Whereupon, a division was called for, 46 Members voting in the affirmative and 88 in the negative, the question was determined in the negative and the amendment was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution as amended?

It was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Mr. LAYER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to thank the gentleman that opposed the resolution first, for voting for the adoption of the resolution.

The SPEAKER. The Chair also thanks the gentleman.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. HEWITT asked and obtained permission for the Committee on Mines and Mining to meet during the session of the House.

RESOLUTIONS

Mr. IMBT offered a resolution which was laid over under the rules.

Mr. ERB offered a resolution which was laid over under the rules.

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mr. SARRAF asked and obtained unanimous consent to add the names of all the Members of the Allegheny County delegation to a resolution he was about to introduce.

CONGRATULATORY RESOLUTION

Mr. SARRAF and all the Members of the Allegheny County delegation offered a resolution which was read, considered and adopted as follows.

In the House of Representatives, June 9, 1947.

Whereas, the 9th day of June, 1947, is the 33rd anniversary of the birth of the Honorable Daniel A. Verona, and

Whereas, since 1940 Mr. Verona has capably performed his duties as a Member of the House of Representatives, and

Whereas, Mr. Verona has reflected credit upon himself and his community in carrying on in an exemplary manner the tradition of public service and devotion to the common good which his father whose reputation as a leader of his fellow citizens in the third ward of Pittsburgh earned him a state wide reputation as a public spirited member of the community, passed on to him, and

Whereas, Mr. Verona's personal charm and gay manner have endeared him to his colleagues and have added to his reputation as an outstanding person and as a leader, therefore be it

Resolved, That this House of Representatives wishes Daniel A. Verona a very happy thirty-third birthday, in addition to continued success and happiness, and be it further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be presented to the Honorable Daniel A. Verona.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Verona.

Mr. VERONA. Mr. Speaker, this is my birthday and I wish to thank the Members of the House. I might say that four terms ago I was taken for a page boy by Ellwood Turner. I thank you gentlemen; it is a pleasure being here with you-all.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from is Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

APPROVAL OF RESOLUTION RECALLING
HOUSE BILL No. 1035

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, June 5, 1947.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed House Concurrent Resolution recalling from the Governor House Bill No. 1035, Printer's No. 649, for further consideration and amendment.

Accordingly, the original bill is herewith returned.

JAMES H. DUFF.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. CORDIER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed finally be reconsidered.

Mr. STONIER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Cordier vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. CORDIER. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Stonier, vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. STONIER. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

Mr. CORDIER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Mr. CORDIER. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend Section 1, page 4, line 7 by underscoring after the word "collector" and before the words "to collect" the following: "for such period of time as herein provided".

Amend Section 1, page 4, line 19 by inserting after the word "defaulting" and before the word "tax" the following: "or deceased".

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the offering of amendments at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

CONDOLENCE RESOLUTION

Messrs. WORLEY and NELSON offered a resolution which was read, considered and adopted as follows.

In the House of Representatives, June 9, 1947.

The House of Representatives wishes to record the death of C. Frank Gillan, a former member of this House from 1939 until 1944, who died on February 24, 1947.

Mr. C. Frank Gillan, was born at St. Thomas, Franklin County, on December 15, 1883, and spent most of his life as a resident of St. Thomas where he was ever devoted to the betterment of his community.

He attended St. Thomas Township grade and teacher training schools, Mercersburg Academy and Franklin and Marshall College, from which later institution he received the degree of Bachelor of Philosophy. For a number of years he taught school and later he entered the fruit growing business and helped make the production of fruit an important business in Franklin County.

He will be remembered by his colleagues here at the House and by his friends, for his good common sense and advice and for his kindness! be it therefore

Resolved, That the House of Representatives mourns the passing of this distinguished citizen of Pennsylvania, and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent by the Chief Clerk of the House to this deceased Member's widow and family, as a token of the House of Representatives sincere sympathy for them and as an expression of their mindfulness of his worth.

RESOLUTION

Mr. WEISS offered a resolution which was laid over under the rules.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House, which was twice read as follows:

CONTINUATION OF THE UNITED STATES MARINE CORPS

In the House of Representatives, May 26, 1947.

Whereas, The United States Marine Corps has been a shining example of faithful and efficient service to our Nation for more than 172 years, and

Whereas, The United States Marine Corps has been a source of strength whenever our Nation has been threatened, and

Whereas, The United States Marine Corps, alone of all the elements of our armed services, possessed the vision to develop the science of waging amphibious warfare, which knowledge permitted our Nation's offensive might to be carried to enemy shores and which proved to be the key to victory in a global war, and

Whereas, 50,872 of the young men of this Commonwealth of Pennsylvania have served our Nation during World War II in the United States Marine Corps, and

Whereas, The United States Marine Corps is threatened with extinction if the merger bill now pending in the Congress of the United States is passed in its present form, and

Whereas, The abolition of the United States Marine Corps would be a disastrous loss to our Nation, therefore be it

Resolved, (If the Senate concurs) That the existence of the United States Marine Corps be assured by amendment to any merger bill, such amendment specifically providing that the United States Marine Corps shall continue to serve as our Nation's amphibious troops and as a force in instant readiness to protect our Nation, and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Commonwealth is hereby directed to forward certified copies of this resolution to the President of the United States, the President pro tempore of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States, the Secretary of the Navy, the Commandant of the United State Marine Corps, and members of the Congressional delegation from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

RULE 39 SUSPENDED

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that rule 39, which require resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

Which was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I deeply regret that Senator Donlan is not on the Senate floor at this time, as he was a Captain in the Marine Corps and lost one of his legs at Iwo Jima, to make the motion that the Senate concur in the House Resolution just read.

In his behalf, Mr. President, if I may, I move that the Senate concur in the resolution just read.

Mr. WALKER. I second the motion, Mr. President.

It was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The motion was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

The Chair is also requested to ask guests on the outside of the rail to please refrain from discussions or conversations. All conferences will be held in the conference room to the rear of the Chamber.

We must have order in the Senate during the session.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. JASPAN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President and members of the Senate, once again I am obliged to read into the record an article appearing in the Philadelphia Inquirer, as of today. This article is entitled "Meat Prices Hit All-Time Highs Here," and is as follows:

"MEAT PRICES HIT ALL TIME HIGHS HERE

"Floods, May Holidays Blamed by Dealers for 'Flash Shortage'

"Prices in Philadelphia's wholesale and retail meat markets soared to all-time high levels yesterday as a flash shortage, which caught the industry completely off guard, gathered momentum.

"Retail quotations yesterday ranged from eight to 11 cents a pound above the previous Monday, while one major wholesale buyer said the price of live beef in the nearby livestock markets had risen from $2 to $4 a hundred-weight above a week ago.

"Predictions of the length of the shortage and its resultant price rises ranged from "a temporary condition," to "until the end of the year" because of heavy Army and Navy contract commitments and exportations to stricken countries.

"John C. Deindorfer executive secretary of both the Pennsylvania Association of Retail Meat Dealers and the Philadelphia Retail Meat Dealers Association, said the "sudden rise in meat prices takes the industry by complete surprise."

"The cause has been attributed variously to late May holidays that decreased slaughtering volumes, floods in the West and Middle West have reduced shipments, and the reluctance of some of the smaller wholesalers to go into the market at prevailing price levels in the face of overwhelming livestock reservoirs piling up in Chicago.

"Frank Kleinberg, general manager of the South Philadelphia Dressed Beef Co., who blamed "balking wholesalers" for the peak prices, said he did not expect "any cheap meat for the rest of the year." Kleinberg said he expected a "definite shortage" in the near future.

"He said that as of yesterday there were 17,000 more head of cattle on the Chicago livestock markets than there were a week ago but the asking price was higher nevertheless.

"The immediate effect here, according to a check of shops, was a complete disappearance of beef, pork, lamb, and veal from some of the smaller markets. One Jenkintown retail market operator said that by mid-morning last Saturday the stock of his shop and a dozen more neighborhood shops had been sold out. Conditions, he predicted, would be worse this week-end.

"Retailers reported that wholesale prices jumped from five to eight cents a pound yesterday over the previous week. The increase, when passed on to the consumer, would be almost double those quotations, it was pointed out.

"A spokesman for one of the larger chain stores said the full impact of the shortage had not yet been felt in that class of shop. Heavier backlogs and better "opportunity to shop around" gave them better and more constant supplies, he said."

Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, once again the packer, the slaughterer, and wholesale dealers in the state of Pennsylvania, as well as in other states throughout the Union, are playing fast and loose with the public. How long this condition will continue to exist is a matter of conjecture. However, this much is certain, that high prices, with the consequent increased cost of living, are reducing the average man's resources to the vanishing point and definitely hastening the day of depression.

May I refresh your memories and state that during the O. P. A. days the packer, the slaughterer and wholesale meat man promised lower prices upon the lifting of controls. What happened after the breakdown of controls? The reverse is true. Higher and higher prices. The meat man loathed controls during the O. P. A. but he apparently does not realize that in his greed and avariciousness sooner or later the government must once again take over to protect the public against the meat man's shortsighted policy of gouging.

The meat industry is seizing every opportunity and pretext possible to increase the prices of meat. I can appreciate the need for high prices to save an industry, but the fact is that everyone associated with the meat industry, both during and after the war, have accumulated fortunes and hence they are not in any danger whatsoever.

One of the officials of a meat company only yesterday stated there were seventeen thousand more head of cattle on the Chicago livestock market than there were a week ago, but the asking price was higher nevertheless. How can anyone explain such conduct? I think I can attribute it to their greed and selfishness. Sock the public, sock the poor, seems to be the order of the day. The people are too dumb, in the eyes of the meat men, they will pay if a scarcity is created. The policy, I say, as adopted by the meat men, wholesale and retail, is a stupid one and will undoubtedly lead to dire consequences. The legalized method of blackjacking that they now employ will come to naught when an aroused citizenry sooner or later takes over the industry by force. The entire situation is fraught with grave consequences, because people have to eat to live and when a man has no food he will steal and rob, particularly if he has a family.

I warn the meat industry now that they had better put their house in order before it is too late and they had better sell their meats at a price that comes within the range of the wage earner; otherwise the industry will be taken over by the government or by the people.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE ON EXECUTIVE NOMINATIONS

Mr. KEPHART from the Committee on Executive Nominations reported with a favorable recommendation the following nominations, made by His Excellency the Governor, which were laid over for one day under the rules.

MEMBERS OF BRADFORD COUNTY BOARD OF ASSISTANCE

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,

Governor's Office Harrisburg, June 5, 1947.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

In conformity with law, I have the honor hereby to nominate for the advice and consent of the Senate the following persons for appointment as Members of the Bradford County Board of Assistance, to serve until December 31, 1949, and until their successors are duly appointed and qualified:

William R. Most (Republican), Canton, vice Mrs. Marion M. Newman, Canton, whose term expired.

Gerald T. Keeney (Republican), vice Mrs. Florence B. Schrier, Athens, whose term expired.

JAMES H. DUFF.

STATEMENT BY THE PRESIDING OFFICER.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senate will be in order. The Chair is sorry but he is charged with the responsibility of keeping order in the Senate. The room in back of the Senate Chamber must be kept clear of legislative representatives. The Sergeant-at-Arms will remove from the back room all those who do not belong there. The legislative engineers will please occupy a position beyond the railed enclosure.

The Chair has been requested to make that announcement and this is the third time it has been made.

The representatives of departments will please take positions outside the rail. The back room must be cleared.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. T. NEWELL WOOD read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 866, entitled:

An Act relating to the regulation, control and stabilization of rents in housing accommodations during an emergency, creating a temporary state housing rent commission, prescribing its powers and duties and making an appropriation.

Which was committed to the Committee on State Government.

Mr. BECKER on behalf of Mr. LLOYD H. WOOD read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 867, entitled:

An Act relating to police and firemen's pension funds in cities of the second class A, and directing such cities to appropriate certain moneys thereto, and requiring reports and audits.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I realize that the Session is drawing to a close and that this is a late hour to introduce bills, but the bill I am about to introduce, I believe all of you will agree, should be passed in this Session.

When the turnpike of Pennsylvania was created, we had in mind merely serving the people of Pennsylvania. It was a radical departure in constructing highways. Many people prophesied it would be a white elephant. However, we now find that even its foes of the early days are now the best boosters.

The building of a turnpike, similar to ours, is being contemplated by the states of Ohio, West Virginia and Indiana. I have been informed by Ohio officials that when the building of a turnpike is being discussed, the question of cooperation between adjoining states becomes their great point of difference. They further advised that legislation similar to the Ohio River Valley Anti-Stream Pollution Compact must be passed by the four states before the dream of a turnpike from the eastern boundary of Pennsylvania to the western boundary of Indiana can be realized.

There is no use of building a turnpike that ends at any one state line, without plans being made to have it connect with a turnpike of the other state.

The bill I am about to introduce creates, through an interstate turnpike commission, the means by which an agreement can be reached between the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the states of Ohio, West Virginia and Indiana. This does not in any way effect our sovereign rights in managing the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission. All it provides is for our turnpike commissioners to work with the turnpike commissioners of the three other states. First, to agree on the continuation of the turnpike through these states and to make arrangements for tolls and other matters that would pertain to through traffic starting in Indiana and continuing to the New York State line. Since our turnpike is constructed, our experiences would be quite valuable to these other states. I might add that this legislation that I am presenting will be used as a model act by the three other states.

I am asking this session to pass it in the dying days so that these other states can pass enabling legislation and that by the next session of the Legislature, the plans between these states will be effected and the Turnpike Commission of our state shall play an important part in creating this superhighway.

Messrs. HOLLAND, HEYBURN, SNOWDEN, DENT and WADE read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 868, entitled:

An Act providing for joint action by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and the States of Ohio, West Virginia and Indiana in the construction, operation and maintenance of an inter-state highway from the western terminus of the Pennsylvania Turnpike, as authorized to be extended, to the western border of Indiana; authorizing the Governor for these purposes to enter into an agreement with the States in question; creating an Inter-State Turnpike Commission and defining its powers and duties, including the power to finance the construction thereof through the issuance of bonds redeemable from tolls collected for the use of such turnpike.

Which was committed to the Committee on State Government.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HOLLAND asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, in considering the many teachers' bills before the Senate I believe it should be pointed out to the Senate different inequities which exist in certain bills, because I believe, of all the bills presented, at the last minute the best of these bills will be put into one bill, which will be the master bill.

Senate Bill No. 834 is a very bad bill for many reasons—so many reasons that to enumerate all of them would be practically impossible. It is inconceivable that a bill could come out of this session mandating lower salaries for teachers than those provided in Act 403 of the 1945 Session, but Senate Bill 834 actually accomplishes this ridiculous situation. To be specific, there are teachers in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh of whom I know who do not have degrees. Under Act 403, they can reach salaries of $3,000 per year; Senate Bill 834 provides a top of $2,700 for these teachers.

The idea of promotional increments is a practical impossibility, too. On paper and in theory the idea sounds good. But practically, administering such a scheme just will not work. My sisters taught in the Pittsburgh public schools where they once tried merit rating—and it did not work. It looks as though the present administration wanted to say to the whole Nation: "Pennsylvania pays its teachers up to $4,800 by law." Under this bill, the top salary in first class districts is actually $3,600; that is, after six years of teaching with a Master's Degree. Teachers have been tossed a bone, promotional increments, with the implied thought that they can fight it out among themselves for the salaries above the $3,600 level.

But, that is only one objection and not the most serious objection to Senate Bill 834. Under this bill, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania again dodges its responsibility for assuming the cost of public education. Subsidies for public schools are inadequate—the greatest subsidy per pupil in elementary schools would be $73 for 1946-47 and $77 for 1947-48. The minimum subsidy provisions are assinine in their unfairness. Using the same basis of calculation of 30 pupils per teacher in an elementary teaching unit, the bill proposes a reimbursement of $23 per pupil for both 1946-47 and 1947-48. Now, we all know Pennsylvania is a poor State, but if California can subsidize public education by paying at least $90 per pupil per year from state funds up to $120 per pupil per year, Pennsylvania should be able to do a little better than $23 minimum and $73 maximum for the children in this state. After all, the administration plans to spend $82,000,000 for the next two years on approximately 50,000 mental patients, which means $16,400 per patient. It ought to be able to find better than $23 to $73 for children in elementary schools.

Then there is the totally inequitable way the money that is available is distributed. Practically no one understands how the ridiculously complicated formula for state subsidies works, but when you study the system, you really have your eyes opened. Some districts are getting the gravy, while some are taking a shellacing. The whole system is tied to real estate assessments and no more inequitable way to distribute money could be devised. If any one thing in this state could provide an unequal basis for dividing up state money for schools, it is real estate assessments. Of course, we are told all this can be corrected in time if this body will only pass the legislation. That would take years even if it were tried, and in the meantime, Senate Bill 834 continues the present monstrous inequity.

Let us look at some specific examples. After meandering through a lot of useless arithmetic, you come out with a reimbursement fraction. You get this fraction by a formula that is practically unintelligible but results in putting a premium on low assessments. Take a school district, for instance, whose reimbursement fraction is .9800, and there are some with fractions that high. When you work back into the formula you find that such a district has $7,200 of real estate wealth back of a teaching unit of 30 elementary pupils. The obvious conclusions here are that:

1. Either, like the old woman who lived in the shoe, the district produces enormously large families—one $7,200 house producing 30 children, or

2. The people have normal families, say two children per family, and 15 families own $7,200 in real estate which figures out to $480 per home, in which case they live in chicken coops, or

3. Real estate assessments are iniquitously low.

The last conclusion is the correct one. Last year, the state calculated subsidies on a basis of a total of 8.2 billion of real estate assessments. 4.5 billions of this total, or 55 per cent of all the real estate assessments, were in the two counties of Philadelphia and Allegheny, including Pittsburgh.

In dollars, subsidies now range from $600 to $1,750. No one can argue against an equalization program—all children in Pennsylvania deserve a good education—but, an equalization program should equalize, not discriminate.

Let us look at the picture that Senate Bill 834 would further aggravate from another angle. The average district now gets $1,500 per teaching unit. That means half of the 2,543 districts now get more than $1,500. Senate Bill 834 would increase the average by $350 for 1946-47 and over $400 for 1947-48. The minimum would increase only $100 for both years. In other words, this bill piles more and more on the top subsidies and discriminates still further against districts getting the minimum.

There is a stupid idea that the districts getting the minimum are rich districts, and those with high reimbursement fractions are poor. Again, I say nothing could be further from the truth. Because of the discrepancy in real estate assessments, Dormont, a school district in my county, which is purely residential, with modest homes but high assessments, now gets the minimum of $600. Williamsport gets $1,418 per teaching unit now. Under Senate Bill 834, Dormont would get $700 and Williamsport would get over $1,700 for 1946-47 and over $1,800 for 1947-48. This is just one example of hundreds that I could bring before this Senate of the unjust way in which the subsidy system works.

Gentlemen of the Senate, the only sensible way to distribute state money is to put it on a per-pupil basis. That, I know, is impossible at this session. But, we can do something to rectify the injustice and inequity of the system now. The 78 districts throughout the state that are now being penalized for honest real estate assessments deserve redress in the name of common fairness and decency. The minimum subsidy should be raised to at least $1,000 for the biennium. This would not cure the situation—far from it. But, it would help materially those districts which will suffer under Senate Bill 834 and it would demonstrate that this Senate refuses to be put in the position of robbing districts whose assessments are high and which pay a large share of the cost of state government.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. ROSENFELD asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. ROSENFELD. Mr. President it may be that what I am about to discuss may not be received as being in good taste—but I assure you and members of this body that I have considered it long and carefully and have determined that I would be justified.

The matter I will talk upon is the much discussed but little understood fair employment practice legislation.

As Americans, some of us are concerned with its basic ideals and put them to practice whenever possible—but most of us—depending upon circumstances merely give lip service to those ideals and when faced with the application of them—neglect to do so. And then, of course there are those few who not only do not believe in them, but who exhort others to believe likewise.

I am trying to focus attention upon our moral sense of values as citizens—as individual citizens—compared to our attitude when hiding behind the cloak of group action. I am certain it is with some feeling of guilt that many of us talk about equality—the equal opportunity that exists only theoretically in our democracy—because we are horribly aware of its lack of actual existence.

From time immemorial—unfortunately—the accident of birth has been considered the most determining important factor in the life success and happiness of an individual. The unfairness of that attitude was one of the factors that gave birth to our democratic system and the Civil War was fought to save this ideal. The two recent wars were fought in a sense to preserve those principles and yet during the entire course of democratic history—good and bad—through peace and war—they have remained more or less principles only. Ideals for thought and speech but not for practice and action.

In the last eight years this unhealthy condition was officially recognized in problems involving employment practices and the Federal Government by executive order and the states of New York, Massachusetts, Connecticut, New Jersey and Indiana and the cities of Chicago and Minneapolis enacted legislation to apply those idealistic principles to practice.

I am happy to say that the provisions of those decrees and laws have been applied successfully and to nobody's detriment. As a matter of fact the moral good that has developed from the application of fair practices in employment has been the greatest accomplishment of these laws.

It may very well be that many of you from the rural districts have not encountered this problem and can not therefore understand or appreciate the importance that some of us attach to it. It may very well be that not any of you has ever lost a job because of your religious beliefs or that you do not know of the thousands who have been refused jobs because of their color or religious beliefs. If that is true, gentlemen, then I must ask you to take my word for the fact that such conditions exist, particularly in our urban centers.

I say to you, Mr. President and gentlemen, there is nothing worse than suffering this experience. At such a moment one wonders about this democracy and doubts very much whether it is really the factual ideal towards which thinking civilization clings as a last hope.

You must be made to understand what goes on in a man's mind when he is told, "I am sorry, we will have to let you go, our policy is, against hiring Italians or Irish" or "we are sorry we can not employ you as we do not hire negroes or Jews."

Are these the results of the application of our democratic ideals to practice—and yet none of us would dare accuse such people of unamericanism. Our best people practice it—blindly—as I know they are not consciously hypocrites.

This is the weak spot through which the Communists drive their wedge into Americanism and our Governor is correct when he states that the Communists only give lip service to such a law. They do not want us to pass it because they will then lose one of their best basic arguments for Communism.

Mr. President and gentlemen, the passage of fair employment practice legislation does not mean, nor is it intended to mean, that one must hire or upgrade a particular individual. Certainly it does not mean, as I have heard it expressed by some, that one must consort with, live with or do anything else with minorities.

It means merely that an employer can not refuse to hire or upgrade an employe solely by reason of his race, religion or national origin. It means that an employer will not be able to say—"I am sorry, we do not employ Negroes" or "I am sorry, our policy is not to have poles as foremen in this plant." No one will any longer have to feel sorry about any of these things and the moral effect upon employer and employe alike in the knowledge that we are practicing what we preach will renew everyone's faith in the principles of our democracy.

It is no answer to state that we can not legislate moral values. The fact that we legislate against crime is an indication that we are forced to do so because we have no alternative.

We do know that the great majority of Americans are law abiding and while it is true there will be some subterfuge and evasion—we know from experience already obtained in the operation of the act elsewhere, that it has worked wonderfully well and many people are now convinced that the creation of each of us as individuals with equal opportunity is not just an expression but a fact. A feeling of security, towards which all of us strive, has attached to the minority employe who is beginning to push his head up towards the sun and to think to himself that this country for which he fought and his brothers died is not such a bad place after all. A new appreciation and a new understanding of democracy.

Mr. President and gentleman, it is this same new understanding of you and by you that I ask today. There is nothing political in my request and it is for that reason that I refuse to consider this a matter requiring a committee discharge resolution. Both party platforms approved such legislation. If I felt this was a matter of politics only, I would keep quiet and upon your failure to enact legislation I would accuse you of breaking a promise. Instead gentlemen, I ask you only to keep your promise to the citizens of this Commonwealth. Our Governor has asked too that you keep your promise. The House Labor Committee this afternoon refused to honor his request and by a secret vote killed the proposal. Why, I do not know, except perhaps that members of that committee are confused and do not understand the purposes of the act.

The responsibility is now yours. I have wondered about you and have tried to analyze the reasons for your collective non-action on this measure.

Believe me, gentlemen, I have tried desperately to understand any reasons there may be. I have done so because I have worked with you, lived with you and played with you and I am able to say to all of you, as individuals, that you are the nicest, most wonderful and able men it has been my pleasure to know.

Believe me again, gentlemen, I have been around the halls of this Senate long enough not to appreciate reasons for party action or non-action on certain measures, even where it differs from our own personal opinions. That happens on both sides of this house. But this issue is not and should not be a political issue—our deepest moral responsibilities are at stake—and on such a problem, those who are in control of party machinery should not, in all fairness to us and to the people, insist that solid party action be taken.

Such insistence is something against which all of us as individuals should rebel, since it is these things that cause such doubtful reflection upon us in our chosen or imposed activity in politics.

In last Saturday's Evening Bulletin, the Saturday Sermon was delivered by Rev. Joseph Fort Newton. I think it is very appropriate and shall read it to you. He writes as follows:

"The House of Life has three stories. A few still live on the first floor, most of us live on the second, and a few have climbed to the third. But all of us run up and down the stairs.

"On the first floor we live by instinct, impulse and force. On the second we live by obligation, moral law and the beginnings of reason. On the third we live by insight. Either we think as we live or we live as we think.

"On the first floor, life is a struggle and the fittest survive. If a man is strong enough to take a business away from another man, he does it.

"It is the law of the jungle, where the weak go down and the swiftest win the race. Desire, not duty, is the rule. Life is ruthless, no quarter is asked or given. Much of our life, more than we are willing to admit even in what we call civilization, is lived on this level.

"But, on the second floor, man begins to live by reason and moral law. There is 'a stop in the mind,' something which arrests man and compels him to pass moral judgment on his thoughts and acts. He sees, dimly, that selfishness is short-thinking, and defeats itself.

".... At this level we live and let live, if only to protect ourselves.

"But there is a third floor in the house of life, to which the other two lead if we do not stop. We must climb up to it; there is no elevator. There the outlook is wider and the light whiter—we can see more clearly. It is the prophet-chamber, the place of interpretation and truth.

"On this floor a man will consider not merely his own gain or power or prestige, but the common good. Here it is not enough to live and let live, we learn to live and help live.

"On this level of gracious living, a man sees that human values are far more precious than money values. He will not use men to make money, he will use money to make men. He still has the profit-motive, but he puts it in its proper place; he has along with it something higher.

"The tragedy is that so many of us live part of our lives on one level and part on another level. Sir John Bowring wrote the stately and beloved hymn, 'In the Cross of Christ I Glory.' Yet the same man forced opium on the Chinese people at the point of British guns.

"What is stranger still, he saw no discrepancy between his sincere private piety and his public atrocity. He had a blind-spot—he was not consciously a hypocrite. He had an astigmatism, and he did not see what he was doing. He wrote his hymn on one floor of the house, and went downstairs to do his dirty work.

"How often we see a man of private nobility, culture, and even piety do in politics what he would be ashamed to do on his own. It is this fact which makes the very word 'politics' stink to Heaven. What will men not do for the sake of 'party' or in behalf of some silly 'ism' to which they have sold their souls.

"It is in our group-life that we descend to the depths and become savages, and the larger the group the worse it is. Much, if not most of the dealings of nations with nation, race with race, is on the lowest level of life. We have not slumped into the depth; we have never climbed out of it as nations and races.

"The man on the first floor of life is a wild man, untamed—like a shadow he cries out with the wind. Just when we think we have him downed, covered with a layer of reason, he breaks out in race hatred and egoistic cruelty. We can never be sure when he will make some disruption and calamity.

"The question is, where do we live? Downstairs or upstairs? In the basement where instinct gropes in the dark, or on the third floor where, at night, we can see the great stars obeying the will of God?"

In yesterday's Inquirer was a quotation from a speech on "I Am an American Day" by Justice Learned Hand of the New York Circuit Court of Appeals. He said:

"The spirit of liberty is the spirit which seeks to understand the minds of other men and women, which weighs their interests alongside its own without bias. The spirit of liberty is the spirit of Him, who, nearly two thousand years ago, taught mankind that there may be a kingdom where the least shall be heard and considered side by side with the greatest."

Mr. President and Gentlemen:

Would that I were sufficiently eloquent to touch your hearts—to reach the innermost recesses of your individual minds so that you would understand that what I am trying to say is—

Let the least be heard now

Give all an even chance

Let us begin to practice America.

It is almost—but not yet too late. Our Senate Committee on Labor can still meet and report out a bill and as humbly as I know how—I ask that you do so.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. WOODRING asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. WOODRING. Mr. President and members of the Senate, I would like to add just a word of amplification and endorsement to the remarks of the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Holland, about and against Senate Bill 834, the so-called educational bill. Senate Bill 834 has been on our calendar for some days. I do not know whether it is going to be acted upon or whether we are going to substitute House Bill 417 for it.

I think both bills, however, have certain failings and I think the time to plan for a proper and a fair and a reasonable educational bill is now, before it come up for final consideration and adoption.

It seems to me that there are at least three major failings in both House Bill 417 and Senate Bill 834, which ought to be called to the attention of the members of the Senate and to all the Legislature so that we can take proper methods and procedures to bring these bills, or either of them, into shape, so that they will give to the people of the state of Pennsylvania the kind of legislation that we promised and the kind of legislation to which our people are entitled.

In the first place, Mr. President, it seems to me that both bills fail to provide the proper automatic increments for those men and women who were faithful to their profession, who were faithful to the cause, the very important cause, if you please, of statewide education in Pennsylvania, and remained at their desks in the school-rooms and at their desks during the lush earning period of the past war. Both bills fail to take into consideration increments for such people.

Secondly—and I am not going to enlarge upon this, I am merely going to throw it out as a very respectful suggestion for the consideration of the caucuses on both sides of this Senate—we ought to eliminate from both bills the provision for so-called promotional or merit increments. The word merit ought never to have been brought into this picture, because it certainly is a disservice and unmeritorious type of increment; it is an increment that would throw back into politics every teacher in the state of Pennsylvania; it is an increment that would remove from the teachers of Pennsylvania the security that they are entitled to have by reason of the nature of their work and profession; it is an increment that has no place in our present day thinking and no place in our present day educational system, so that I would say certainly we should eliminate all provisions for promotional increments and, having done so, we ought to substitute one or some additional service increments in lieu of the so-called promotional increment.

I think school teachers are not going to get what they ought to have, they are not going to get what they were led to believe they were going to receive from this Legislature, but if we take care of these three measures, and they are small ones but very important ones—and I again stress the importance of them—if we provide automatic increments for those who were faithful to their calling during the war, if we get rid of the promotional increment theory and add at least one or some additional service increments, then I think under the circumstances we will do what is fair and reasonable to a good loyal band of people who are more important than any other single group for the continued welfare and prosperity of our great Commonwealth. Thank you very much.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. LLOYD H. WOOD. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. LLOYD H. WOOD from the Committee on Judiciary General reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 867, entitled:

An Act relating to police and firemen's pension funds in cities of the second class A, and directing such cities to appropriate certain moneys thereto, and requiring reports and audit.

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. WADE from the Committee on State Government, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 866, entitled:

An Act relating to the regulation, control and stabilization of rents in housing accommodations during an emergency, creating a temporary state housing rent commission, prescribing its powers and duties and making an appropriation.

He also, from the Committee on State Government, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 868, entitled:

An Act providing for joint action by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and the States of Ohio, West Virginia and Indiana in the construction, operation and maintenance of an inter-state highway from the western terminus of the Pennsylvania Turnpike, as authorized to be extended, to the western border of Indiana, authorizing the Governor for these purposes to enter into an agreement with the States in question; creating an Inter-State Turnpike Commission and defining its powers and duties, including the power to finance the construction thereof through the issuance of bonds redeemable from tolls collected for the use of such turnpike.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE ON EXECUTIVE NOMINATIONS

Mr. KEPHART. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. KEPHART, from the Committee on Executive Nominations reported with a favorable recommendation the following nominations, made by His Excellency, the Governor, which were laid over for one day under the rules.

MEMBER OF PENNSYLVANIA LABOR RELATIONS BOARD

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, June 9, 1947.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

In conformity with law, I have the honor hereby to nominate for the advice and consent of the Senate the following persons for appointment as Members of the Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board:

Darrell W. Smiley, 12 Byrer Avenue, Uniontown, Fayette County, to serve until June 2, 1953, and until his successor shall have been appointed and qualified.

Malcolm B. Petrikin, Esq., 408 Market Street, Chester, Delaware County, from June 4, 1945, until June 2, 1951, and until his successor shall have been appointed and qualified.

Leo Abernathy, 1281 Bellrock Street, Pittsburgh, Allegheny County, from May 22, 1945, until June 2, 1949, and until his successor shall have been appointed and qualified.

JAMES H. DUFF.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. MALLERY, from the Committee on Local Government, reported as amended, House Bill No. 909, entitled:

An Act to amend section thirty-three of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 1050) entitled "An act relating to the collection of taxes levied by counties county institution districts cities of the third class boroughs towns townships certain school districts and vocational school districts conferring powers and imposing duties on tax collectors courts and various officers of said political subdivisions and prescribing penalties," by providing that salaries of the deputies clerks and assistants of tax collectors in third class cities shall be considered as compensation for pension and retirement purposes and requiring certain payments by the taxing districts.

MOTION TO DISCHARGE COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION FROM FURTHER CONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL No. 728

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I had intended to make a very long talk in presenting this resolution but I believe the chairman of the Committee on Judiciary General has made the best speech possible for the discharge of his committee from further considering the lobbyist's bill than I could, because while he was in the Chair today it was necessary for him to call in the Sergeant-at-Arms and clean out, for once in this session, the Senate rooms which are reserved for the Senators. In fact, I believe if they had been cleaned out in the early part of the session, the state would have saved a considerable amount of money in long distance telephone calls that were made by lobbyists instead of the Senators who are supposed to have the use of those phones.

When I first inquired about this bill I was told it was being held in a sub-committee. I asked where it was. They informed me it was the fifty-first and fifty-second Senators of the Senate. Inasmuch as I do not have authority to discharge the fifty-first and fifty-second Senators in the Senate and also knowing that inasmuch as these two Senators, the gentleman from the Pennsylvania Railroad, Mr. Reiter, and the gentleman from the Oil Company, Mr. Davis, would be a little biased in voting on this bill, being interested in it, I am glad I am only going to consider the fifty members of the Senate.

Therefore, Mr. President, I believe that the time has come that lobbyists should be brought out in the open, as they have been in the Federal Government and, contrary to rumors being spread here by the lobbyists, that the lobbying bill in Washington is not functioning properly, I refer the members of the Senate to a story appearing in the April issue of the American magazine. It tells in this story that the lobbyists are also finding out that a lot of times these so-called improvements which were supposed to originate from the people they now find were originated by lobbyists they did not even know existed in Washington. The same thing may be true here and I believe it is fair to the people of Pennsylvania to find out who these lobbyists are, how much money they spend, on whom they spend this money how much money they spend, on whom they spend this money today, and then it will take away that terrible taint which seems to be placed upon us by people back home, that all of us come down here with a few thousand dollars and go back with millions, and I think it would be good government because people do not like invisible government.

I have pointed out time and time again that too much legislation has been passed in the different hotel rooms in the city of Harrisburg, this session—I do not know of any session where we had more lobbying done and more persistent lobbying than we have had in this session and so, Mr. President, although I want to say I believe that you, the chairman, has made the best argument possible for this bill today, and I want to thank you, when you very deliberately banged that gavel down and said, "Will the Sergeant-at-Arms clean out the Senate rooms and you engineers of legislation please leave these rooms reserved for the Senators," I believe that was about the best speech I could make and therefore I ask the Presiding Officer and all the members of the Senate to follow the leadership of the Chair today and vote for the discharge of the Committee on Education from further consideration of Senate Bill 728.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair wishes to call to the attention of the gentleman from Allegheny the fact that the rear room was cleared out without any further legislation.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. Presiding Officer, I am glad they went out but may I tell the Chair that two of them are back there right now.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Acting on the advice of the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Holland, the Sergeant-at-Arms will see that the legislative engineers get out of that cloak-room. That, too, is an order from the Senate.

RESOLUTIONS

TO DISCHARGE COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION FROM FURTHER CONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL No. 728

Mr. HOLLAND offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate of Pennsylvania, June 10, 1947.

Resolved, That the Committee on Education be discharged from further consideration of Senate Bill No. 728, entitled,

"An Act providing for the regulation of lobbying; requiring registration of all lobbyists, keeping of accounts of contributions and expenditures and receipts thereof; reports and statements under oath, persons affected; and providing penalties."

Said bill having been in the hands of said Committee for a period of ten days and more, having been referred on May 12, 1947.

RULE 39 SUSPENDED

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be suspended and the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, the gentleman from Allegheny has asked that the Committee on Education be discharged from further consideration of Senate Bill No. 728.

The gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Holland, is a member of that committee, he appeared at committee meetings when that bill was considered on two separate occasions, and he full well knows the action taken by the Committee on Education both times and I therefore ask the members of the Senate to vote down this resolution to discharge the committee.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I am very sorry to take issue with the Chairman of the Senate Committee on Education, of which I am a member, but every time this bill was discussed by the chairman he always treated it as a bill, not necessarily as a joke and this is not a joke, it is a very serious matter and I think the people of Pennsylvania should be permitted to know who are the people who come down here and spend money for legislation and also that everybody shall be compelled to state if he is opposing certain legislation or is in favor of it. There is nothing to hide. I think there are a lot of groups down here—for instance, the teachers are down here and the nurses and other groups are here and they are very willing to state why they are here—they are here to protect the schools of Pennsylvania, the nurses are here to protect health, but other people are here to protect mostly their own personal pocketbooks. I might add also that this puts the same restrictions on labor as it does on the other special interests which are lobbying here and I believe it is fair and the people of Pennsylvania ought to know who who are people who influence legislation in Harrisburg.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. HOLLAND and Mr. LANE, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—16

Barr,	Holland,	Leader,	Ruth,
Dent,	Jaspan,	Margie,	Stiefel,
DiSilvestro,	Klein,	Rahausen,	Tarr,
Haluska,	Lane,	Rosenfeld,	Woodring.

Becker,	Frazier,	Mallery,	Wagner,
Berger,	Geltz,	Scarlett,	Watson,
Blass,	Hare,	Snowden,	Wilson,
Carr,	Heyburn,	Stevenson,	Wolfe,
Chapman,	Homshe,	Tallman,	Wood, L. H.,
Crider,	Kephart,	Taylor,	Wood, T. N.,
Crowe,	Letzler,	Tyler,	Walker,
Doehla,	Lord,	Wade,	Presiding Officer
Farrell,	Mahany,

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 15 TAKEN FROM TABLE

Mr. RUTH. Mr. President, I call from the table House Resolution No. 15, as follows:

DEPARTMENT, FORESTS AND WATERS TO CONTINUE TO MAINTAIN "HOPEWELL" AS A PARK

In the House of Representatives, February 18, 1947.

"Hopewell", an area in Berks and Chester Counties of 5400 acres (of which 5,000 acres are woodland), formerly under the jurisdiction of the Federal Government, is now subject to the control and supervision of the Department of Forests and Waters since it was granted to the Commonwealth under the provisions of the act approved the 22nd day of May, 1945, (P. L. 834).

This beautiful park and recreational area has been partially developed. Further development is quite feasible at any time by the construction of headquarters buildings, cabins, public bathing beaches, playgrounds, and certain electrical, sewerage, and safety equipment, the breaking of trails, and the maintenance thereof.

There are now a dozen or more State parks; there is no such park in the southeastern part of the State; within a fifty mile radius of "Hopewell" there is a population of five million. These people, hundreds of thousands of whom have visited the area in the last five years, together with sportsmen who hope to see a game preserve in part of the area, and service clubs, urge and desire that "Hopewell" be made a State Park, since most of them have no opportunity to visit our other State Parks; therefore be it Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That the Department of Forests and Waters continue to maintain "Hopewell" as a park and recreational area, and that the Department of Forests and Waters improve and develop "Hopewell" if, as, and when moneys available for such purpose permit.

and move that the Senate adopt the resolution.

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The motion was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

HOUSE MESSAGE

RESOLUTION RECALLING FROM THE GOVERNOR HOUSE BILL No. 478

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows, considered and agreed to:

In the House of Representatives, June 10, 1947.

Resolved, (If the Senate concur), That House Bill No. 478, Printer's No. 571, entitled:

An Act to add section fifteen point one to the act, approved the eleventh day of July, one thousand nine hundred seventeen (P. L. 818), entitled "An act relating to dogs, and the protection of livestock and poultry from damage by dogs; providing for the licensing of dogs; regulating the keeping of dogs, and authorizing their destruction in certain cases; providing for the protection of licensed dogs, and for dogs temporarily imported for trial, show, and breeding purposes; prescribing certain privileges for hunting dogs, and dogs owned or used by the Board of Game Commissioners; providing for the assessment of damages done by dogs, and payment thereof by the proper county to the owners of livestock and poultry, and of damages to licensed dogs; imposing powers and duties on certain State, county, city, borough, town, and township officers and employes, and on city councils of cities of the first and second class; and providing penalties," authorizing the payment of certain moneys collected under the provisions thereof to societies for the prevention of cruelty to animals upon petition to and under the supervision of the court.

be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of further amendment.

MEMORIALIZING JUPITER PLUVIUS AND THE UNITED STATES WEATHERMAN FOR A LITTLE RAY OF SUNSHINE DURING THE CLOSING OF SESSION

Messrs. FRAZIER and DENT offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to.

In the Senate, June 10, 1947.

Whereas, During the damp and dreary week-end just past, it occurred to the well-known correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer, the Honorable John M. Cummings, that perhaps the condition might be remedied if the Legislature did something about the weather; and

Whereas, The sponsors of this resolution are astounded that the said correspondent would have an occurrence so late in the session; and

Whereas, It is felt that the Legislature should undertake to assist such a distinguished citizen; and

Whereas, the sponsors of this resolution are highly flattered at being called miracle workers by the said correspondent and we approach this matter with due humility, and

Whereas, It is apparent to all who can run and read that the said correspondent is very much like the late lamented Mark Twain. He also talks a lot and does very little; and

Whereas, The matter has been brought to our attention at such a late date that, miracle men as we are, we can't find enough legislative days for the passage of the suggested bill; and

Whereas, The weather-men are all members of United States Civil Service and it can, therefore, be readily understood why they have hatched up such infamous weather during the sessions of the Republican controlled Pennsylvania Legislature; and

Whereas, We are in accord with the belief that something should be done; therefore

Be It Hereby Resolved, That the Senate of Pennsylvania be requested to memorialize Jupiter Pluvius and his hired hands, the United States weather-men, to at least give us a little ray of sunshine during the closing days of this hectic session, when men's nerves are getting frayed; and be it further

Resolved, That we express to the said John M. Cummings our deep appreciation of the fact that he has called upon a Democrat and a Republican to sponsor this resolution, so that all who read the same will realize that it is entirely by-partisan and non-partisan.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The gentleman from the Inquirer will take a bow.

CALENDAR

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of House Bill No. 37, as follows:

An Act defining and providing for the licensing and regulation of private schools conferring powers and imposing duties on the Department of Public Instruction and imposing penalties

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 745, as follows:

An Act to amend sections one thousand one hundred twenty-one and one thousand one hundred thirty of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 309) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" by providing for the budgeting of the traveling expenses of county and assistant county superintendents and the allocation of same

Section 1 Section one thousand one hundred twenty-one of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 309) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" as last amended by the act approved the twenty-seventh day of May one thousand nine hundred nineteen (P. L. 300) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 1121 The annual salary of each county superintendent elected or appointed under the provisions of this act shall be paid by the State from appropriations made for this purpose or from the appropriations for the public schools [and shall be fifteen dollars ($15)] for each of the first one hundred schools within his jurisdiction at the time of his election and ten dollars ($10) for each such additional school Provided That the salary of a county superintendent shall not be less than two thousand dollars ($2000) per annum nor more than two thousand five hundred dollars ($2500) per annum but a convention of school directors assembled for the purpose of electing a county superintendent may vote him a salary greater than the amount he would receive by this act such increase to be paid in all cases out of the school fund apportioned to the school districts over which such county superintendent has supervision before the same is distributed. The salaries of county superintendents shall be paid monthly.

In addition to the said salary each county superintendent shall be entitled to receive annually [a sum not to exceed five hundred dollars for] the payment of the actual and necessary expenses incurred in visiting schools within his district in attending educational meetings and in the performance of such other official duties as may be required by him by law. In providing the budget an average of seven hundred dollars ($700) shall be used in estimating the travel cost of county superintendents provided that the Department of Public Instruction shall allocate the travel funds to the several counties in accordance with regulations to be determined by the Superintendent of Public Instruction. Payments shall be made monthly on account of such expenses to any such county superintendent by requisition of the Superintendent of Public Instruction upon the Auditor General upon the production to him of itemized vouchers in the usual manner.

Section 2 Section one thousand one hundred thirty of said act as last amended by the act approved the first day of July one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 2592) is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Section 1130 The minimum salary of each assistant county superintendent or supervisor of special education as hereinafter in this act provided shall be paid out of the State appropriation for public schools in such payments and manner as the county superintendents are paid. Any additional salary granted by the school directors of any county at their convention for electing county superintendent to any assistant county superintendent or supervisor of special education shall be paid from the school appropriation apportioned among the several school districts under the supervision of the county superintendent before the same is distributed. The salaries of assistant county superintendents and supervisors of special education shall be paid monthly.

In addition to the said salary each assistant county superintendent and each supervisor of special education shall be entitled to receive annually [a sum not to exceed five hundred dollars for] the payment of actual and necessary expenses incurred in visiting schools within his district in attending educational meetings and in the performance of such other official duties as may be required by him by law. In providing the budget an average of seven hundred dollars ($700) shall be used in estimating the travel cost of assistant county superintendents and supervisors of special education provided that the Department of Public Instruction shall allocate the travel funds to the several counties in accordance with regulations to be determined by the Superintendent of Public Instruction. Payments shall be made monthly on account of such expenses to any such assistant county superintendent or supervisor of special education by requisition of the Superintendent of Public Instruction upon the Auditor General upon the production to him of itemized vouchers in the usual manner.

Section 3 The provisions of this act shall become effective on the first day of July one thousand nine hundred forty-seven.

REQUEST THAT BILL GO OVER IN ORDER

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 827, on third reading, entitled:

An Act to provide revenue for school districts of the first class by imposing a temporary business tax on persons engaging in certain businesses therein providing for its levy and collection conferring and imposing powers and duties on the board of public education receiver of school taxes and school treasurer in such districts and providing penalties go over in its order.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, this bill is one of the package that has to do with the Board of Education program. The school teachers are having a problem. If this bill goes over in its order I am afraid that the whole problem will be upset. I think maybe we ought to recess and discuss this matter.

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Frazier, has my sincere apology for having requested that Senate Bill 827 go over in its order but I was advised that the matter had been discussed with him and that my request was being made in accordance with his wishes and, if that is not so, as apparently it is not, then, Mr. President, I withdraw my request.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT REQUESTED THAT BILL GO OVER IN ITS ORDER

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I ask that Senate Bill 827 go over in its order.

Mr. FRAZIER. If the Chair please, I dislike very much to object to this request but this is one of the problems that we have to solve immediately and if Senate Bill 827 goes over in its order the whole school schedule will be upset.

This situation is not of my making. We discussed the program, and the program was that Pittsburgh was to be divorced from Philadelphia and this program was to be confined to Philadelphia. The divorce did not take place, we are still married, and I think before this bill goes over in its order we had better recess and discuss it.

I ask therefore, Mr. President, that Senate Bill 827 go over in its order temporarily and that we recess.

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, in answer to the statement just made by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Frazier, I want this body to understand that before I made any move I talked with the sponsor of the bill in reference to amendments which he introduced late last night, which none of us were able to read until we got here today in session.

This bill was introduced, Mr. President, having fourteen and a half pages, all of which pages were stricken out by the sponsor's amendments as of yesterday and fifteen other pages put in, which makes it an entirely different bill.

I talked with the sponsor of this bill in reference to his amendments and he said, well, it can be changed over in the House. Mr. President, we can not afford to take that chance. If anyone reads this bill, particularly on Page 15, the definition of "business", it certainly is an entirely different bill than that with which we started.

The gentleman from Philadelphia said "well, let it come up and let it be voted down." Mr. President, I do not want the bill voted down because I realize the school districts of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh need some kind of enabling legislation, which apparently he did not realize when he said let it be voted down.

This bill can go over in its order until tomorrow, for amendment, or even until Thursday, and still be passed or get sufficient legislative days in the House for passage.

For that reason I ask that Senate Bill 827 go over in its order.

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, I just have this to say—if the gentleman from Allegheny County objects to the bill as it is, let us put it up and vote on it as it is and kill the whole school program. If Allegheny County wants it killed, that is all right.

I still say, let us recess for a few minutes and see if this situation can not be ironed out.

MOTION TO RECESS

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now recess.

MOTION THAT SENATE BILL 827 GO OVER IN ITS ORDER

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill 827 go over in its order.

RECESS

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for five minutes.

Mr. FARRELL. Mr. President, I second the motion. The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The time of recess having elapsed the Senate will be in order.

Section 1 The act approved the eighteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred seventeen (P. L. 1043) entitled

"An act establishing a public school employees' retirement system and creating a retirement board for the administration thereof establishing certain funds from contributions by the Commonwealth and contributing employees defining the uses and purposes thereof and the manner of payments therefrom and providing for the guaranty by the Commonwealth of certain of said funds imposing powers and duties upon boards having the employment of public school employees exempting annuities allowances returns benefits and rights from taxation and judicial process and providing penalties" is hereby amended by adding after section twelve thereof a new section to read as follows

Transfer to Service under State Employees' Retirement Association

Section 12.1 Any contributor who ceases to be a public school employee and becomes a State employee and a member of the State Employees' Retirement Association by leaving with the retirement boards all of his or her accumulated deductions at the time he or she ceases to be a public school employee may retain his or her membership in the Public School Employees' Retirement Association but without credit under the Public School Employees' Retirement System for service for which credit is allowed under the State Employees' Retirement System and without the right to a disability retirement allowance under the provisions of section thirteen of this act and with final salary equal to the average annual salary earnable by the contributor as a public school employee for the years of service not exceeding ten immediately preceding his or her ceasing to be a public school employee and any person who has heretofore been a contributor and has ceased to be a public school employee and at such time becomes a State employee and a member of the State Employees' Retirement Association may restore his or her membership in the Public School Employees' Retirement Association by repaying to the retirement board on or before the thirty-first day of December one thousand nine hundred forty-seven the full amount of his or her accumulated deductions at the time of his or her ceasing to be a public school employee or any part thereof that may have been heretofore withdrawn Any such accumulated deductions left with or repaid to the retirement board as long as the former contributor continues to be a State employee and a contributor under the State Employees' Retirement Act shall be credited with regular interest thereafter

Nothing contained in this section shall limit the right of a public school employee who has heretofore separated or shall hereafter separate from his or her service as a public school employee to become a State employee and a member of the State Employees' Retirement Association to retain or restore his or her rights as a member as they existed at the time of such separation in the manner provided in this act or to return to service as a public school employee at any time and to add to such retained or restored rights by further service and further payroll deductions

(b) The board shall notify such resident of the estimated assessment If such resident is dissatisfied with the assessment so made he may on or before the day fixed for appeals from assessments present reasons supported by oath or affirmation for his failure to file a return to include all of his taxable property therein or for having made a return which was incomplete incorrect or inaccurate and the board as the case may be may if satisfied with the excuse so presented permit the taxpayer to file his own return and substitute said return for the estimated return made by the board In all cases where a false return has been filed by the taxpayer the board may not relieve the taxpayer from the payment of the fifty per cent (50%) penalty but the estimated return shall be final except in those cases in which a true and correct return shall reveal a higher assessed value than that contained in the estimated return in which case the tax and penalty shall be based upon the true valuation

Section 8 Assessments Made at Any Time Within Five Years An assessment as herein provided may be made by the board at any time within five (5) years after any property owned held or possessed or alleged to have been so owned held or possessed by any resident should have been returned by him for taxation notwithstanding he shall have paid a tax assessed on the basis of returns previously made or filed and notwithstanding the board shall have made previous assessments against such resident In any such case no credit shall be given for any penalty formerly assessed and paid The tax assessed by the board as provided herein either on the basis of the estimated return made by the board or on the basis of the return filed by the taxpayer shall bear interest at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum from the date when the tax was due and payable

Section 9 Petition for Reassessment Appeal (a) Any resident against whom an assessment is made may petition the board for a reassessment Notice of an intention to file such a petition or to appear and be heard shall be given to the board within thirty (30) days after notice of such assessment is given or sent by the board to the taxpayer as provided in this act The board shall hold such hearings as may be necessary to hear and determine petitions for reassessment at such places and at such times as may be determined by rules and regulations of the board and each petitioner who has duly notified the board of an intention to file a petition for reassessment or to appear and be heard shall be notified by the board of the time when and the place where such hearings shall be held All such petitions shall set forth specifically and in detail the grounds upon which it is claimed the assessment is erroneous or unlawful and shall be accompanied by an affidavit under oath or affirmation certifying to the correctness of the facts stated therein If no petition for reassessment is filed with the board the petitioner may in lieu thereof appear at the hearing and present his petition orally in which event all testimony or statements of facts shall be made under oath or affirmation

(b) If such petitioner is dissatisfied with the action of the board on his petition for reassessment he shall have the right to appeal to the court of common pleas of the county where he resides at any time within sixty (60) days after notice of such action is given to him by the board If any resident shall fail to give due notice of an intention to petition for reassessment and to file a petition for reassessment or to appear and be heard after due notice of his intention to do so or to appeal to the court of common pleas within the time and in the manner herein set forth the right to do so shall be forever barred and any such resident so failing shall not thereafter be permitted in a suit for the recovery of such tax to set up any ground of defense which might have been determined either by the board or the court of common pleas In all cases of petitions for reassessment and appeals the burden of proof shall be on the petitioner or appellant as the case may be and every appeal to the court of common pleas under this section shall specify all the objections to the assessment and any objection not specified in the appeal shall not be considered by the court

Section 10 Information at Source Reports The executor of every will and the administrator of every estate at the time of filing with the register of wills or clerk of the orphans' court the inventory and appraisal of such estate shall file with such register of wills or clerk of the orphans' court a statement in duplicate under oath or affirmation setting forth the items included in such inventory or affidavit which may be liable to the tax imposed by this act The register or clerk with whom the same is filed shall forthwith send one copy thereof to the board It shall be the duty of the board to proceed at once to assess the tax due from such decedent with interest as heretofore provided in this act and whose duty it shall then be to proceed to assess the taxes due from such decedent Such assessment shall include all property owned held or possessed by the decedent which should have been returned by him for taxation for any former year or years not exceeding five (5) years In any case where a false incomplete incorrect or inaccurate return has been previously filed the board shall make an additional assessment for the five (5) years immediately preceding the year of assessment in the same manner as otherwise provided in this act In each school district the Receiver of Taxes or in school districts in which there is no Receiver of School Taxes the County Treasurer of the county in which the school district is located may proceed to collect the said tax by presenting a claim therefor to the orphans' court of the proper county or may proceed by action or suit at law in any court of competent jurisdiction or take any and all other appropriate steps or procedure for the collection of such taxes

Section 11 Examination of Books and Witnesses The board or any employee authorized in writing by it is hereby authorized to examine the books papers and records of any resident in order to verify the accuracy of any return made or if no return was made to ascertain and assess the tax imposed by this act Every such resident is hereby directed and required to give to the board or its duly authorized employees the means facilities and opportunity for such examinations and investigations as are hereby provided and authorized The board is hereby authorized to examine any person under oath concerning any property which was or should have been returned for taxation and to this end may compel the production of books papers and records and the attendance of all persons whether as parties or witnesses whom it believes have knowledge of such property

Section 12 Certified Statement to Board of Public Education and Collecting Officers for the purpose of enabling the board of Public Education to levy the taxes imposed by this act for 1948 and for every year thereafter it shall be the duty of the board to furnish annually at the same time as it furnishes the valuation of real property to the board of public education in school districts of the first class and to the Receiver of Taxes or in school districts in which there is no Receiver of Taxes to the County Treasurer of the county in which such school district is located a properly certified duplicate of the then existing adjusted valuation of all personal property taxable for school purposes

Section 13 Penalties (a) It shall be unlawful for any person or persons copartnership unincorporated association limited partnership joint-stock association or corporation whatsoever in loaning money at interest to any person or persons whether such loans be secured by bond and mortgage or otherwise to require the person or persons borrowing the same to pay the tax imposed thereon by the first section of this act and in all cases where such tax shall have been paid by the borrower or borrowers the same shall be deemed and considered usury and subject to the laws governing the same

(b) Any wilful failure on the part of the board register of wills or clerk of orphans' court to carry out the duties imposed upon them by the several sections of this act shall be deemed a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof the person or persons so failing to comply shall be sentenced to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500) and imprisonment not exceeding one (1) year

(c) Any person or officer who shall wilfully and corruptly make a false and fraudulent return as aforesaid shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon his or her conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500) or undergo an imprisonment not exceeding two (2) years or both

Section 14 Repeal All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

Section 15 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment and shall continue in effect until and including December 31 1949

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

An Act to make unlawful the possession of untaxed or unstamped cigarettes and providing for summary conviction and penalties

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Whosoever not being an officer agent or employee of a commissary ship's store or voluntary unincorporated organization of the Army or the Navy personnel operating under regulations promulgated by the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy or not being a duly licensed dealer under the act approved the fourteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (P. L. 341) as re-enacted and amended known as the Cigarette Tax Act and entitled "An act to provide revenue by imposing a State tax upon sales of cigarettes by dealers as herein defined requiring persons engaged in the sale of cigarettes at wholesale and retail to secure permits prescribing the method and manner of collecting such tax conferring powers and imposing duties on the Department of Revenue and persons as herein defined engaged in the sale of cigarettes at retail or wholesale making an appropriation and providing penalties" shall have in his possession two hundred (200) or more cigarettes upon which State Cigarette Tax has not been paid or to the containers of which Pennsylvania cigarette tax stamps are not affixed in the amount required by law shall upon conviction thereof in a summary proceeding be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than twenty-five dollars ($25.00) and costs of prosecution for each two hundred (200) cigarettes found in his possession the cigarettes shall be forfeited to the Commonwealth and in default of the payment of the said fine and costs he shall be imprisoned in the county jail one (1) day for each dollar of fine and costs unpaid

Section 2 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I do not intend to speak for the Democratic caucus. I am speaking my personal opinion in the matter.

This bill makes unlawful the possession of untaxed cigarettes in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I do not believe that this bill will ever be enforceable and I believe that it will be a source of great annoyance to the traveling citizens of the state of Pennsylvania who happen to be coming in from neighboring states. It is a temptation for any person to purchase a few extra cartons of cigarettes when the difference in the state price in Pennsylvania and that in neighboring states is so great.

I have here an ad appearing in my local newspaper, a small town newspaper out in the western end of Pennsylvania, and here is an ad that offers for sale all popular brands of cigarettes, by mail, at $1.39 a carton.

Mr. President, there is nothing we can do, as I understand it, to stop the importation of cigarettes through the mail. The individual citizens who will send, and are sending for cigarettes already, will be subject to spying and harassment on the part of persons who may dislike them. This, my friends, is another invitation to lawlessness, another invitation to citizens who have never broken the law, to become lawbreakers.

I believe the tax on cigarettes to be too high. I believe that the policy in Pennsylvania of just reaching out and getting taxes where it can fall on an item that can not fight back will result in much restrictive legislation in the years to come, on many items that are being taxed in Pennsylvania and not taxed in other states, and I want to say clearly that I would never vote for any bill that tries to uphold an injustice.

The thousands of men and women in Pennsylvania who smoke cigarettes are being taxed beyond a reasonable amount and now, to enforce that obnoxious tax and unreasonable tax, we are passing this legislation to make criminals out of every person that has any non-taxed cigarettes in his possession. My personal feeling on the matter is that I will not vote for this bill.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the House is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1273, as follows:

An Act to repeal the act approved the fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 1395) entitled "An act authorizing the Department of Property and Supplies with the approval of the Governor to acquire by condemnation or purchase land or land and buildings within the City of Philadelphia and within the City of Pittsburgh or the County of Allegheny and to construct alter improve and equip such property for use of the Commonwealth providing for the maintenance thereof and making an appropriation"

Section 1 The act approved the fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 1395) entitled "An act authorizing the Department of Property and Supplies with the approval of the Governor to acquire by condemnation or purchase land or land and buildings within the City of Philadelphia and within the City of Pittsburgh or the County of Allegheny and to construct alter improve and equip such property for use of the Commonwealth providing for the maintenance thereof and making an appropriation" is hereby repealed

Section 2 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, as I understand this bill it is a bill which will repeal an act which now would allow the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to build buildings in the city of Pittsburgh and in the city of Philadelphia, in order that we would get away from paying high rents we pay now for space for state departmental use and, further than that, the argument that was first advanced for the passage of the original act was that it would give the people of Pennsylvania that have business to attend to with the state, a central place to go to to attend to their business without running all over the city looking for one office in one building and another office in another building on another street.

There can be no justification, as I see it, for the repeal of this act. When the state is ready to build we all know it will and should build these buildings in the cities of Pittsburgh and Philadelphia.

I can not understand why this bill is needed unless landlords and landlords who own buildings that are now being tenanted by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania are interested in the high rentals they are receiving and, as I understand it, that amounts to $300,000 a year in the city of Philadelphia alone.

I for one can not see any justification for the passage of this repealer.

Mr. KEPHART. Mr. President, I agree with what the gentleman from Westmoreland has just said.

In 1945 this Legislature passed a bill for the construction of two office buildings, one in Allegheny County, Pittsburgh, and one in Philadelphia. In that bill $1,500,000 was appropriated. This bill will wipe that appropriation out and when the time comes to build the needed building in either of those places, Philadelphia or Pittsburgh, it is going to be delayed two or three years at least by reason of our passing this repealer.

I say what we should have done was to save, out of the bill we passed in 1945, at least enough money to have architects to make working plans so that when the time comes when prices are reasonable, there could be erected buildings for offices in Pittsburgh and Philadelphia and we could plan for the future and save the rentals being paid for space in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh.

I want to make one correction because I understand the amount of rent they are paying in Philadelphia now for state office space amounts to $600,000 rather than $300,000 annually.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

any such taxable for any former year or years and to collect the balance of the tax found to be due together with interest at the rate of six per centum per annum. And provided further That the executor of every will and the administrator of every estate at the time of filing with the register of wills or clerk of the orphans' court the inventory and appraisal of such estate or of any affidavit setting forth the real and personal property of such decedent for the purpose of determining the inheritance tax shall in addition thereto file an affidavit in duplicate setting forth the items included in such inventory or affidavit which may be liable to a tax during the last completed taxing period for county purposes or in cities coextensive with counties for county and city purposes under the provisions of this act.

And the officer with whom the same is filed shall forthwith send one of said copies of such affidavit to the county commissioners or the board for the assessment and revision of taxes as the case may be whose duty it shall then be to proceed as hereinbefore directed for the assessment and recovery of the taxes due from such decedent to the said counties or cities coextensive therewith with interest as above provided and for that purpose to present a claim therefor to the orphans' court of the proper county or to proceed by action or suit at law in any court of competent jurisdiction for such recovery thereof or to take any or all appropriate steps or procedure for the collection of said taxes.

And provided further That it shall be the duty of the county commissioners or board of revision of taxes upon their making any assessment or reassessment where no return has been made or an incorrect inaccurate false or incomplete return has been made as aforesaid to give notice thereof to the taxable or his or her executor or administrator of the assessment and when they will sit to hear an appeal therefrom].

Section 5 If any taxable resident shall fail to file a return or fail to include in any return all of his property made taxable by the first section of this act or shall file a return which is false incomplete incorrect or inaccurate the board of revision of taxes or the county commissioners shall make an assessment of tax against such resident of the amount of tax for which such resident is liable or for which he is believed by the board of revision or county commissioners to be liable to which estimated return the board of revision of taxes or county commissioners shall add fifty per cent and the aggregate amount so obtained shall be the basis for taxation.

The board of revision or the proper county commissioners shall notify such resident of the estimated assessment. If such resident is dissatisfied with the assessment so made he may on or before the day fixed for appeals from assessments present reasons supported by oath or affirmation for his failure to file a return to include all of his taxable property therein or for having made a return which was incomplete incorrect or inaccurate and the board of revision of taxes or the county commissioners as the case may be may if satisfied with the excuse so presented permit the taxpayer to file his own return and substitute said return for the estimated return made by the board of revision of taxes or the county commissioners. In all cases where a false return has been filed by the taxpayer the board of revision or the county commissioners may not relieve the taxpayer from the payment of the fifty per cent penalty but the estimated return shall be final except in those cases in which a true and correct return shall reveal a higher assessed value than that contained in the estimated return in which case the tax and penalty shall be based upon the true valuation.

An assessment as herein provided may be made by the board of revision of taxes or the county commissioners at any time within five years after any property owned held or possessed or alleged to have been so owned held or possessed by any resident should have been returned by him for taxation notwithstanding he shall have paid a tax assessed on the basis of returns previously made or filed and notwithstanding the board of revision of taxes or the county commissioners shall have made previous assessments against such resident. In any such case no credit shall be given for any penalty formerly assessed and paid. The tax assessed by the board of revision of taxes or the county commissioners as provided herein either on the basis of the estimated return made by the board or the commissioners or on the basis of the return filed by the taxpayer shall bear interest at the rate of six per cent per annum from the date when the tax was due and payable.

Section 3 The said act is hereby amended by adding thereto after section five thereof certain new sections to read as follows:

Section 5.1 (a) Any resident against whom an assessment is made may petition the board of revision of taxes or the county commissioners for a reassessment. Notice of an intention to file such a petition or to appear and be heard shall be given to the board of revision of taxes or the county commissioners within thirty (30) days after notice of such assessment is given or sent by the board of revision of taxes or the county commissioners to the taxpayers as provided in this act. The board of revision of taxes or the county commissioners shall hold such hearings as may be necessary to hear and determine petitions for reassessment at such places and at such times as may be determined by rules and regulations of the board of revision of taxes or the county commissioners and each petitioner who has duly notified the board of revision or the county commissioners of an intention to file a petition for reassessment or to appear and be heard shall be notified by the board of revision of taxes or the county commissioners of the time when and the place where such hearings shall be held. All such petitions shall set forth specifically and in detail the ground upon which it is claimed the assessment is erroneous or unlawful and shall be accompanied by an affidavit under oath or affirmation certifying to the correctness of the facts stated therein. If no petition for reassessment is filed with the board of revision of taxes or the county commissioners the petitioner may in lieu thereof appear at the hearing and present his petition orally in which event all testimony or statements of facts shall be made under oath or affirmation.

(b) If such petitioner is dissatisfied with the action of the board of revision of taxes or the county commissioners on his petition for reassessment he shall have the right to appeal to the court of common pleas of the county where he resides at any time within sixty (60) days after notice of such action is given to him by the board of revision of taxes or the county commissioners. If any resident shall fail to give due notice of an intention to petition for reassessment and to file a petition for reassessment or to appear and be heard after due notice of his intention to do so or to appeal to the court of common pleas within the time and in the manner herein set forth the right to do so shall be forever barred and any such resident so failing shall not thereafter be permitted in a suit for the recovery of such tax to set up any ground of defense which might have been determined either by the board of revision of taxes or county commissioners or the court of common pleas as aforesaid. In all cases of petitions for reassessment and appeals the burden of proof shall be on the petitioner or appellant as the case may be and every appeal to the court of common pleas under this section shall specify all the objections to the assessment and any objection not specified in the appeal shall not be considered by the court.

Section 5.2 The executor of every will and the administrator of every estate shall file with the register of wills or clerk of the orphans' court an additional copy of the inventory and appraisal of such estate. The register or clerk with whom the same is filed shall forthwith send a copy of said inventory and appraisal to the board of revision of taxes or the county commissioners as the case may be whose duty it shall then be to proceed to assess and collect the taxes due from such decedent. Such assessment shall include all property owned held or possessed by the decedent which should have been returned by him for taxation for any former year or years not exceeding five years In any case where a false incomplete incorrect or inaccurate return has been previously filed the board of revision or the county commissioners shall make an additional assessment for the five years immediately preceding the year of assessment in the same manner and form provided in section five of this act The board of revision of taxes or the county commissioners may proceed to collect the said tax by presenting a claim therefor to the orphans' court of the proper county or may proceed by action or suit at law in any court of competent jurisdiction or take any and all other appropriate steps or procedure for the collection of such taxes

Section 5.3 (a) The board of revision of taxes or the county commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to prescribe adopt promulgate and enforce rules and regulations relating to any matter or thing pertaining to the administration and enforcement of the provisions of this act and the collection of tax penalties and interest imposed by this act

(b) The board of revision of taxes or the county commissioners or any employee authorized by them in writing is hereby authorized to examine the books papers and records of any resident in order to verify the accuracy of any return made or if no return was made to ascertain and assess the tax imposed by the first section of this act Every such resident is hereby directed and required to give to the board of revision of taxes or the county commissioners or their duly authorized employees the means facilities and opportunity for such examinations and investigations as are hereby provided and authorized The board of revision of taxes or the county commissioners are hereby authorized to examine any person under oath concerning any property which was or should have been returned for taxation and to this end may compel the production of books papers and records and the attendance of all persons whether as parties or witnesses who they believe have knowledge of such property In the event of the refusal of any taxpayer to permit the examination of his books and records or upon his refusal to appear before the board of revision of taxes or the county commissioners or to testify or in the event of his refusal to produce books papers and records which the board of revision of taxes or the county commissioners have directed to be produced the board of revision of taxes or the county commissioners may have recourse to the court of common pleas of said county which court shall upon cause shown direct the attendance of witnesses and the production of records Any information gained by the board of revision of taxes or the county commissioners as a result of any returns investigations hearings or verifications required or authorized by this act shall be confidential except for official purposes and any person or agent divulging such information shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not in excess of five hundred dollars ($500.00) or to undergo imprisonment for not more than three (3) years or both in the discretion of the court

(c) The powers conferred by this act upon the board of revision of taxes and the county commissioners relating to the administration and enforcement of this act shall be in addition to but not exclusive of any other powers heretofore or hereafter conferred upon the said board or county commissioners by law

Section 4 Section sixteen of the said act is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 16 [That the tax upon personal property imposed by the first section of this act shall be collected by distraint or otherwise as other taxes for county purposes or in cities coextensive with counties for city and county purposes are collected under the laws of this Commonwealth Provided however That no tax by said first section imposed shall be collectible or collected for the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen it being intended that the tax upon such personal property for said year shall be collected by and for the State under existing legislation]

this act shall bear interest at the rate of six per cent per annum until paid

And said bill having been read at length the third time and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. FRAZIER. May I say this to the Chair and to the Senate: we think we have a program worked out—we do not know yet—but I say if this bill has to be amended in the House and a program is not worked out, I will not preclude the gentleman from Allegheny County, Senator Geltz, from having an opportunity to further discuss it

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I want to make my position clear with respect to this bill: I do not care very much for it, I think it is a bad piece of legislation. However, in order to help the school teachers of Philadelphia I shall vote "aye".

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

Becker,	Geltz,	Mallery,	Wade,
Blass,	Hare,	Rosenfeld,	Wagner,
Carr,	Heyburn,	Scarlett,	Watson,

RESOLUTION No. 64.

In the House of Representatives, June 9, 1947.

At Kresgeville in Monroe County, the school district of Polk Township maintains a school, the home economics department of which has been selected by the Department of Public Instruction as one of four outstanding home economics courses in the Commonwealth, on the basis of class room equipment and method, philosophy of curriculum and general interest, to participate as a part of a model home economics class room to be conducted at the Pennsylvania State College, during the coming summer, to be observed and studied by educators interested in home economics; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives hereby commends the Board of School Directors of Polk Township, the officers and staff of the office of the County Superintendent of Schools of Monroe County, and the Principal, Home Economic's Teacher and the participating student body of the Kresgeville School for their initiative and foresight in bringing about this splendid achievement and for their contribution to the development of home economics education in Pennsylvania on a level above the State's present conception of an adequate system; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted by the Chief Clerk to the President of the Board of School Directors of Polk Township, the Superintendent of Schools of Monroe County, the Principal of the Kresgeville School, and the Teacher of Home Economics of the Kresgeville School.

Referred to Committee on Rules.

By Messrs. ERB, BOWER and HELM.

RESOLUTION No. 65

In the House of Representatives, June 2, 1947.

The Pennsylvania State Police force has an outstanding reputation for doing its assigned tasks in a manner approved and respected by the people of this Commonwealth.

Within the organization itself there are serious evidences of poor administration affecting the lower echelon levels. Such indications, if proved true, are certain in time to undermine the morals of the members of the Pennsylvania State Police so that as a result the public good will suffer.

It has been suggested that in many cases living quarters have not been chosen with a view to facilitating the every-day work of this force. Moreover, barracks are often so located as to isolate most of the men from normal community life. Living conditions and sustenance are not everywhere as good as they should be.

Several counties are examples of these conditions. There the Troop Headquarters had been admirably located in relation to the area which had to be policed. The barracks was adequate and attractive and close to the community life. For no apparent reason, a change in location was made which benefitted only the owner of the new spot, everyone else suffered.

These matters affect vitally the daily living of the majority of Pennsylvania State Police—the enlisted men. If conditions exist which can and are impairing the efficiency of these men, notice thereof should be taken and prompt action to remedy the situation should follow.

The situation now existent would indicate that the commissioned officers in direct charge of the administration in certain counties are either indifferent, careless or incompetent in the proper discharge of Pennsylvania State Police affairs.

More can be said and proved but that can best be uncovered by the committee designated to investigate.

Since it will be necessary to interview numerous subordinate members of the Pennsylvania State Police they should be given assurance that so long as facts are furnished they need not fear their superior officers.

The change hoped for is to restore the Pennsylvania State Police to the advantages due this distinguished organization relative to location, to permit subordinate married members to obtain the advantage of subsistence allowances at all Troop Headquarters throughout the State and which will effect a substantial savings to the Commonwealth. This will increase their standard of living so that undoubtedly the morale and efficiency of the organization will be greatly increased and the great majority benefit thereby, therefore be it

Resolved by the members of the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth that the Speaker of the House hereby authorized and requested to appoint a committee of three (3) members of the House who shall make a full and complete investigation of the conditions complained of

By Messrs. WEISS and CAPANO. RESOLUTION No. 66

In the House of Representatives, June 9, 1947.

Whereas, the Congress of the United States finally approved the Taft-Hartley labor bill on June 6, 1947, when the Senate of the United States passed same by a vote of 54 to 17, and

Whereas, said bill thrusts hard at the foundation of the forces of labor and restricts much of the power of the unions related thereto, and

Whereas, the three phases of the bill found most objectionable are provisions for the following, namely:

1. Requiring that employees could bargain for the union shop, as an alternative to the outlawed closed shop, under Federal protection only so long as a majority of all affected, and not simply a majority of those voting had decided on that demand.

2. Permitting States to make anti-union-shop laws that would not be struck down by the Federal law.

3. Removing the conciliation service from the Department of Labor and placing it under an independent administrator, and

Whereas, the signing of such bill into law by the President of the United States to veto the said Taft-Hartley labor bill, and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House to the President of the United States, the presiding officers of each House of Congress of the United States and to each Senator and Representative from Pennsylvania in the Congress of the United States.

Referred to Committee on Rules.

SENATE MESSAGES

RESOLUTIONS FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented the following extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows, viz:

In the Senate, June 5, 1947.

Whereas, The Gettysburg Address of President Abraham Lincoln is an outstanding classic and will touch the hearts of men and inspire them with faith in our matchless democracy as long as time endures; and

Whereas, In that address Mr. Lincoln adjured his fellow countrymen to dedicate themselves to the principles of democracy in order that government "of the people, by the people, and for the people shall not perish from the earth;" therefore, be it

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur), That November 19, the anniversary of the delivery of the Gettysburg Address, be, and hereby is, designated in our calendar of special days as Dedication Day, and be it further

Resolved, That the Governor of Pennsylvania is requested to proclaim November 19 as Dedication Day and to suggest that the address be read on that day in schools and public assemblages throughout the Commonwealth.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

Mr. WALTON. Mr. Speaker, I present the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 1046.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The report will lie over for printing.

SENATE MESSAGE

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate of Pennsylvania, June 9, 1947.

Whereas, a park and recreational area has been projected for establishment in the Township of Mead, County of Warren, by the Department of Forests and Waters in cooperation with various sportsmen's organizations to be located generally in the location of what is known as Bucher's Mills, and

Whereas, the interest of Dr. Leroy E. Chapman, Senator from the Forty-eighth District, in the establishment and location of the said park and recreational area has been of great assistance in furthering the plans for the same, and

Whereas, it would be fitting that such a project for the benefit of the public, bear the name which would recognize the service to the community of such a man as Doctor Chapman; therefore be it

Resolved, if the House of Representatives concur, that the park and recreational area to be established at or near Bucher's Mill in Mead Township, Warren County, Pennsylvania, be and the same hereby is officially named "Chapman Park", and shall be so designated on the plans and maps of the Department of Forests and Waters and of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The resolution lies over under the Rules.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. STOCKHAM asked and obtained permission for the Select Committee on Resolutions of Recognition to meet during the session of the House.

BILL INTRODUCED

Mr. IMBT asked and obtained unanimous consent to introduce a bill.

THE SPEAKER (Franklin H. Lichtenwalter) IN THE CHAIR

SENATE MESSAGES

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate of Pennsylvania, June 9, 1947.

Whereas, The commission generally known as "The School Commission," created by the act of May 26, 1943 (P. L. 635) and continued by the act of May 24, 1945 (P. L. 953), for the purpose of making a study of public school finance, has completed its assigned task and is about to pass out of existence; and

Whereas, In the course of its studies, the commission has gathered a great deal of invaluable data and information, now contained in the commission's files, all of which should be preserved for future use; therefore, be it

Resolved, (If the House of Representatives concurs), That upon winding up its affairs The School Commission deliver all of its files containing all data, reports, material and information collected and compiled by it, to the Joint State Government Commission, to be by it preserved for use by it and such other agencies as may have occasion to study the financing of the public school system.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

The SPEAKER. The resolution lies over under the Rules.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. LEE. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Insurance for further study and possible amendment.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1047, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act approved the first day of June one thousand nine hundred and forty-five (P. L. 1340) entitled "Relating to the financial responsibility of operators and owners of motor vehicles and to make uniform the law with reference thereto requiring owners and operators in certain cases to furnish proof of financial responsibility providing for the suspension of operators' licenses and motor vehicle registration certificates in certain cases regulating insurance policies which may be accepted as proof of financial responsibility imposing duties upon the Secretary of Revenue the State Treasurer and prothonotaries and prescribing penalties."

Mr. DeLONG offered the following amendments to the bill:

Amend the bill page 2, by inserting after the title and before line 1, the following:

Section 1 Section two of the act, approved the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 1340), entitled "An act relating to the financial responsibility of operators and owners of motor vehicles and to make uniform the law with reference thereto requiring owners and operators in certain cases to furnish proof of financial responsibility providing for the suspension of operator's licenses and motor vehicle registration certificates in certain cases regulating insurance policies which may be accepted as proof of financial responsibility imposing duties upon the Secretary of Revenue the State Treasurer and prothonotaries and prescribing penalties," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 2, Secretary to Administer Act; Appeal to Court.—

(a) The secretary shall administer and enforce the provisions of this act and may make rules and regulations necessary for its administration.

(b) The cost of enforcing and the expenses of administering this act shall be met in the following manner: The secretary annually as soon as possible after the first day of June in each year shall ascertain the total amount of costs and expenses incurred by the Department of Revenue in enforcing and administering this act during the preceding fiscal year. Such costs and expenses in addition to the direct costs of personal service shall include the cost of maintenance and operation, the cost of retirement contributions made and workman's compensation premiums paid by the State for or on account of personal rentals for space occupied in State owned or State leased buildings and all other direct and indirect costs, expenses and charges. There shall be deducted from such total expenses the amount by which the premium taxes paid by all insurance carriers on automobile bodily injury and property damage liability insurance for the calendar year ending December thirty-first immediately preceding the end of the fiscal year for which the assessment is made exceeds such premium taxes for the calendar year 1946. An itemized statement of the costs and expenses so ascertained shall be open to public inspection in the office of the Director of the Bureau of Highway Safety for thirty days after notice to those liable to be assessed for such costs and expenses after which time the Secretary shall make assessment upon them as herein provided. The Secretary shall thereupon assess the total amount of such costs and expenses as so ascertained after making the deduction herein provided pro rata upon all insurance carriers in proportion to the gross direct premiums less return premiums thereon written by them during the calendar year ending the thirty-first day of December immediately preceding the fiscal year for which the assessment is made for policies or contracts of automobile bodily insurance covering risks resident or located in this State. The secretary shall levy and collect such assessments in the same manner as provided for the collection of taxes and pay the same into the State Treasury to be credited to the fund from which monies have been advanced for the enforcement and administration of this act.

(c) Any person aggrieved by an order or act of the secretary under the provisions of sections four to eleven of this act, may within ten days after notice thereof, file a petition in the court of common pleas of Dauphin County for a trial de novo to determine whether such order or act is lawful and reasonable. The filing of such petition shall not suspend the order or act of the secretary, unless a stay thereof shall be allowed by a judge of said court pending final determination of the matter. The court shall summarily hear the petition and may make any appropriate order or decree.

Amend page 3, by striking out lines 1 to 7, inclusive.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1352, entitled:

An Act relating to annual salaries of certain county officers of counties of the seventh class

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. COLE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill, the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Imbt.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Monroe permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. IMBT. I shall Mr. Speaker.

Mr. COLE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know from the sponsor of this bill on line 5, page 2, "The annual salary of each county commissioner shall be one thousand one hundred dollars," that is in the seventh class counties. I am from a seventh class county and to-day my county commissioners are getting eighteen hundred dollars a year. Why the cut of seven hundred dollars?

Mr. IMBT. Mr. Speaker, I think that can be explained by the fact that it is my understanding that the county commissioners' pay is based on two separate elements, two separate bases. At the present time in my county the county commissioners will get one thousand dollars a year for acting as county commissioners, plus eight hundred dollars for institutional relief work, as I understand it is termed. This in no way affects the institutional relief work. The county commissioners' salary under the provisions of this bill would be a total of one thousand nine hundred dollars.

Mr. COLE. Mr. Speaker, another question, there would not be any increase then on the institutional work of eight hundred dollars?

Mr. IMBT. That is right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. COLE. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, I do not believe that the one hundred dollar raise is enough for county commissioners and I would like to tell the members why. At the present time at the salary of one thousand one hundred dollars a year and the eight hundred dollars a year that they get for taking care of the institutional districts, the only man that can run for that office is a man that has a big pile of money or who has a good business back home and bringing in a lot of money of the side. I do not think it is fair to men that have the ability to take this kind of a job over, who cannot afford to do so because of the low salary that is paid. I still hope and I believe there is still time to put amendments in the bill. I don't suppose they will pass if we put them in anyway.

Mr. DIX. Mr. Speaker, in regard to the salaries for county commissioners, when we consider the salaries that the State Representatives receive it seems to me that the salaries that the county commissioners get, eighteen hundred dollars a year, is a very munificent salary. These county commissioners, I know in my country, and I have nothing against them, meet once a week and they spend about three or four hours in the court house. This is all the work they do as far as the court house work is concerned. All the rest of the work is done by the clerical force. It seems to me that the eighteen hundred dollars taken in comparison with the fifteen hundred dollars the state Representatives receive, is a pretty good reward, and I can see no reason why they should receive this greater increase than any other state employe at this time.

Mr. COLE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Wayne, Mr. Dix, whether he voted for the increase in salary of the Philadelphia city council.

The SPEAKER. Does the Chair understand that the gentleman desires to interrogate the gentleman from Wayne?

Mr. COLE. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Wayne permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DIX. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. COLE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman, whether he voted for the salary raise for the city council of Philadelphia.

Mr. DIX. How much of a raise was that, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. COLE. Mr. Speaker, fifty-five hundred dollars a year.

Mr. DIX. Mr. Speaker, I don't have that. The Members here have been introducing bills raising salaries for the last six months or trying to do so, and I will have to confess that I cannot recall exactly what salary raises I voted for, but if I did vote for that salary raiser I hereby retract it. I would like to have that as a matter of record that I quit supporting such salary raisers.

Mr. COLE. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman sorry that he voted for the one hundred dollar a month expense account for the Members of the Legislature?

Mr. DIX. Mr. Speaker I voted for that measure but I understand that that amount of money is going to be decreased. The members very often vote for bills where they know they are not going to get what they ask for.

Mr. COLE. Mr. Speaker, I still insist that eleven hundred dollars a year is not sufficient money for the office of county commissioner.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

McCormack,

Trout,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1035, as follows:

An Act to amend section forty of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 1050) entitled "An act relating to the collection of taxes levied by counties county institution districts cities of the third class boroughs towns townships certain school districts and vocational school districts conferring powers and imposing duties on tax collectors courts and various officers of said political subdivisions and prescribing penalties" by providing that the surety on the executor or administrator has been appointed shall have the sole right and power to take over the tax duplicates in which said surety is interester and to proceed to make collections thereon in accordance with the provisions of this section

Section 1 Section forty of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 1050) entitled "An act relating to the collection of taxes levied by counties county institution districts cities of the third class boroughs towns townships certain school districts and vocational school districts conferring powers and imposing duties on tax collectors courts and various officers of said subdivisions and prescribing penalties" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 40 Collection of Taxes by Sureties of Defaulting or Deceased Collectors (a) When any tax collector shall default in the payment of the taxes charged on the duplicates either by embezzlement negligence or failure to collect such taxes within the time prescribed by this act it shall be lawful for the surety or sureties on his bond to demand from the tax collector the tax duplicates in which said sureties are interested and the tax collector shall turn over to his said sureties such duplicates of the various taxing districts for which he is collector

(b) If the tax collector shall fail neglect or refuse to turn over such duplicates upon demand made by his surety or sureties it shall be lawful for the surety or sureties to present a petition to the court of common pleas of the county in which such tax collector resides setting forth the fact that such collector has defaulted in making collections The court being satisfied that such default has been made shall make an order to compel the tax collector to turn over his sureties the tax duplicates upon which the sureties are liable

(b-1) When any tax collector shall have died and no executor or administrator within fifteen (15) days thereafter has been appointed to administer his estate the surety or sureties on his bond shall have the right and power after petitioning the court of common pleas of the county in which such deceased tax collector resided and after the said court has entered an order granting the prayer of the said petition to take over the tax duplicates in which said sureties are interested and to proceed to collect the taxes remaining unpaid such duplicates in accordance with the provisions of this section until such time as executor or administrator of the estate of the deceased tax collector shall be appointed at which time the said surety or sureties shall file an accounting of such collections in the court where the said order was entered and shall pay such undistributed fund to said executor or administrator

(c) The holders of such duplicates shall have the right to appoint a collector for such period of time as herein provided to collect the taxes remaining unpaid upon such duplicates any collector so appointed shall have all the authority and power under the warrant issued to the original collector vested by this act The authorities issuing said warrants may issue an additional warrant to the collector of such delinquent taxes upon request of such sureties

(d) The provisions of any law extending the time or any warrant for the collection of taxes on duplicates shall likewise extend to the collection of taxes on such delinquent tax duplicates

(e) Whenever the surety or sureties on the bond of any defaulting or deceased tax collector shall under the provisions of this section undertake to collect delinquent taxes charged in any duplicate delivered to such defaulting or deceased tax collector by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the delinquent or shall distress on the goods and chattels of any person who shall allege that the taxes with which he stands charged have actually been paid or that such person whose goods and chattels have been distrained upon shall deny liability for such taxes then in either event the taxpayer may petition the court of quarter sessions of the county for a stay of any such sale of goods and chattels distrained upon setting forth the reasons therefor

The court shall have to stay such sale pending a hearing of the matter The court shall have power to fix a day for hearing of which due notice shall be given the surety or sureties of such defaulting or deceased tax collector as the court may prescribe

(f) If the court after hearing shall be of the opinion that a taxpayer has actually paid such taxes or is not liable for the taxes with which he stands charged on the duplicate it shall direct satisfaction to be entered on such duplicate by the surety or sureties

(g) The surety or sureties on the bond of any such defaulting or deceased tax collector or any taxpayer shall have the right upon demand made to have a jury pass upon the question whether or not a taxpayer has paid taxes with which he stands charged and if the jury shall find such taxes have been so paid the court shall direct the surety or sureties to enter satisfaction on the duplicate

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

McCormack, Trout,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 726, as follows:

An Act to amend section two of the act approved the twelfth day of May one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 295) entitled "A supplement to an act entitled 'An act for the government of cities of the second class' approved the seventh day of March Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and one providing for the levy collection and disbursement of taxes and water-rents or rates and conferring certain powers and duties in reference thereto upon the city treasurer the board of water assessors and the collector of delinquent taxes and repealing certain acts relating to matters herein provided for" by fixing a limit for taxes to be levied on real estate

Section 1 Section two of the act approved the twelfth day of May one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 295) entitled "A supplement to an act entitled 'An act for the government of cities of the second class' approved the seventh day of March Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and one providing for the levy collection and disbursement of taxes and water-rents or rates and conferring certain powers and duties in reference thereto upon the city treasurer the board of water assessors and collectors of delinquent taxes and repealing certain acts relating to matters herein provided for" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 2 The councils of said cities of the second class shall be and they are hereby authorized empowered and directed to fix the amounts of money which will be required to defray all the various expenses necessary for conducting the various departments and also to fix the amounts of money necessary for the payment of the interest and principal upon the indebtedness of said cities and the separate indebtedness of any portion or division thereof and for all other municipal purposes and said councils are hereby authorized empowered and directed annually to cause a tax sufficient for all of said purposes to be levied and collected out of the estate real and personal subject to taxation within said cities Provided however That taxes shall not be levied by any such city in any one year upon land at a rate to exceed twenty-eight (28) mills nor upon buildings at a rate to exceed fourteen (14) mills

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
It was agreed to.

On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I am not just sure what his bill does. It may increase the taxes on real estate. I would like the gentleman from Allegheny, the sponsor of the bill, to explain the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LAUGHNER. I shall Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman explain just what this bill does in regard to taxation on real state?

Mr. LAUGHNER. Mr. Speaker, in the first place the bill freezes the millage at the present level just in the city of Pittsburgh.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. ERB. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 975, Printer's No. 763, entitled:

"An act to amend clauses (c) and (g) of section three hundred one of the act, approved the twenty-first day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 566), entitled 'An act defining the liability of an employer to pay damages for occupational disease contracted by an employee arising out of and in the course of employment; establishing an elective schedule of compensation; providing procedure for the determination of liability and compensation thereunder; imposing duties on the Department of Labor and Industry, the Workmen's Compensation Board, Workmen's Compensation Referees, and deans of medical schools; creating a medical board to determine controverted medical issues; establishing an Occupational Disease Fund in custody of the State Workmen's Insurance Board; imposing upon the Commonwealth a part of the compensation payable for certain occupational diseases; making an appropriation; and prescribing penalties,' further regulating compensation for occupational disease and liability therefor," was defeated on final passage on June 3, 1947, be reconsidered.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Blair Mr. Erb vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. ERB. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Blair Mr. Miller vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I confess that I am somewhat surprised at this move. It would be a pity if this House were to recant and repent because of one of its entirely righteous acts.

I cannot imagine of anything that has occurred to change the considered judgment of this House except the very persistent, insistent, and I hope not compelling lobbying of Mason Owlett and his particular cohorts who fortunately infest the other chamber more than they infest here.

However, when there are measures that affect the concerns, business concerns of a distinguished gentleman, I find that there is a possibility that even this House will jump through the hoop, although I hope this House will defeat this motion to reconsider a bill which was debated at length, and which was defeated as the result of the measured judgment of the Members of this Assembly. I would ask for a roll call on the motion to reconsider.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Andrews and Mr. Petrosky and were as follows:

A verification of the roll was requested by Messrs. Andrews, Weiss and Lovett.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

of all syrups and all bottled soft drinks [prepared manufactured or bottled in this Commonwealth] and every person who [ships or transports] imports syrups or bottled soft drinks into this Commonwealth for use sale delivery storage or consumption in this Commonwealth shall pay to the Commonwealth the taxes imposed in this section before such products are transported within this Commonwealth. Such excise taxes shall be measured at the rate of one half cent ($\frac{1}{2}c$) per fluid ounce or fraction thereof [on] for syrups and one cent (1c) [on each] per twelve (12) fluid ounces or fraction thereof [on] for bottled soft drinks.

(b) Manufacturers bottlers and all persons who [bring] import syrups or bottled soft drinks into the Commonwealth shall be liable to the Commonwealth as taxpayers for the payment of the taxes imposed by this act.

Section 5 Payment of tax by affixing stamps other evidence of payment penalties (a) The payment of the taxes herein provided shall be evidence by the affixing of syrup or bottled soft drink tax stamps or crowns to the original containers or bottles in which all syrups or bottled soft drinks are placed received stored or handled. Such stamps or crowns shall be affixed to each individual container or bottle of syrup or bottled soft drink by the manufacturers or bottlers of this Commonwealth within twenty-four (24) hours after such syrups or bottled soft drinks are placed therein and by manufacturers bottlers and other persons who import [or bring] any syrup or bottled soft drinks into this Commonwealth before the same are transported within this Commonwealth for use sale delivery storage or consumption therein. Nothing herein contained shall require stamps or crowns to be attached to containers or bottles of syrup or bottled soft drinks which are transported through this Commonwealth and which are not sold delivered or stored therein if transported in accordance with such rules and regulations as may be adopted by the department.

The provisions of this section with reference to the stamping or crowning of syrup shall not apply (1) to syrup to be used by bottlers in the manufacture of bottled soft drinks or (2) to syrup in original containers to which stamps or crowns have been once affixed as required herein regardless of how often the syrup in such original containers may be sold or resold within this Commonwealth.

The provisions of this section with reference to the stamping or crowning of bottled soft drinks shall not apply to bottled soft drinks to which stamps or crowns have been once affixed as required herein regardless of how often the soft drinks in their original containers or bottles may be sold or resold within the Commonwealth.

(b) It is the intent and purpose of this section to require all manufacturers bottlers and other persons except as provided in clause (A) (a) to affix the stamps or crowns provided for in this act to all original containers or bottles in which syrups or soft drinks are normally placed prepared for market received sold or handled before such products are transported within the Commonwealth.

(c) If it is established to the satisfaction of the department that due to economic conditions or due to existing stocks of unstamped crowns in the possession of manufacturers or bottlers on the effective date of this act or due to unavailability of material it is impractical to use syrup or soft drink tax crowns or stamps the department is hereby authorized and required to provide by regulation some other means of evidence of payment of the tax imposed or assessed by this act.

(d) Except as provided in clause (c) any manufacturer bottler or person who shall prepare manufacture or use syrups or bottled soft drinks or shall sell syrups or bottled soft drinks to bottlers distributors dealers or consumers without affixing to the original containers or bottles the stamps or crowns required by this act and any person who shall purchase receive transport store or sell any syrup or bottled soft drink to which the stamps or crowns required by this act are not affixed shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced for the first offense to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00) or more than five hundred dollars ($500.00) or to suffer imprisonment for a term not exceeding six (6) months or both in the discretion of the court and in the case of a conviction of a second or subsequent offense hereunder shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than two hundred dollars ($200.00) or more than one thousand dollars ($1000.00) and to suffer imprisonment for a term of not less than six (6) months or more than three (3) years.

Section 6 Assessment on failure to pay tax procedure for assessment review (a) If any person shall fail to pay any tax imposed by this act for which he is liable the department is hereby authorized and empowered to make an assessment of additional tax due by such person based upon any information within its possession or that shall come into its possession.

(b) Promptly after the date of such assessment the department shall send by registered mail a copy thereof to the person against whom it was made. Within ninety (90) days after the date upon which the copy of any such assessment was mailed such person may file with the department a petition for reassessment of such taxes. Every petition for reassessment shall state specifically the reasons which the petitioner believes entitle him to such reassessment and it shall be supported by affidavit that it is not made for the purpose of delay and that the facts set forth therein are true. It shall be the duty of the department within six (6) months after the date of any assessment to dispose of any petition for reassessment. Notice of the action taken upon any petition for reassessment shall be given to the petitioner promptly after the date of reassessment by the department.

(c) Within sixty (60) days after the date of mailing of notice by the department of the action taken on any petition for reassessment filed with it the person against whom such assessment was made may by petition request the Board of Finance and Revenue to review such action. Every petition for review filed hereunder shall state specifically the reason upon which the petitioner relies or shall incorporate by reference the petition for reassessment in which such reasons shall have been stated. The petition shall be supported by affidavit that it is not made for the purpose of delay and that the facts therein set forth are true. If the petitioner be a corporation joint-stock association or limited partnership the affidavit must be made by one of the principal officers thereof. A petition for review may be amended by the petitioners at any time prior to hearing thereon as hereinafter provided. The Board of Finance and Revenue shall act finally in disposition of such petitions filed with it within six (6) months after they have been received and in the event of the failure of said board to dispose of any such petition within six months the action taken by the department upon the petition for reassessment shall be deemed sustained. The Board of Finance and Revenue may sustain the action taken on the petition for reassessment or it may reassess the tax due upon such basis as it shall deem according to law and equity. Notice of the action of the Board of Finance and Revenue shall be given by mail or otherwise to the department and to the petitioner.

(d) Any person or the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania aggrieved by the decision of the Board of Finance and Revenue or by the Board's failure to act upon his petition for review within six (6) months may within sixty (60) days appeal to the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County from the decision of the Board of Finance and Revenue or from the decision of the department as the case may be in the manner now or hereafter provided by law for appeals in the case of tax settlement.

(e) In all cases of petitions for reassessment review or appeal the burden of proof shall be upon the petitioner or appellant as the case may be.

(f) Whenever any assessment of additional tax is not paid within ninety (90) days after the date thereof if no petition for reassessment has been filed or within sixty (60) days from the date of reassessment if no petition for review has been filed or within sixty (60) days from the date of the decision of the Board of Finance and Revenue upon a petition for review or the expiration of the Board's time for acting upon such petition if no appeal has been made and in all cases of judicial sales receiverships assignments or bankruptcies the department may call upon the Department of Justice to collect such assessment in any event in a proceeding for the collection of such taxes the person against whom they were assessed shall not be permitted to set up any ground of defense that might have been determined by the department the Board of Finance and Revenue or the courts as aforesaid The department may also provide adopt promulgate and enforce such rules and regulations as may be appropriate to prevent further shipment or transportation of syrup or bottled soft drinks into this Commonwealth by any person against whom such unpaid assessment shall have been made

The department shall prescribe prepare and furnish stamps or crowns of such denominations and quantities as may be necessary for the payment of the tax imposed and assessed by this act The department shall make provision for the sale of such stamps or crowns in such places and at such times as it may deem necessary

The department may appoint persons within or without the Commonwealth as agents for the sale of stamps or crowns to be used in paying the tax herein imposed upon syrup or bottled soft drinks and whenever the department shall sell consign or deliver to any such agent any such stamps or crowns for sale or use such agent shall be entitled to receive as compensation for his services and expenses as such agent and to retain out of the moneys to be paid by him for such stamps a commission of one-half of one per centum on the fact value thereof The department is hereby authorized and required to allow such commission or compensation in the settlement of the accounts of such agent upon payment by him into the State Treasury through the department of any moneys which may be or become due to the Commonwealth by reason of the sale delivery or consignment to such agent of such stamps or crowns

The department is hereby authorized and required to allow to each purchaser of tax stamps or tax crowns a discount of eight (8) percentum of the purchase price of the tax value of stamps or crowns purchased upon the payment by him into the State Treasury through the department of any moneys due to the Commonwealth by reason of the sale delivery or consignment to such purchaser of such stamps or crowns

The said discount shall be allowed by the department in lieu of any claim for refund by reason of (1) the breakage or destruction of containers stamped or crowned as provided in this act in possession of the purchaser or (2) the loss or destruction of tax stamps or tax crowns

The department is hereby authorized and required in proper cases and upon application to advance to manufacturers and bottlers of syrup or bottled soft drinks tax crowns or tax stamps for a period not exceeding thirty (30) days in such amount or of such tax value as shall be determined by the department upon consideration and determination of the following (1) the applicant's satisfactory credit rating (2) the applicant's average monthly rate of use of stamps or crowns and (3) the applicant's average monthly credit extension on accounts receivable for syrups or bottled soft drinks sold The department shall further require the applicant to file a bond in the form prescribed by the department in twice the amount of the tax value of the stamps or crowns to be advanced

Section 8 Manner of affixing stamps

Section 18 Effective date

This act shall become effective on the first day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-seven and shall continue in effect until and including the thirty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-nine

Section 2 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, the cat came back. Banquo's ghost still haunts. We have a bill imposed originally by the power and might of the majority of this House. The leadership must have developed a sadistic strain. They noticed how we gagged at this "pop" bill. They noticed how we wiggled when they made us swallow. So they decided they would make us wiggle more, they would make us swallow it again, and so here is this bill. It was not subjected to amendments when it was here—it was a perfect bill. Its legality was beyond all question; it was approved by all the constitutional lawyers besides the Attorney General's office, and we had to drink the pop, you had to drink the pop. Evidently you liked the pop so well you decided you would make us drink it again.

Now, Mr. Speaker, yesterday on the floor of this House the Majority Leader asked where and how it would be possible to increase the revenues of this Commonwealth. The financing of school costs have been thrown back in the laps of the local school districts, and the Majority Leader expressed the somewhat naive view that there wasn't anything left anywhere to tax or any place to get money except from pop, sales taxes or wage taxes.

I submit to you that in your Republican state platform you made the statement that the Martin administration had saved this State taxes to the amount of $322,900,000, that that was the savings that you had handed back to the taxpayers of the Commonwealth. Now, we suggest if you handed back $322,900,000 to the taxpayers and the business interests of this Commonwealth during the Martin administration, that you go out and try to get some of that money back.

In his message to this House the Governor of this Commonwealth rather bitterly lamented the fact that during the preceding biennium the administration had eliminated taxes totaling $97,847,000. It should be possible to recover some of that money that we handed back. The major taxes of the Commonwealth now and in the past have included the Capital Stock Tax, Franchise Tax, Corporation Bonus Tax, Foreign Corporation Bonus Tax, Corporate Loans Tax, Corporate Net Income Tax, Gross Insurance Premium Tax, tax on shares of National and State Banks, tax on Title Insurance or Trust Companies, Tax on Savings Institutions Without Capital Stock, Tax on Private Bankers Gross Receipts, Utility Tax, Transfer Inheritance Tax, Estate Tax, and Stock Transfer Tax.

Now, if they want 60 million dollars and you spread 60 million dollars lightly over that impressive front I submit that you will get your 60 million dollars, and you will not burden business overmuch.

When I speak of utility taxes—and it occurs to you and to me that according to all standards, based upon their investments, that the utilities of this State are collecting from the public at a minimum 150 million dollars that they should not have on the basis of their legitimate investment—you can turn to the utilities for money.

I noticed recently in the papers that the Penelec, Pennsylvania Electric Company had given a 15 per cent increase in wages, and they did not have to go to the Public Utility Commission to get an increase in rates. However, before they granted the 15 per cent increase they were not in a position, according to all of their apologists, to accept an increase in taxation. If they had looked to that one source, the over-charges made by the utilities of this State, and had selected that money for the use of the Commonwealth, we would not have had to swallow this obnoxious and bungling pop tax, which I have my doubts has as yet been patched up into a form where it is constitutional or even sensible from the point of view of administration.

Now, you swallowed the pop tax with gagging. We swallowed it and we gagged, and we still gag and we say that this particular tax is unnecessary; that there are other ways of financing the needs of the Commonwealth, other ways of getting this money, and that you elected to choose the most cumbersome and unscientific method that your confusion could devise.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman misinterprets some of the remarks and questions that I put yesterday. If the gentleman will recall he will remember that I put the question, not as to what can be raised, but what taxes would the gentleman whom I was interrogating vote for. I don't care whether the gentleman voted for 1345 or not. I only want to tell him that this House Bill 1345 takes off the tax, or some of it, that House Bill 664 put on before. I am not too much disturbed about the constitutionality of the particular provisions of this bill, but it does occur to me that House Bill 1345 removes from taxation certain syrups that could have been interpreted as being included in the previous tax measure that we passed.

Mr. Speaker, House Bill 1345 removes the tax on syrups that may be used for the making of sundaes, which never was originally intended, and it could possibly have been interpreted as included in the previous act.

With reference to the general budgetary problem, I would like to remind the gentleman also that some of the taxes that were removed originally have been placed back. Those only were removed that were impractical from a collection standpoint because they would not net the Commonwealth sufficient funds to justify the expense of the particular measure, and I ask the Members to vote in favor of House Bill 1345.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I hope, as the session grows shorter, that the temper of the Majority Leader remains at its usual lengthy spasm. It was unkind of him to remind us of the extent to which we are impotent in staying the course of events, and it was really unkind of him when he said, "I don't care whether you vote for this bill or not." If he were a Christian character and he believed in his gospel, he would at least hope for my conversion.

The SPEAKER. The Chair might remind both gentlemen that he hopes the tempers that might have been incurred yesterday, and the tempers today might be softened and soothed.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

McCormack,	Trout,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House of Representatives has passed the same without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 72, as follows:

An Act to further amend section three hundred twenty of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 1278) entitled "An act relating to counties of the second third fourth fifth sixth seventh and eighth classes and revising amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto" by providing for the payment of retirement allowances to widows of deceased county employes and for crediting employes with time heretofore or hereafter spent in military service in time of war or national emergency in counties of the second class

Section 1 Section three hundred twenty of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 1278) entitled "An act relating to counties of the second third fourth fifth sixth seventh and eighth classes and revising amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto" as last amended by the act approved the fifteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 365) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 320 Persons Entitled to Retirement Allowances Every county employe who has reached the age of sixty years or upwards and who shall have been a county employe during a period of not less than twenty years shall upon application to the board be retired from service and shall thereafter receive during life a retirement allowance as herein provided for The time spent in the employ as a county employe need not necessarily have been continuous Provided That when any employe has had twenty or more years of service not necessarily continuous and has reached the age of fifty years and shall be or shall have been separated from the service by reason of no cause or act of his own upon application to the board shall thereafter receive during life a retirement allowance as herein provided for

Whenever any retired county employe receiving a retirement allowance as herein provided shall die leaving a widow to survive him there shall be paid to such widow by the Retirement Board for and during the period of her widowhood an allowance equal to one-half of the amount being paid to such retired county employe at the time of his death

Whenever any county employe has heretofore enlisted in or been inducted into or shall hereafter enlist in or be inducted into the military service of the United States in time of war or national emergency so proclaimed by the president of the United States after having been employed by the county for a period of six months or more he shall have credited to his employment record for retirement benefits all of the time spent by him in such military service during the continuance of such war or national emergency and such payments as are required to be made by such county employe into the county employes' retirement fund shall be paid into such fund by the county

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection
Senate Bill No. 80, Printer's No. 273
was passed over at the request of the SPEAKER.

Agreeably to order,
The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 102, as follows:

An Act providing for the adjustment and settlement by the Department of Public Assistance of certain legal and moral claims against the Commonwealth arising out of contracts with the former State Emergency Relief Board for the slaughter of drought cattle and making an appropriation

Whereas The State Emergency Relief Board entered into contracts with the owners of certain abbatoirs to slaughter drought cattle which contracts required certain owners to expend large sums of money in making improvements to comply with Federal inspections before slaughtering could be commenced and

Whereas In some cases by the time these improvements were completed the shipment of cattle had ceased and the owners making these improvements lost large sums of moneys therefore

Section 1 The Department of Public Assistance having taken over the powers and duties of the State Emergency Relief Board and the liquidatioi of the said board under the act approved the twenty-fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 2051) entitled "An act relating to public assistance providing for and regulating assistance to certain classes of persons designated and defined as dependent children aged persons blind persons and other persons requiring relief providing for the administration of this act by the Department of Public Assistance and county boards of assistance hereby created for this purpose authorizing the Department of Public Assistance to cooperate with and to accept and disburse moneys received from the United States Government for assistance to such persons providing for the liquidation of the State Emergency Relief Boards of Trustees of the Mothers' Assistance Fund and Boards of Trustees of Pension Fund for the Blind and repealing laws relating to mothers' assistance pensions for the blind old age assistance and the State Emergency Relief Board" is hereby empowered to adjust and settle any and all legal or moral claims which the owners of abbatoirs may have against the Commonwealth by reason of contracts entred into with the State Emergency Relief Board for the slaughtering of cattle necessitating extensive improvements which represent a loss to the owner because of the cessation of the shipment of cattle for slaughter of said abbatoirs The Department of Public Assistance shall in the settlement and adjustment of said claims determine the cost of the improvements made in the case of each such abbatoir and the actual value thereof to the owner in the ordinary course of his business and shall equitably adjust and settle such claims for such sums as in the opinion of the board represents the costs of the improvements made by an owner which are of no substantial benefit to the owner in the ordinary course of his business and the cost of which was not recovered from profits made on the slaughter of cattle under the terms of such contracts

Section 2 The sum of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated to the Department of Public Assistance for the payment of claims allowed against the Commonwealth by the Department of Public Assistance under the provisions of this act Payment from said appropriation shall be made on requisition of the Secretary of the Department of Public Assistance in the manner provided by law

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House of Representatives has passed the same without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 315, as follows:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Forests and Waters for the acquisition by purchase or condemnation of forest land and the development and use thereof for reforestation for the work of the department with respect to forests and forest land and for the acquisition by purchase condemnation or gift of lands buildings or other properties for State parks and for the development thereof for the operation maintenance development and improvement of existing parks for recreation facilities for any flood control purposes including purchase and maintenance of flood forecasting equipment and services and the payment of the employees and expenses of the flood control commission and for stream channel improvement for construction of dams to create lakes and other stream clearance of any type for flood control and for encouragement of proper forest practices by private land owners

Section 1 The sum of ten million dollars ($10,000,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated to the Department of Forests and Waters for the acquisition by purchase or condemnation of forest land and for the development and use thereof for reforestation tation forest protection silvicultural operations forest recreation and other forest work for acquisition by purchase condemnation or gift of lands buildings or other properties for State parks and for the development thereof for the operation maintenance development and improvement of existing parks for recreation facilities for any flood control purposes including purchase and maintenance of flood forecasting equipment and services and the payment of the employes and expenses of the flood control commission for stream channel improvement for construction of dams to create lakes and other stream clearance of any type for flood control for the encouragement by demonstration or otherwise of proper forest practices by private land owners

Section 2 The amount of this appropriation to be expended for any of the purposes enumerated in section one shall be determined by the Secretary of Forests and Waters with the approval of the Governor.

Section 3 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to express a point of view concerning a series of appropriation bills. Senate Bill 315 is a bill for 10 million dollars to the Department of Forests and Waters. There are no specifications as to how the money is to be spent, a complete abdication of legislative functioning in connection with this measure.

Later on we will be asked to vote for Senate Bill 455 for 16 million dollars to the Department of Property and Supplies, which is to be used for existing or new state-owned institutions, but where or when or how, this House has not been informed.

There is Senate Bill 472, and that is nine million two hundred thirty-five thousand dollars to the Department of Health, with some degree of allocation in this bill, but no definite commitments as to time, place or costs.

There is Senate Bill 685. There is another blank check for nine million two hundred and ninety thousand dollars for work to be done at various state institutions. No specifications as to where or when, a complete abdication of legislative function in all of these measures.

We simply write blank checks totalling millions and hand them over to the Departments without any instructions or without any proper authority as far as our legislative function is concerned.

Then we come to Senate Bill 717, and there we have a proper bill. It appropriates five million four hundred twenty-six thousand nine hundred ninety dollars, to be expended in rehabilitating our State Teachers' colleges, and the measure sets forth specifically where the money is to be spent, and how it is to be spent. In this bill, of all the series of appropriation bills, the Legislature outlines its will and commits a program into the keeping of the Department that is going to spend the millions which they vote so lavishly and hand over without any restrictions as to time, place or method of spending.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I would like to direct the gentleman's attention to the fact that every appropriation to a specific Department is made to that Department to be used and spent efficiently and in the best manner within the proper functions of that particular Department. I submit, Mr. Speaker, there is at least some measure of restriction as to what this money shall be applied for, and that in itself takes it out of the category of so-called blank checks.

I should also like to direct the gentleman's attention to the fact that these particular appropriation measures are the result of requests made by the various Departments, presented in due form to the proper Committees of this House and the proper Committees on the part of the Senate in order to arrive at the proper amount as to what might be necessary to accomplish the purposes so vitally needed, as we all realize.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I merely wish to say that the material supplied to the Appropriations Committee, and the facts furnished for the Appropriations Committee are submitted in such a manner and in such a way that with the limited facilities at the disposal of the Appropriations Committee, it was impossible to check the departmental requests, and that many of these amounts are arrived at by rule of thumb, and that even though this Committee had the information as to how the money was to be spent, it is a pity that the Committee could not have taken this House into their confidence.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I have a lot of sympathy for the position taken by the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, in his desire to have breakdowns of the amounts to be expended and the manner in which the Departments or the objectives the departments hope to achieve, broken down into smaller items out of the larger lump sums that we have been able to appropriate in the last few bienniums, but it doesn't seem to me to be entirely fair on our part to criticize these appropriations.

In the first place we have an almost impossible situation in Pennsylvania. A Governor is elected in November and comes into office in the middle of January. We expect him inside of one month to have his budget ready for submission to the Legislature. At the outside we expect it in six weeks. The budget has generally been prepared in the prior administrations through budget requests of the Departments, starting in the summer before the session of the Legislature, and naturally subject to revision after the Governor comes in. It has seemed to me that what we should do in the first place is to change the Constitution and the law in Pennsylvania and provide that in the year in which a new Governor is inaugurated the Legislature should meet about the first of March and not on the first day of January.

We should give an incoming Governor and his Departments, his Cabinet with its natural changes many times and in many instances, an opportunity to get settled and to know something about the requirements of the Department before a budget is submitted and before we begin hearings in the Appropriations Committee.

In the second place, Mr. Speaker, we in the Legislature are also a great deal to blame. We have no facilities, or very slight facilities in the Appropriations Committee through which we may determine the demands and the requirements of the Departments in our own behalf. We have to take, as a matter of practical experience or practical practice—we have to take the requirements or the budgets submitted to us by the different Departments, without any knowledge on our part as to the particular details as to whether the budget figures are correct, as to whether they are greater amounts than the Departments require, and all that we can do in the Appropriations Committee is sit there and fish around and ask a few questions of the Department in an effort to determine whether the appropriation that is requested is a proper one.

That to me, Mr. Speaker, is neither an intelligent nor a proper legislative way to approach it. In the coming biennium, Mr. Speaker, we hope that we can rectify this to some extent.

Mr. Speaker, if I were approaching the problem on my own behalf I would raise no question, but I think this matter is of vital importance to the Members of the House, and I think that conversation on the sidelines should cease during the time of debate.

The SPEAKER. The Chair directs the visitors on the sidelines to refrain from conversation. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, we have in the appropriation bills before the House now or in the general appropriation bills that just passed the House, an increase in the contingent fund for the Appropriation Committee of the House, and the Finance Committee of the Senate—or the Appropriation Committee of the Senate, from the fourteen thousand dollars which they seek to twenty-five thousand apiece or a total of fifty thousand dollars. That was the result of the experiences of the gentleman from Cambria and the Chairman of the Appropriation Committee and others of us in past bienniums and during this session. The Chairman of the Appropriation Committee and myself interviewed the Governor and discussed this matter with him, and we found him readily sympathetic. We will, therefore, have when you come into session in 1949, and we will have had during this coming biennium, a total of fifty thousand dollars at the command of the Appropriations Committee.

We have a most excellent man who is working for the Appropriations Committee, Mr. Russell Stoner. I have been a member of the Appropriations Committee for many years and worked on fiscal problems, and I do not think that we have ever had associated with that Committee or in any of the groups with which I have worked in the past a more conscientious and more able and better man than Mr. Stoner. He has travelled many hundreds of miles over the State of Pennsylvania visiting our institutions, and I think he is tremendously well informed on the conditions that exist and the needs of our institutions, but one single man can not do this job. A couple of stenographers cannot with one man or a team of men do this job; we must have a continuing organization, not only during the session but between sessions to gather information and interview the Departments to find out about their needs, so that when the Legislature comes into session we will have factual information with which and from which we may expect to check the figures submitted to the Appropriations Committee.

Therefore, I say, Mr. Speaker, while I have some sympathy with the position of the gentleman from Cambria, I feel that it is unfair for us at this point and at this time to criticize a new administration that has had so short a time to formulate its budget and its program and to make all the necessary details. And in the second place, Mr. Speaker, a lot of the blame lies on our own doorstep.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

An Act authorizing the laying out and taking over by the Secretary of Highways with the approval of the Governor of new State highway routes in certain cases providing for their laying out opening construction reconstruction and maintenance at the expense of the Commonwealth and making an appropriation

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Whenever in the opinion of the Secretary of Highways the laying out opening and construction of the highways hereinafter described will facilitate the movement of vehicular traffic or relieve traffic congestion on the State Highway System the Secretary of Highway with the approval of the Governor shall have authority to lay out and take over as State highway routes such highways in accordance with the following descriptions

(1) Beginning at a point on Route 507 north of Shiremanstown thence in a general easterly direction in Cumberland County to the Dauphin County line in or near Lemoyne thence easterly in Dauphin County to an intersection with Route 139 Spur

(2) Beginning at a point on Route 1 near Rockville thence in a general southeasterly direction in Dauphin County crossing Route 140 and 139 east of Harrisburg to a point on Route 129 southeast of Middletown

(3) Beginning in the City of Easton at the approach to the toll bridge leading to Philipsburg New Jersey thence westerly in Northampton County to a point near Brodhead thence southwesterly in Northampton and Lehigh Counties to a point on Route 443 and by spur from a point near Brodhead northwesterly in Northampton County to a point on Route 471 west of Bath

Section 2 The laying out of a new State highway route under the provisions of this act shall be by a plan prepared by the Department of Highways approved by the Governor and filed in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of the proper county at the expense of the county or counties wherein such highway is located and thereafter such highway shall be a part of the system of State Highways to be constructed and maintained by the Department of Highways at the expense of the Commonwealth

Highways laid out under the provisions of this act may traverse existing streets and roads including existing State highway routes

Section 3 The opening construction reconstruction and maintenance of highways laid out under the provisions of this act shall be done by the Department of Highways in accordance with the provisions of present or future laws governing the relocation widening construction reconstruction and maintenance of State highways and the opening construction or reconstruction may be done in sections and shall include the necessary structures and appurtenances

Section 4 Where any new highway laid out under the provisions of this act approximates the location of an existing State highway route the existing State highway route may be replaced or relocated to the new highway

Section 5 So much of the money in the Motor License Fund as may be necessary from time to time to carry out the provisions of this act is hereby specifically appropriated to the Department of Highways

Section 6 This act shall be effective immediately upon its final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask anyone who would know whether House Bill 470 is highway bill or whether it is a 20 million dollar bridge bill.

Mr. SORG. In my opinion Senate Bill 470 is a highway bill intended to take care of certain congested areas in that State. While under the provisions of the bill it is possible that there may be a bridge in the vicinity of Harrisburg constructed in order to relieve such congestion of the traffic that comes through the city, it has been indicated to me that approximately 40 per cent of the traffic that would use the new route suggested is through traffic.

Mr. ANDREWS. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, I have never attended, at least during this session, a meeting of the Highway Committee. I understand that at a meeting of that Committee a representative of the Highway Department pointed out how under this bill it was possible to build a highway, a link on one side of the river, and bring the two ends of those roads within one mile of each other, and that then it would be possible under the vast powers vested in the Highway Department, to proceed to connect the two ends of these two roads, and that while this bill is an innocent bill on its face, calculated to deceive a simple person like myself, I wouldn't even suspect that there was a 20 or 26 million dollar bridge prospect in view if I didn't understand that at was stated that that was the purpose of the Highway Department and the plans of the Highway Department, and that while there might be some difficulty in getting a bill through the General Assembly directly for a bridge, indirectly the same result could be accomplished.

Now, I am not debating the question as to whether or not there should be an additional bridge across the Susquehanna at some particular place. I am raising the question of whether that bridge should appear before this House under the form in which we find Senate Bill 470. I say that if Harrisburg and Dauphin County and the powers that be feel that a 20 million dollar road project combining a bridge across the Susquehanna is what this Commonwealth needs, the thing to do is to bring the issues squarely before us, before the people of this Commonwealth and squarely before us, the Members of this House. I haven't a bit of doubt that there are other Members of this Assembly that feel the need for bridges, and I would call the attention of the Members of this House that at the present time your Highway Department is practically bankrupt, that out of the vast sums of money available for the use of the Highway Department less than 96 million dollars per biennium are available for new construction; the rest of it goes for maintenance. Whether we have reached the limit without remodeling our structure with which we support the Department of Highways, whether we are in a position to draw upon these slender funds to the extent of 20 million dollars I have my doubt. So, Mr. Speaker, as much as I would like to go along with this, I find that the Susquehanna is spanned by sufficient bridges, and I find myself unable to support Senate Bill No. 470.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I only want to add one thought, that in connection with Senate Bill 470, I did undertake to take the matter up with the Department of Highways and find that Senate Bill 470 is the result of extensive study and discussion of the traffic problem in certain areas by the Department of Highways, and that this bill was prepared at their request as a result of the conclusions they reached by reason of the study made. In my own mind I am convinced that it is not the basic purpose of this bill to provide a bridge to span the Susquehanna, because while it does cover a particular area, and within its provisions it permits construction of a bridge across the Susquehanna in the vicinity of Harrisburg, it also provides for the establishment of new routes in other parts of the State where the Highway Department in its study found a vital necessity.

I would also like to suggest to the gentleman that in my inquiry of the Department of Highways I find that even should such a bridge be constructed it would be a small part of the over-all and would be less than twenty-five per cent of the 20 million dollar figure that the gentleman suggests.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Elk reinforces my point of view. When the gentleman from Elk says that under the terms of this bill it would be possible to construct a bridge across the Susquehanna he underwrites my whole contention, because I submit to you that the construction of a bridge across the Susquehanna is a major project and that if it is possible under the bill there must have been an object in making it possible under the bill. Who wants to put a possibility in a bill if you are never going to realize the possibility? And if you are going to have in mind to build a bridge why not be honest with this House and put it in the bill?

Mr. McMILLEN. Mr. Speaker, I think it is time to stop now and review some past history. In my time around here I have seen this thing going on quite frequently near the close of the session where bills are brought in before us to vote upon that involve tremendous sums of money, stated or otherwise. I have also seen in that time thousands upon thousands of rural residents of this State coming here appealing for a small pittance to be placed in a road-building program that would get them out of the mud, and make it possible for them to merely get off the farm in the winter time and get into town.

It is only a matter of a few weeks ago, or rather a few days ago, that it was seen fit to so specify to the people of Pennsylvania, rural Pennsylvania, that out of the approximately 35 to 40 million dollars of the one cent gas tax, that we feel and we know that 10 million dollars is enough for one division and ten for another. Neither was very specifically outlined; there wasn't any doubt or question in their minds. They said, "This is all you need, this is all you are going to get," and that is all we got and all we are going to get.

I am not arguing either whether we should have a bridge in Harrisburg; that is not my argument at all. I come here with the argument that in this particular bill there is no limitation whatsoever. It is a blank check; nothing is specific. It says that "As much of the money in the highway fund as may be necessary." That could mean every nickel of the highway fund. While I don't think the Highway Department would do that, I do say that it places in the hands, and I am fully aware of what I say when I say this, that it does place within the hands of very powerful forces the ability to force the issue. The legislation is on the books, what are you going to do about it? We have seen many, many millions of dollars in the highway fund allocated to these super-construction jobs. I don't doubt at all that there is a need and a necessity to relieve some bottlenecks in traffic, but I question the honesty on the part of the state government to short change the rural people of Pennsylvania.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I want to assure this House that I do not think there is anything dishonest in this particular measure. We have had a study by the Highway Department that discloses that there is a need for such a bridge. I suggest it is not too far different from the roads in other particular areas in the state where a contract is let, and a bridge can be included over every stream that is encountered in the construction of a road.

I want to say further, Mr. Speaker, that this talk about blank check, the point that has been made so often, seems to completely exclude the idea that we have three branches of government; that we here in this Legislature can not only raise that fund but also encumber ourselves with the necessity to appoint committees to spend it. We must somehow or other have some coordination, or some cooperation with the administrative agencies of our particular state government as well. The bill in allocating, or in permitting the allocation of funds from the liquid fuel tax fund for construction of roads is no different than any other. If any of the roads or routes on the statute books in any part of the state find themselves in a situation where congested traffic would indicate to the Highway Department the plausibility of construction, we need no specific legislation so long as it is a state highway route on the statute books, as it is proposed this might be, and they go ahead and let a contract and build the road. We have here no unique set of circumstances only for the one exception, that it does require legislation to take over some of the other public streets that will be involved in the bypass contemplated by this act.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I would like if the sponsor of this bill would tell me whether or not this is a re-copy of a bill that we had during the last session and which was defeated.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would have to send the gentleman over to the Senate. The chair is quite certain that the gentleman would not like to do that.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, is there anyone in the House who can give me that information?

The SPEAKER. Perhaps the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Brunner, can do so.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I do not recall that this particular bill was ever before the House in my experience.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman recall that during the last session of the Legislature we had a bill somewhat similar to this?

Mr. SORG. I do not, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the Majority Floor Leader to explain what this bill does.

BILL PASSED OVER

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 558, as follows:

An Act to amend the act approved the first day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-five (Appropriation Acts page fifty-six) entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Department of Property and Supplies for the purchase or condemnation of land for the preparation of a comprehensive plan for the Capitol Park Extension for the construction of new buildings including a memorial building to honor the memory of William Penn and other necessary buildings for the State archives libraries and museum for the repair demolition and improvement of existing buildings in Capitol Park and Capitol Park Extension for the razing of buildings and relocation of water sewerage utility lines and other facilities or payment to the City of Harrisburg for such relocation and for grading paving and otherwise developing Capitol Park and the Capitol Park Extension" by reducing the amount appropriated by said act

Section 1 That section one of the act approved the first day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-five (Appropriation Acts page fifty-six) entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Department of Property and Supplies for the purchase or condemnation of land for the preparation of a comprehensive plan for the Capitol Park Extension for the construction of new buildings including a memorial building to honor the memory of William Penn and other necessary buildings for the State archives libraries and museum for the repair demolition and improvement of existing buildings in Capitol Park and Capitol Park Extension for the razing of buildings and relocation of water sewerage utility lines and other facilities or payment to the City of Harrisburg for such relocation and for grading paving and otherwise developing Capitol Park and the Capitol Park Extension" be hereby amended to read as follows

Section 1 That the sum of [six million five hundred thousand dollars ($6,500,000)] three hundred sixty thousand dollars ($360,000) is hereby appropriated to the Department of Property and Supplies for the acquisition of land by purchase or condemnation for the preparation of a comprehensive plan for the Capitol Park Extension for the construction of new buildings including a memorial to honor the memory of William Penn and other necessary buildings for the State archives libraries and museum for the repair demolition and improvement of existing buildings in Capitol Park and Capitol Park Extension for the razing of buildings the relocation of water sewerage utility lines and other facilities or payment to the City of Harrisburg for such relocation and for grading paving and otherwise developing Capitol Park and the Capitol Park Extension

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
It was agreed to.
On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I merely desired to call the attention of the House to the fact that at the last session the minority lead the fight to stop this particular appropriation, and I am now glad to see that the majority, belatedly, agrees that we were right in 1945, and has redrafted the fighting front so far as improvements to Capitol Extension Park are concerned.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

The authority may make rules and regulations for the submission of bids and the construction or improvement of any project or portion thereof. No contract shall be entered into for construction or improvement of any project or portion thereof or for the purchase of materials unless the contractor shall give an undertaking with a sufficient surety or sureties approved by the Authority and in an amount fixed by the Authority for the faithful performance of the contract. All construction contracts shall provide among other things that the person or corporation into such contract with the Authority will pay for all materials furnished and services rendered for the performance of the contract and that any person or corporation furnishing such materials or rendering such services may maintain an action to recover for the same against the obligor in the undertaking as though such person or corporation was named therein provided the action is brought within one year after the time the cause of action accrued. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the power of the Authority to construct any project or portion thereof or any addition betterment or extension thereto directly by the officers agents and employes of the Authority or otherwise than by contract

Subject to the aforesaid the Authority may (but without intending by this provision to limit any powers of such Authority) enter into and carry out such contracts or establish or comply with such rules and regulations concerning labor and materials and other related matters in connection with any project or portion thereof as the Authority may deem desirable or as may be requested by any Federal agency that may assist in the financing of such project or any part thereof

Section 12 Use of Projects The use of the facilities of the Authority and the operation of its business shall be subject to the rules and regulations from time to time adopted by the Authority Provided however That the Authority shall not be authorized to do anything which will impair the security of the holders of the obligation of the Authority or violate any agreements with them or for their benefit

Section 13 Limitation of Powers The Commonwealth does hereby pledge to and agree with any person firm or corporation or Federal agency subscribing to or acquiring the bonds to be issued by the Authority for the construction extension improvement or enlargement of any project or part thereof that the Commonwealth will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the Authority until all bonds at any time issued together with the interest thereon are fully met and discharged The Commonwealth does further pledge to and agree with the United States and any other Federal agency that in the event that any Federal agency shall construct or contribute any funds for the construction extension improvement or enlargement of any project or any portion thereof the Commonwealth will not alter or limit the rights and powers of the Authority in any manner which would be inconsistent with the continued maintenance and operation of the project or the improvement thereof or which would be inconsistent with the due performance of any agreements between the Authority and any such Federal agency and the Authority shall continue to have and may exercise all powers herein granted so long as the same shall be necessary or desirable for the carrying out of the purposes of this act and the purposes of the United States in the construction or improvement or enlargement of any project or such portion thereof

Section 14 Exemption from Taxation The effectuation of the authorized purposes of the Authority created under this act shall and will be in all respects for the benefit of the people of the Commonwealth for the increase of their welfare and prosperity and for the improvement of their education and educational facilities and since the Authority will be performing essential governmental functions in effectuating such purposes the bonds issued by the Authority their transfer and the income therefrom (including any profits made on the sale thereof) shall at all times be free from taxation other than inheritance and estate taxation within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

Section 15 The sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated to the authority for the payment of costs and expenses incurred in commencing the work of the Authority

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I welcome the appearance of this bill upon the calendar. It is a concession made to the authority principle. It establishes an authority. I doubt if it would have been necessary to introduce a bill if they had not scrapped the authority that they did have. It is a move in the right direction, and if you had not scrapped the authority that you did have you would not have had to pass all these tax bills that you swallowed at this session, and you would not have had to crawl in behind the authority method of financing by the back door. I am very pleased to see that at least there has been a confession of error and that the House in part endorses the authority principle of financing building operations in this Commonwealth.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken as follows:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, in supporting this bill I am not expressing a party position but simply a personal vote. I agree with the principle that each industry should either police itself or be policed, and that the oleo industry is an industry that like others needs to be policed, and therefore a small license fee for dealers in oleo provided under certain provisions in this bill is in line with what I believe is a proper practice. I also know that various members of the Democratic Caucus disagree with this view and I want them to understand that they are in no way obligated or bound by any personal vote that I might cast.

Mr. YESTER. Mr. Speaker; oleo has been a problem for some time. To me I don't realize why you want to tax oleo and don't tax lard, you don't tax cheese, you don't tax anything else. I don't see where it needs any policing and personally I am opposed to it.

Mr. REAGAN. Mr. Speaker, the question is here whether we are going to pass this bill that is before us, or go back to the old bill which is still on the books. The only part that was eliminated by the court action was the fee for manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers. If we do not pass this bill we go back to all these restrictions of the old bill. Among them would be fifty dollars on a restaurant, on a hotel, and ten dollars on a boarding house.

If we have to go back to that old bill we will receive no income for policing. The Agricultural Department claims that they can police oleo for a two dollar fee, and certainly oleo needs policing, because if you will read an article by the Federal Government you will find that it has caused a great deal of racketeering. The FBI has put out a pamphlet showing what the racketeers, particularly in our big cities, have been doing with oleo. They mix it up in bath tubs, washing machines and other receptacles of an unsanitary character. Oleo should be policed in the interest of everybody. It should not be allowed to be sold without the people knowing that they are buying oleo. Certainly you have a right to know whether you are buying butter or whether you are buying oleo, and I think we would make an awful mistake did we not pass this bill and have to go back to the old bill which would remain in force.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I had not intended to get into this debate. I suspect that perhaps I am going to get in bad again with my distinguished friend, the Minority Floor Leader. How he can arrive at the decision and the conclusion that everything that is sold needs to be taxed or policed is far beyond any conception of government that I understand. I think it is the height of absurdity for anyone to say that oleomargarine needs policing. If oleomargarine needs policing then everything that is sold needs policing. I think that is just a smoke screen and certainly we ought not to be fooled with that kind of an argument. There is no justification for this bill and this House should defeat Senate Bill 644.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

On the question

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker I would like to ask what certain expenditures are validated under this act, where the expenditures were made and what is their amounts?

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, the expenditures validated by this bill are those which were made from a special fund established in the districts by reason of a return of gasoline tax from the Commonwealth to those districts.

The expenditures from the special fund are limited to specific purposes under the law under which the money is returned to the specific counties. Up until the session of 1945 the law covering the permissible expenditures out of these allocations was far from clear.

In 1945 this Legislature established certain definite rules and regulations effective as of the calendar year of 1946. Prior to that time, however, some counties did use funds from the liquid fuel tax allocated back to them for purposes definitely not authorized, such as the construction of bridges, for instance. I have in mind one county that constructed a bridge costing in the neighborhood of 16 thousand dollars, and another one of 15 thousand dollars. Another county used money from this special fund for the payment of bonds representing an indebtedness which was incurred by reason of the construction of a bridge in the amount of three hundred seventy-six thousand dollars, so that until the Act of 1945 became effective there was a difference of opinion as to whether or not this was a proper application of funds. The present law proposes to validate the expenditures made by county officials for those purposes.

Mr. ANDREWS. A further question, Mr. Speaker, were any expenditures in any county made for general fund purposes other than roads or bridges?

Mr. SORG. To my knowledge there have not been such expenditures, Mr. Speaker. I would also like to indicate to the gentleman that I inquired of the Auditor General's department which audited these particular accounts, as to whether that was true, and I haven't had a report to date.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

L. 21) entitled as amended "An act to facilitate the labors of the judges of the court of common pleas and orphans' court of the county in which the seat of government is or may be located in the disposition of the business of the Commonwealth by providing suitable clerical assistance" further providing for the appointment and salaries of stenographers and clerks.

Referred to the Committee on State Government.

SENATE BILL No. 836.

An Act to further amend part of section one of the act approved the twelfth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-three (P. L. 259) entitled "An act providing for the payment by the State Treasurer of one-half of the amount of the tax on premiums paid by foreign casualty insurance companies to the treasurers of the several cities boroughs towns and townships and for the payment thereof into police pension funds and in certain cases into the Municipal Employees' Retirement System and in certain other cases into the State Employees' Retirement Fund for certain purposes" by further regulating the payment of such moneys into the State Employees' Retirement Fund.

Referred to the Committee on Municipal Corporations.

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. DAVID P. REESE

(Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 67.

In the House Representatives, June 10, 1947.

Whereas the amount of tax collected under the Federal Unemployment Insurance Act is considerably in excess of the total amount appropriated for grants-in-aid to the several states and required by such states for the administration of their respective unemployment compensation laws, and

Whereas the total amount of such tax should properly be returned to the states for administration of their respective unemployment compensation laws and the payment of benefits to unemployed workers, therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concurs) that the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby respectfully memorializes the Congress of the United States to enact the necessary Federal legislation whereby all moneys collected from Pennsylvania employers under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act are returned to the Commonwealth for the administration of the Pennsylvania Unemployment Compensation Law: Provided, That any such moneys in excess of the amount required for administration are transferred to the Unemployment Compensation Account for the payment of benefits to unemployed Pennsylvania workers.

Referred to Committee on Rules.

DISCHARGING COMMITTEE FROM CONSIDERATION OF HOUSE BILL No. 923

Messrs. CHUDOFF and SCANLON offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

In the House of Representatives, June 10, 1947.

Resolved, That the Committee on Judiciary be discharged from further consideration of House Bill No. 923, entitled "A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to article fourteen of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania abolishing County of Philadelphia as a separate political entity and providing for administering of county functions by City of Philadelphia," which bill was referred to the Committee on Judiciary on March 25, 1947.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, especially the Members of the House from Philadelphia, in order to explain House Bill No. 923 perhaps the best way to do it would be to read a little pamphlet put out by the Bureau of Municipal Research of Philadelphia known as "Citizens' Business," on May 6, 1947. This is about the shortest and most concise pamphlet on the matter brought to the attention of the House.

"In the Legislature are two identical bills, one in the House and the other in the Senate, proposing a constitutional amendment of city-county consolidation in Philadelphia: House Bill 923 (Chudoff and Scanlon), introduced on March 24 and referred the next day to the House Committee on Judiciary; and Senate Bill 414 (Stiefel, Jaspan, Rosenfeld, and Di Silvestro), introduced on March 25 and referred the same day to the Senate Committee on Constitutional Changes and Federal Relations.

"The constitutional amendment proposed in these bills is practically the same as the one which went before the voters of the state in 1937, and which then received a handsome majority in Philadelphia but failed of adoption because of an adverse upstate vote. It has been drafted with great care. If made a part of the constitution, it would abolish the county of Philadelphia 'as a political entity separate and distinct from the City of Philadelphia,' and would provide for the performance of all county functions by officers of the city, who would be either 'appointed or elected as may be provided by law.' The proposed amendment relates only to the county of Philadelphia; it would not affect any other county in the state."

"For some time there has been much discussion of charter revision and home rule for Philadelphia. Neither of these measures, however, can go very far toward their goals until the proposed amendment is in the constitution. Charter revision, whether undertaken by the Legislature directly or by the city itself under a legislative grant of home rule powers, cannot change the existing structure of county government so long as the county officers in Philadelphia retain their present constitutional status. One of the principal goals of charter revision is to bring about greater centralization of administrative control in the Mayor. Such centralization, however, cannot go much farther than it has gone already until the elective county officers can be made appointees of the Mayor or of members of the Mayor's cabinet, or their offices can be abolished altogether. The proposed amendment is therefore a prerequisite to any thorough-going charter revision or any really significant exercise of home rule powers."

"Philadelphia's county government has long been out of date, on two scores. In the first place, it is out of date because its highly decentralized structure, which had its origin in a rural setting, is not suitable for urban government. Philadelphia has been largely urban for many decades. In the second place, it is out of date because a county that is coterminous with a city does not need a separate government for county affairs. The city of Philadelphia and the county of Philadelphia have had identically the same boundaries and area ever since June 1854. It is high time that this hampering relic be discarded in favor of an up-to-date arrangement. The proposed constitutional amendment would clear the way for doing just that. If it is approved by the present Legislature, and approved also by the next Legislature early in 1949, it can go before the voters in the fall of that year."

Mr. Speaker, this is not the first time that a constitutional amendment of this type was offered. It was first offered twelve years ago in 1935, when it passed the House and Senate and was signed by the Governor. It was again passed in 1937 and when it was given to the people to vote on in November 1937 the so-called Republican leaders in Philadelphia came out for the passage of this amendment, and it passed with an overwhelming majority. However, I am told that orders were given by the up-state Republican leaders to knife the amendment, causing its defeat. This amendment time and time again was agreed upon by both the Department of Municipal Research of Philadelphia and the Committee of Seventy to do away with the dual government in Philadelphia and to consolidate into one form of government, which would save the taxpayers anywhere from four and a half to five million dollars a year in Philadelphia.

Today we were looking for additional funds to pay school teachers so that the city of Philadelphia can secure benefits from the teacher's legislation before the House and in the Senate.

I say to the Members of the House that if this amendment had passed in 1937 it would not have been necessary to increase taxes, but the money saved by eliminating certain unnecessary officers of Philadelphia would be in the hands of the School Board of Philadelphia, and I particularly say to the Republican Members from Philadelphia that if they vote against the discharge of the Committee which I have introduced in this Resolution they are voting for waste and extravagance in Philadelphia, and I ask that the Committee on Judiciary be discharged. I ask for a roll call, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I am glad that you recognized me, because I want to be the first person, if it is necessary, to come to the defense of the Committee of Judiciary of this House. I am surprised at the gentleman from Philadelphia presenting a resolution that the Committee on Judiciary should be discharged. If there is any Committee of this Legislative body that has worked during this session, that has given consideration to every bill, that has afforded to every person the right to be heard, it is the Committee on Judiciary.

It is my opinion, Mr. Speaker, that the power to discharge a Committee, though undoubtedly within the powers of this House, should not be exercised unless a Committee has acted improperly or unless a Committee has acted capriciously, and unless it has denied the right of persons to be heard. No one in this House can make such an accusation against the Judiciary Committee. While I believe that the gentleman from Philadelphia will vote for his resolution, in fairness to that Committee I think there ought to be two hundred seven votes against this resolution.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown, said something about being surprised. I surprised him, the gentleman from Philadelphia surprises him, but the greatest surprise is my own. I admire and respect the Chairman and the membership of the Judiciary General Committee, and doubtless they work, but this Committee is not the Supreme Court; it is not this House; it is not some super-government. I do not believe there is any other Committee in the House that is so sensitive about its prerogatives. They do work and they do reach decisions, but so do our courts, our county courts. They work and they reach decisions, and the Supreme Court says they are wrong. Now, this Judiciary General Committee has worked on many, many bills, but that its dignity should be hurt, that its feelings should be bruised and that this should be made a matter of whether the Committee has worked faithfully—you cannot give them indulgence on that basis.

I agree entirely with the argument that the gentleman from Philadelphia has made. The people of Philadelphia have sanctioned the idea in the constitutional amendment which he would bring before this House and would bring before the people, and it certainly should not bruise anybody's feelings if this House in its wisdom should sometimes decide to discharge a Committee. There has been too much trailing around in this House, this General Assembly, of the feelings of members of Committees, and you must not discharge committees from the consideration of legislation lest you hurt somebody's feelings.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown, would like you to believe that I have committed one of the high crimes of the House. I say to the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown, and to the Members of this House that the city-county consolidation is of the utmost importance to the City of Philadelphia. The Republican leaders of Philadelphia have always given lip service but have never come forth to pass the bill each and every time it has been introduced in this House, and I say to you that the Democratic party in Philadelphia is for consolidation, efficiency in government and economy in government, and I don't care what Committee of the House is involved, I think we ought to discharge committees and bring out bills that should be brought out.

Mr. McKINNEY. Mr. Speaker, I simply want to ask the Members of the House to vote against this resolution.

Mr. O'DONNELL. Mr. Speaker, I seek permission to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Chudoff.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CHUDOFF. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. O'DONNELL. Mr. Speaker, I should like to ask the gentleman if this bill was on the calendar in the session of 1935-37.

Mr. CHUDOFF. It was, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. O'DONNELL. And presented by whom, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. CHUDOFF. I don't know who the sponsor was, Mr. Speaker, but it was presented by a Member. I think it was originally introduced in the Senate in 1935 and passed the House after passing the Senate.

Mr. O'DONNELL. And can the gentleman tell us by vote of the Philadelphia Republicans on the bill in 1935-37?

Mr. CHUDOFF. I cannot give the gentleman the answer now; it is a matter of record.

Mr. O'DONNELL. Did the gentleman not study the record lately?

Mr. CHUDOFF. I did not study the vote. I only looked at the time the bill was first introduced.

Mr. O'DONNELL. Mr. Speaker, from the gentleman's remarks—of course I may be wrong and he may be right, but the gentleman seems to put it on the party proposition, that it is either right or wrong depending upon the party, is that correct?

Mr. CHUDOFF. I did not say that, Mr. Speaker. I said that those in favor of good government, especially those from Philadelphia should vote for the discharge of the Committee.

Mr. O'DONNELL. And the gentleman also says that it would save several million dollars?

Mr. CHUDOFF. Between four and five million dollars, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. O'DONNELL. And can the gentleman tell me, Mr. Speaker, where it would be saved and over what time?

Mr. CHUDOFF. I understand that the bureau of Municipal Research has worked out the figures and details of the saving, and they figure it will save the city of Philadelphia somewhere between four million and five million dollars.

Mr. O'DONNELL. Would that be eliminating some of the services that the people are getting now?

Mr. CHUDOFF. No, Mr. Speaker, it will only eliminate the duplication of services now performed by two officers in the City of Philadelphia.

Mr. O'DONNELL. Mr. Speaker, may I ask if the gentleman would undertake to obtain that information and present it to us by tomorrow?

Mr. CHUDOFF. I don't think I can get it by tomorrow, Mr. Speaker, in the dying days of the session, but I will get it, Mr. Speaker, and give it to the gentleman personally.

Mr. O'DONNELL. I would like to get it on the record, Mr. Speaker. I am asking the information from the gentleman because I have made a pretty good study of the subject, and as I see it, the city charter as far as the gentleman's bill is concerned would cost the city more money.

Mr. CHUDOFF. My bill, Mr. Speaker, would not cost more money, but by means of consolidation it would eliminate dual offices.

Mr. O'DONNELL. And we would still have to pay the same number of employee's, I think, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHUDOFF. According to the bureau of Municipal Research which has made a study of this subject, it will eliminate a great number of employees, and that report is open to public inspection.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

DISCHARGING COMMITTEE FROM CONSIDERATION OF HOUSE BILL No. 167

Mr. RUSSELL E. REESE offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 10, 1947.

Resolved, That the Committee on Railroads and Railways be discharged from further consideration of House Bill No. 167, entitled:

An Act to promote the safety of employees and travelers upon railroads by compelling common carriers by railroad to man locomotives, trains and other self propelled engines or machines with competent employees; to provide the least number of men that may be employed on locomotive trains, and other self propelled engines or machines; to provide the qualifications of certain employees; and to provide a penalty for the violation thereof, and the enforcement thereof by the Public Utility Commission.

Said bill having been referred Tuesday Jan. 28, 1947 to the Committee on Railroads and Railways.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the Resolution?

Mr. RUSSELL E. REESE. Mr. Speaker, from your information on June 1, 1937 there was approved P. L. 1120 known as the Pennsylvania Full Crew law. This law was contested in the Dauphin Co. Court by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

After a prolonged hearing by the Court of Dauphin County, this Court declared Sections 2, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8 unconstitutional leaving the remaining sections intact.

This decision was appealed to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania which Court sustained the decision of the Dauphin Co. Court in so far as Sections 2, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8 were concerned.

There were several other injunctions ask for by other railroads operating in the State of Pennsylvania and during the year of 1943 the President Judge William M. Hargest of the Dauphin County Courts issued a final consent decree restraining enforcement officers of the State of Pennsylvania from enforcing this act on all other railroads in the State of Pennsylvania except the Pennsylvania Railroad which decree was agreed to by the then Attorney General of the State of Pennsylvania, James H. Duff.

The Railroad Brotherhoods on June 27, 1946 during the Primary campaign requested the then Attorney General who was a candidate for Governor to advise what his attitude would be in reference to the enactment of certain sections of the Act of June 1, 1947 that were not declared unconstitutional.

Under date of July 9, 1946 the then Attorney General advised as follows:

"My examination of the record indicates that Sections 2, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8 of the Act of June 1, 1937, P. L. 1120 were held unconstitutional in the Pennsylvania Railroad case, and therefore, when the consent decrees were entered only those sections should have been stipulated. In view of the fact that only those sections should have been stipulated, it would definitely seem unfair that a broad decree was entered in all railroads except the Pennsylvania Railroad case.

My opinion, therefore, would be that the matter ought to be reinstated on the basis merely of eliminating those sections that were declared unconstitutional by the order in 337 Pa. 310."

After which the Railroad Brotherhoods addressed a letter to Governor Edward Martin in references to the same subject to which the Governor of the State of Pennsylvania replied in part as follows:

"As I understand it, Attorney General Duff is of the opinion that only those sections of the Act of June 1, 1937 P. L. 1120, the so-called "full crew law," which were declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court in the above case should have been stipulated in the consent decrees to which you refer. The Attorney General also tells me that he thinks the proper remedy is legislative; and I believe that legislation would be the best way to cure the situation and to accomplish the most good for all concerned."

After which on April 17, 1947 after the former Attorney General, James H. Duff had been inaugurated as Governor of our Keystone State the Railroad Brotherhoods called his attention to his former opinion of July 9, 1946 to which under date of April 21, 1947 the Governor replied as follows:

"I have before me your letter of April 17, relative to Senate Bill No. 52 and House Bill No. 167, which were introduced to correct the situation as outlined in my letter to you under date of July 9, 1946.

I will have this checked by the Attorney General's office and will certainly recommend that the statement made before by me be adhered to."

The Railroad Brotherhoods not hearing from Governor James H. Duff on May 22nd 1947 again addressed a letter to the Governor a portion of which is quoted for your information.

"The undersigned wish to thank you for your reply of April 21st 1947 in our letter of April 17th 1947 in reference to Senate Bill No. 52 and House Bill No. 167.

Due to the fact that this session of the Pennsylvania General Assembly is drawing very near to the end.

We have been unable to have either one of these bills released from Committee, we would appreciate it very much if you would advise us if you have had this bill checked by the Attorney General's office. If so, have you recommended to the leaders of the General Assembly that your former Statement be adhered to."

Due to the fact that more than twenty-one days have elapsed since that time I am of the opinion that the leaders of the majority party have ignored the request of our Governor for the re-enactment of these sections that were not declared unconstitutional, so, therefore, I respectfully request that the members of this General Assembly support the attitude for our Governor and vote to discharge this Committee.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, we are drawing to the close of a short and business like session. There are signs that notwithstanding the celerity with which we have proceeded since the first of January, that there will be a rush to complete the business. There is even a possibility of a midnight watch while four or five members conduct the business of the House.

Now, I have to be one of those four or five Members, and I have grown so accustomed to seeing you, and I like you so much that in the midst of that midnight watch my heart will yearn for you; I will be eager to see your faces, to see your smiles. I will need your presence so much to sustain me that I am awfully afraid that if there isn't a quorum in the House that, as fine men as you are, I will want you so much and need you so much that we will have to send for you.

I am quietly deciding that while I am very much for the regulations, I imagine that I will be disinclined to have business going on unless there is, all of the time in the House, a quorum. I have functioned in this House when there were six or eight here in the wee small hours of the morning, passing on Senate amendments to House bills and so forth and so on. Now, if we are going to close this week and expect to have an early Sunday morning session I will expect all of the time that we have a quorum in the House. If we have to go into Sunday morning—if there is a prospect of going into Sunday morning, we should avoid that—we should recess on Friday or Saturday and take Sunday off and come back and finish our business in workmanlike fashion on Monday and Tuesday.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEES TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. McKINNEY asked and obtained permission for the Committee on Judiciary to meet during the session of the House.

Mr. FLEMING asked and obtained permission for the Committee on Cities and County—Second Class to meet during the session of the House.

RESOLUTION

Mr. DIX offered a resolution which was laid over under the Rules.

SENATE MESSAGES

RESOLUTIONS FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate of Pennsylvania, June 9, 1947.

Whereas, The commission generally known as "The School Commission," created by the act of May 26, 1943 (P. L. 635) and continued by the act of May 24, 1945 (P. L. 953), for the purpose of making a study of public school finance, has completed its assigned task and is about to pass out of existence; and

Whereas, In the course of its studies, the commission has gathered a great deal of invaluable data and information, now contained in the commission's files, all of which should be preserved for future use; therefore be it

Resolved, (If the House of Representatives concurs), That upon winding up its affairs The School Commission deliver all of its files containing all data, reports, material and information collected and compiled by it, to the Joint State Government Commission, to be by it preserved for use by it and such other agencies as may have occasion to study the financing of the public school system.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

Referred to Committee on Rules.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, June 9, 1947.

Whereas, a park and recreational area has been projected for establishment in the Township of Mead, County of Warren, by the Department of Forests and Waters in cooperation with various sportsmen's organizations to be located generally in the location of what is known as Bucher's Mills, and

Whereas, the interest of Dr. Leroy E. Chapman, Senator from the Forty-eighth District, in the establishment and location of the said park and recreational area has been of great assistance in furthering the plans for the same, and

Whereas, it would be fitting that such a project for the benefit of the public, bear the name which would recognize the service to the community of such a man as Doctor Chapman; Therefore be it

Resolved, if the House of Representatives concur, that the park and recreational area to be established at or near Bucher's Mill in Mead Township, Warren County, Pennsylvania, be and the same hereby is officially named "Chapman Park," and shall be so designated on the plans and maps of the Department of Forests and Waters and of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. McMILLEN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I know it is late and you are tired, but I do feel that you should never be so tired or too late to take a few minutes out to take note of the trials and happiness of other folks. Down front here we have the eyes and the ears, and perhaps the mouthpiece of the people of Pennsylvania, sitting here in the press box. We are always pleased when they write the things that we want them to write and when they give us good headlines, and we are sometimes displeased when they write things that we don't like. They help us and sometimes they hurt us, but that is all a part of the legislative game.

There happens to be in the press box today a gentleman who is very frequently seen chasing around this House hunting news, taking notes in preparation for a news release that is going to either put a bill over or defeat it. That man found, as men sometimes do in their lives, that they need help. This man, who is a very habitual pipe smoker, has decided to take unto himself a wife, and it is with a great deal of pleasure, Mr. Speaker, that I offer this resolution.

CONGRATULATORY RESOLUTION

Messrs. McMILLEN and HELM offered a resolution which was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 10, 1947.

It has come to the attention of the Members of the House of Representatives that one of its legislative correspondents, representing the Associated Press, is soon to be married to Miss Florence Luckzus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Luckzus of Shenandoah, Pennsylvania, at which place the wedding will be solemnized at two o'clock in the afternoon of June twenty-ninth in the Saint George's Church.

The other principal to the wedding is the amiable Leonard A. Unger, commonly known as the "key-hole reporter," who came to Harrisburg from Pittsburgh in October of 1945 and who, by his keen and somewhat unique abilities and methods, has ably reported the activities of the House of Representatives during the current session.

Mr. Unger and Miss Luckzus first met while he was a reporter for the Shenandoah Herald where Miss Luckzus is employed as an assistant circulation manager; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives extends to Miss Luckzus and Mr. Unger its best wishes for a happy and successful marriage; and be it further Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives send a copy of this resolution to Miss Luckzus at her home in Shenandoah, Pennsylvania, and deliver a copy thereof to Mr. Under.

SENATE

WEDNESDAY, June 11, 1947

The Senate met at 1:00 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Daniel B Strickler) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. W. MURRAY YOUNG offered the following prayer:

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Let us pray.

The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof; the world and they that dwell therein, for He hath founded it upon the seas and established it upon the floods. Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord and who shall stand in His holy place? He that hath clean hands and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity nor sworn deceitfully. Let the words of our mouth and the meditations of our hearts be acceptable in Thy sight, O Lord, our strength and our redeemer. In the name of Him whose Name is above every other name, we pray. Amen!

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. TALLMAN and Mr. LORD, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.
